Bergmann,Constância Ayres,Lenny Hogerwerf,Richard Kock,Robert G. Wallace,2018-02-22 The vector borne Zika virus joins avian influenza Ebola and yellow fever as recent public health crises threatening pandemicity By a combination of stochastic modeling and economic geography this book proposes two key causes together explain the explosive spread of the worst of the vector borne outbreaks Ecosystems in which such pathogens are largely controlled by environmental stochasticity are being drastically streamlined by both agribusiness led deforestation and deficits in public health and environmental sanitation Consequently a subset of infections that once burned out relatively quickly in local forests are now propagating across susceptible human populations whose vulnerability to infection is often exacerbated in structurally adjusted cities The resulting outbreaks are characterized by greater global extent duration and momentum As infectious diseases in an age of nation states and global health programs cannot as much of the present modeling literature presumes be described by interacting populations of host vector and pathogen alone a series of control theory models is also introduced here These models useful to researchers and health officials alike explicitly address interactions between government ministries and the pathogens they aim to control The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Economics Günseli Berik,Ebru Kongar,2021-05-23 The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Economics presents a comprehensive overview of the contributions of feminist economics to the discipline of economics and beyond Each chapter situates the topic within the history of the field reflects upon current debates and looks forward to identify cutting edge research Consistent with feminist economics goal of strong objectivity this Handbook compiles contributions from different traditions in feminist economics including but not limited to Marxian political economy institutionalist economics ecological economics and neoclassical economics and from different disciplines such as economics philosophy and political science The Handbook delineates the social provisioning methodology and highlights its insights for the development of feminist economics The contributors are a diverse mix of established and rising scholars of feminist economics from around the globe who skilfully frame the current state and future direction of feminist economic scholarship This carefully crafted volume will be an essential resource for researchers and instructors of feminist economics The Global Food Crisis Satish Kedia,2010-01-05 The NAPA Bulletin series is dedicated to the practical problem solving and policy applications of anthropological knowledge and methods These papers demonstrate the diverse ways in which anthropology can be used to address the global food crisis while directly responding to local realities Experts explore the dilemma of food insecurity in developing and industrialized countries Practicing and applied anthropologists sociologists and public health workers examine the global food crisis through a variety of theoretical and analytical frameworks Examines the ways in which food policies and economic restructuring have contributed to increasing food inequities across the globe People and Forests Clark C. Gibson, Margaret A. McKean, Elinor Ostrom, 2000 People and Forests explores the complex interactions between local communities and their forests focusing on the rules by which communities govern and manage their forest resources Latin America Jan Knippers Black, 2018-04-17 Now in a fifth edition Latin America has been updated to reflect the region's growing optimism as economies stabilize trade diversifies and political systems become more participatory This multidisciplinary survey of Latin American history politics and society features invited contributions from authorities in a variety of fields New sections address current events including deforestation in Costa Rica and Brazil emerging social movements Ecuador's new constitution and Obama's stated objectives to repair U.S. relations with the region In addition key topics such as women and Latin American politics socialist governments and anti American sentiment Argentina's deteriorating economy and Colombia's struggle with military and narcotics issues receive expanded and revitalized treatment Other updated material covers outcomes of recent elections in Bolivia Brazil and Nicaragua among others Through a hybrid thematic and regional organization this text provides an essential foundation for introductory courses on Latin America Transformations Torrey D. Dickinson, Robert K. Schaeffer, 2015-12-03 Bringing feminist and world systems theories together this analytic anthology examines the rise of intersecting women centered movements that contribute to alternative development and the rise of new societies The authors consider feminist movements and humanistic transformations that create new work and market relations promote democracy and equality redefine gender and sexuality regenerate the environment and construct nonviolent and peaceful relations At the end of each chapter articles by feminist theorists and practitioners on these topics are included to illustrate the analysis Using a global historical framework the book shows how diverse multicultural and international feminist ideas can be brought together to provide a comprehensive and differentiated understanding of change

West African Studies Conflict over Resources and Terrorism Two Facets of Insecurity OECD, Sahel and West Africa Club, 2013-04-02 This study first analyses an old and recurring form of instability in the region conflict over resources Secondly the study addresses terrorism a relatively new dimension of insecurity Something New Under the Sun J. R. McNeill, 2001-04-17 One of those rare books that's both sweeping and specific scholarly and readable What makes the book stand out is its wealth of historical detail Elizabeth Kolbert The New Yorker The history of the twentieth century is most often told through its world wars the rise and fall of communism or its economic upheavals In his startling book J. R. McNeill gives us our first general account of what may prove to be the most significant dimension of the twentieth century its environmental history To a degree unprecedented in human history we have refashioned the earth's air water and soil and the biosphere of which we are a part Based on exhaustive research McNeill's story a compelling blend of anecdotes data and shrewd analysis never preaches it is our definitive account This is a volume in The Global Century Series general editor Paul

Kennedy Feminist Political Ecology Dianne Rocheleau, Barbara Thomas-Slayter, Esther Wangari, 2013-04-15 Feminist Political Ecology explores the gendered relations of ecologies economies and politics in communities as diverse as the rubber tappers in the rainforests of Brazil to activist groups fighting racism in New York City Women are often at the centre of these struggles struggles which concern local knowledge everyday practice rights to resources sustainable development environmental quality and social justice The book bridges the gap between the academic and rural orientation of political ecology and the largely activist and urban focus of environmental justice movements Trends in Hazardous Materials Research Edward C. Booking, 2007 Hazardous waste is a waste with properties that make it dangerous or potentially harmful to human health or the environment Hazardous waste generally exhibits one or more of these characteristics ignitability corrosivity reactivity or toxicity The universe of hazardous wastes is large and diverse Hazardous wastes can be liquids solids contained gases or sludges They can be the by products of manufacturing processes or simply discarded commercial products like cleaning fluids or pesticides One major type is radioactive waste This book brings together the latest research in this diverse field Gender and Sustainability Mar'a Luz Cruz-Torres, Pamela McElwee, 2012-11-08 Gender and Sustainability deals with women's struggles to contend with global forces environmental change economic development discrimination and stereotyping about the roles of women and diminishing access to natural resources not in the abstract but in everyday life It addresses the lived complexities of the relationship between gender and sustainability The Palgrave Handbook of Development Economics Machiko Nissanke, José Antonio Ocampo, 2019-08-12 This Handbook responds to the needs and aspirations of current and future generations of development economists by providing critical reference material alongside or in relation to mainstream propositions Despite the potential of globalisation in accelerating growth and development in low and middle income countries through the spread of technology knowledge and information its current practice in many parts of the world has led to processes that are socially economically and politically and ecologically unsustainable It is critical for development economists to engage with the pivotal question of how to change the nature and course of globalisation to make it work for inclusive and sustainable development Applying a critical and pluralistic approach the chapters in this Handbook examine economics of development paths under globalisation focusing on sustainable development in social environmental institutional and political economy dimensions It aims at advancing the frontier of development economics in these key aspects and generating more refined policy perspectives It is critically reflective in examining effects of globalisation on development paths to date and in terms of methodological and analytical approaches as well as forward thinking in policy perspectives with a view to laying a foundation for sustainable development Environmental Issues and Sustainable Futures Michael Marien, 1996 Seeing the Forest and the Trees Emilio F. Moran, Elinor Ostrom, 2005 Seeing the Forest and the Trees examines changes in land cover land use in forested regions as major contributors to global environmental change
