Institutions for the Earth Peter M. Haas,1993 Can environmental institutions be effective at bringing about a healthier environment How Institutions for the Earth takes a close look at the factors influencing organized responses to seven international environmental problems oil pollution from tankers acid rain in Europe stratospheric ozone depletion pollution of the North Sea and Baltic mismanagement of fisheries overpopulation and misuses of farm chemicals to determine the roles that environmental institutions have played in attempting to solve them Through rigorous systematic comparison it reveals common patterns that can lead to improvements in the collective management of these problems and suggests ways in which international institutions can further the case of environmental protection The contributors identify three major functions performed by effective international environmental institutions building national capacity improving the contractual environment and elevating governmental concern The international organizations analyzed within this framework include the United Nations Environment Program the Intergovernmental Maritime Organization the Food and Agriculture Organization numerous fisheries commissions the Commission for Europe the Oslo and Paris Commissions the Helsinki Commission and the United Nations Fund for Population Assistance Frontiers in Environmental Science - Editor's Picks 2021 Martin Siegert,2021-11-24 Encyclopedia of Food Grains Colin W Wrigley,Harold Corke,Koushik Seetharaman,Jonathan Faubion,2015-12-17 The Encyclopedia of Food Grains Four Volume Set is an in depth and authoritative reference covering all areas of grain science Coverage includes everything from the genetics of grains to the commercial economic and social aspects of this important food source Also covered are the biology and chemistry of grains the applied aspects of grain production and the processing of grains into various food and beverage products With the paramount role of cereals as a global food source this Encyclopedia is sure to become the standard reference work in the field of science Also available online via ScienceDirect featuring extensive browsing searching and internal cross referencing between articles in the work plus dynamic linking to journal articles and abstract databases making navigation flexible and easy For more information pricing options and availability visit www.info.sciencedirect.com Written from an international perspective the Encyclopedia concentrates on the food uses of grains but details are also provided about the wider roles of grains Well organized and accessible it is the ideal resource for students researchers and professionals seeking an authoritative overview on any particular aspect of grain science This second edition has four print volumes which provides over 200 articles on food grains Includes extensive cross referencing and Further Reading lists at the end of each article for deeper exploration into the topic This edition also includes useful items for students and teachers alike with Topic Highlights Learning objectives Exercises for Revision and exercises to explore the topic further Global Change Information Packet ,1992 Borrowed Land, Stolen Labor, and the Holy Spirit Diane T. Feldman,2025-07-15 Borrowed Land Stolen Labor and the Holy Spirit The Struggle for Power and Equality in Holmes County Mississippi chronicles the profound history of a low income county that became a pivotal site for Delta organizing during the civil rights movement Landowning African American farmers who enjoyed more economic independence than sharecroppers emerged as the grassroots leaders of the movement The volume begins with the county's Native American heritage moving through the periods of removal land sales to speculators the rapid increase of enslaved labor in the nineteenth century and early African American political engagement during Reconstruction Author Diane T Feldman explores how African Americans fostered cooperative landownership efforts in the 1880s and 1920s alongside the development of schools and churches particularly the Church of God in Christ a denomination founded in Holmes County The fight for voting rights started with African American farmers in the 1950s and gained momentum with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in the 1960s Their struggle to desegregate schools culminated in the landmark Supreme Court case Alexander v Holmes which abolished dual school systems in the South The final chapters cover the past sixty years and current initiatives to restore food production in the Mississippi Delta Enriched with recent and
