The Community of the Beautiful Alejandro R. Garcia-Rivera, 2017-07-27 2000 Catholic Press Association Award Winner The claim has been made that we are gripped today in an aesthetic crisis with considerable theological ramifications Aesthetics which has existed since the first human heart was moved by the influence of the beautiful has played a major role both implicit and explicit in theological reflection In The Community of the Beautiful Alejandro Garcia Rivera draws from the North American philosophical tradition and Hispanic theological thought to propose a new aesthetic principle a redemptive building of the community of the beautiful The Community of the Beautiful focuses on the premise that religion and beauty go together Yet today hundreds of theological treatises continue to speak solely of the truth of their claims The Community of the Beautiful addresses this silence with a proposal about the relationship between God and the beautiful It asks the question How can the finite human creature name the nameless perceive the imperceptible make visible the invisible The answer is what Hans Urs von Balthasar called a theological aesthetics The Community of the Beautiful is not simply an analysis of Balthasar s theology there exists a more personal and concrete reason for a reconsideration of the connection between God and the beautiful The experience of a particular living ecclesial tradition the Latin Church of the Americas may be a guide to a world that lost its confidence in the religious dimensions of the beautiful Garcia Rivera recasts the question of theological aesthetics posed above in light of the religious experience of the Latin Church of the Americas so that the question becomes What moves the human heart To answer that question Garcia Rivera draws on along ignored philosophical tradition The philosophical semiotics of Charles Peirce and Josiah Royce enter into dialogue with the theological aesthetics of Hans Urs von Balthasar to describe the traditional transcendentals the True and the Good as communities The final transcendental the beautiful enters into conversation with the semiotic aesthetics of Jan Mukarovsky and the religious experience of the Latin American Church to become the dazzling Vision of the community of the beautiful God s community Chapters are Pied Beauty A Different Beauty Seeing the Form The Community of the True The

Community of the Good The Community of the Beautiful and Lifting up the Lowly Alejandro R Garcia Rivera a Roman Catholic lay theologian received his doctorate in theology from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago and holds degrees in physics from Ohio State University and Miami University The author of numerous articles and winner of a Catholic Press Association award he is assistant professor of systematic theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley

Mircea Eliade, 1980 These essays deal with the question of what is the proper self understanding of Christianity in a religiously pluralistic world The Hope of Liberation in World Religions Miguel A. De La Torre, 2008 Liberation theology emphasizes the Christian mission to bring justice to the poor and oppressed As a part of Christian theology liberation theology has been most frequently associated with the Catholic Church in Latin America This groundbreaking work seeks to identify how the theological concepts of liberation theology might be manifested within other world faith traditions This is thus the first book that attempts to find a common ground for liberation theology across religions All of the contributors are scholars who share the religion or belief system they describe Throughout they endeavor to articulate liberationist concepts from the perspective of those who have been marginalized Christian Remnant-African Folk Church Stefan Höschele, 2007-01-01 Tanzanian Adventism exemplifies one of the most fascinating shifts in the history of religions the growth of Christianity in Africa Most striking in this account is the analysis of a minority denomination's transformation to a veritable folk church Patterns Legitimizing Political Violence in Transcultural Perspectives Bettina Koch, 2015-05-19 This volume explores theoretical discourses in which religion is used to legitimize political violence It examines the ways in which Christianity and Islam are utilized for political ends in particular how violence is used or abused as an expedient to justify political action This research focuses on premodern as well as contemporary discourses in the Middle East and Latin America identifying patterns frequently used to justify the deployment of violence in both hegemonic and anti hegemonic discourses In addition it explores how premodern arguments and authorities are utilized and transformed in order to legitimize contemporary violence as well as the ways in which the use of religion as a means to justify violence alters the nature of conflicts that are not otherwise explicitly religious It argues that most past and present conflicts even if the discourses about them are conducted in religious terms have origins other than religion and or blend religion with other causes namely socio economic and political injustice and inequality Understanding the use and abuse of religion to justify violence is a prerequisite to discerning the nature of a conflict and might thus contribute to conflict resolution Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe's most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword Disruptive Religion Christian Smith, 2014-07-16 Religion has long played a central role in many social and political movements Solidarity in Poland anti apartheid in South Africa Operation Rescue in the United States each of these movements is driven by the energy and sustained by the commitment of many individuals and organizations whose ideologies are shaped and powered by religious faith In many cases religious resources and motives serve as crucial variables explaining the emergence of entire social movements Despite the crucial role of religion in most societies this religious activism remains largely uninvestigated Disruptive Religion intends to fill this void by analyzing contemporary social movements which are driven by people and organizations of faith Upon a firm base of empirical evidence these essays also address many theoretical issues arising in the study of social movements and disruptive politics

Social, Political, and Religious Movements in the Modern Americas Pablo A. Baisotti, 2021-12-30 This volume explores several notable themes related to social political and religious movements in Latin America and offers insightful historical perspectives to understand national regional and global issues from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day This volume s collected chapters focus on the Latin American society and are divided into three sections The first section Social presents some cultural demographic and urban changes that have occurred with increasing frequency in Latin America from the early twentieth century onward The second section Political shows migratory political and identity movements that in recent decades have re emerged with force Finally the third section Religious analyzes various Latin American religious visions with their particular characteristics From the religious hegemony of Catholicism a change in the religious panorama in the last decades can be seen intermingled with politics history and society The Ecumenical Review

, 1989 Reconstructing the Common Good Gary J. Dorrien, 2008-05-01 This landmark study in the history and theory of modern Christian socialism examines the work of such major figures as Rauschenbusch Tillich Moltmann Guti rrez and M guez Bonino Dorrien argues that these theologians provide a singular context for addressing questions of freedom and totalitarianism sacralization and democratization individual autonomy and the common good He focuses on the differing conceptions of the common good that these major theorists have propounded and explicates as well their theological arguments on the relationship between the Kingdom of God and projects of historical praxis With a new Preface addressing the tumultuous events in Eastern Europe Reconstructing the Common Good develops and sustains a forceful argument for the continuing relevance of a decentralized pluralistic democratic form of socialism
