Porch Talk With Ernest Gaines Conversations On The Writers Craft:

Porch Talk with Ernest Gaines Marcia Gaudet, Carl Wooton, 1999-03-01 Ernest J Gaines the author of many acclaimed works of fiction including The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman and A Gathering of Old Men was born in 1933 in the small south Louisiana town of Oscar. In his childhood the center of his world was the old slave quarters on the River Lake Plantation where five generations of his family lived. All of Gaines's books have been set in this general area of Louisiana and though none of his work is strictly autobiographical his writing bears the distinctive stamp of the rural folk culture amid which he was raised. Marcia Gaudet and Carl Wooton's Porch Talk with Ernest Gaines is a collection of interviews conducted on the porch of Gaines's home in Lafayette, Louisiana, where he is writer in residence at the University of Southwestern Louisiana. Gaines talks about a variety of topics including the influence of other writers among them Faulkner, Hemingway, and Mark Twain on his style and the importance of oral tradition and folk culture to his writing. He discusses the major themes of his work such as survival with dignity and the search for manhood and he describes the relationships among the black Creole and Cajun communities of south Louisiana and how they have been portrayed in his fiction. Gaines also comments on the craft of writing, his role as a teacher, the film versions of some of his books, his relationships with his agent and editors, and his work in progress. This is the first book-length work on Gaines to be published. It will be of importance to scholars and students of American literature, particularly southern and Afro-American literature, because it gives the reader valuable insights into Gaines's life and writing. The format and conversational tone of the book will also appeal to the audience drawn to Gaines's fiction. Ernest J. Gaines Dennis Abrams, 2013-11 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for his 1993 novel A Lesson Before Dying, recipient of the National Humanities Medal, and author of the classic The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman. Ernest J. Cherie Quarters Ruth Laney, 2022-10-19 Cherie Quarters combines personal interviews, biography, and social history to tell the story of a plantation quarter and its most famous resident, renowned Louisiana writer and Pulitzer Prize nominee Ernest J. Gaines. In clear and vivid prose, this original and vital book illuminates the birthplace of a preeminent Black author and the lives of the people who inspired his work. Before he became an award-winning writer, Gaines was the son of sharecroppers in Cherie Quarters, a small Black community in Pointe Coupee Parish, Louisiana. Drawing on decades of interviews and archival research, Ruth Laney explores the lives and histories of the families both kin and not who lived in a place where everybody was everybody's child. Built as slave cabins for the nearby River Lake Plantation in the 1840s, the houses of Cherie Quarters were cold in winter, hot in summer, filled with mosquitoes, and overflowing with people. Even so, the residents made these houses into homes. Laney describes aspects of their daily lives: work, food, entertainment, religion, and education, then expands her focus to the white families who built River Lake Plantation, enslaved its people, and later directed the lives of its Black sharecroppers. The twenty-first century saw the demise of Cherie Quarters. Like many landmarks of Black American life and history, the few remaining structures were razed or fell into ruin.

Laney recounts the ultimately unsuccessful efforts of a small dedicated group to preserve the vestiges of the community two slave cabins the church schoolhouse and a shed Engaging and rich in detail Cherie Quarters highlights the voices of those who called this special place home and shares the story of a lost way of life in South Louisiana Southscapes Thadious M. Davis,2011 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Navigating the Fiction of Ernest J. Gaines Keith Clark,2020-03-18 One of the South s most revered writers Ernest J Gaines attracts both popular and academic audiences Gaines s unique literary style depiction of the African American experience and celebration of the rural South s oral tradition have brought him critical praise and numerous accolades including a MacArthur Fellowship a National Humanities Medal and a National Book Critics Circle Award for his novel A Lesson before Dying In this welcome guide to Gaines s fiction Keith Clark offers insightful analyses of his novels and short stories Clark s close readings elucidate Gaines s more acclaimed works including The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman and A Gathering of Old Men while also introducing lesser known but masterfully crafted pieces such as the story Three Men and the civil rights novel In My Father s House Gaines s most recent work The Tragedy of Brady Sims receives here one of its first critical examinations Clark shows how the themes of Gaines s literary oeuvre produced over the past fifty years dovetail with issues reverberating in twenty first century America race and the criminal justice system black masculinity the environment the enduring impact of slavery black southern women s voices and blacks and whites interpretation of history In addition to textual discussions the book includes an interview Clark conducted with Gaines at the writer s home in New Roads Louisiana in 2014 further illuminating the inner workings and personality of this eminent literary artist Ernest J. of squalor or despair with a sense of cultural vitality He examines the Ellisonian themes and motifs the two later writers take up in their fiction and looks at Ellison's influence on the strategies they enact to construct themselves as American writers For Beavers the fictions of Ellison Gaines and McPherson are peopled by characters who value acts of storytelling and whose stories frame a fuller more complex and more inclusive version of American identity than those the dominant white culture has allowed
