The Port Dalhousie Stories Dennis Tourbin, 1987 Port Dalhousie: An Intimate History Christine

Aloian-Robertson, David Serafino, 2020-07-11 Port Dalhousie started out as a farming and fishing settlement at the mouth of Twelve Mile Creek at what would become the northern terminus of the First Welland Canal Throughout the 19th century it prospered and grew into a village and then a town but fell into a gradual decline due to the opening of the Fourth Welland Canal in Port Weller three miles to the east in 1932 the end of passenger ship service in 1950 and the closing of the popular Lakeside Park in 1971 In 1961 it was incorporated into the City of St Catharines and in 1974 woke up to a resurgence of pride in a community that discovered its incredible history Many of those residents who had lived through the earliest of these times were still alive when the interviews herein were first being recorded Though the forty some interviews contained within add personal colour humour and passion to the story that is Port Dalhousie the historical account would not be complete without a narrative that defines the eras that this settlement village and town passed through on the way to becoming what it is today This history begins at the close of the 18th century and carries on to the early 1960s when it ceased being a town and became a suburb of the City of St Catharines The many who remember the days prior to amalgamation and even many newcomers identify with living in Port Dalhousie or as the old timers would say Pordaloozie

The Story of My Life Egerton Ryerson, 2019-11-27 In The Story of My Life Egerton Ryerson provides a compelling narrative chronicling his experiences beliefs and the social contexts that shaped his life within 19th century Canada Writing with a blend of introspection and advocacy Ryerson s autobiographical work offers a reflective examination of his role in the development of public education Indigenous rights and social reform The literary style is both personal and persuasive imbued with a sense of urgency that echoes the progressive ideals of his time as he navigates deeply personal struggles alongside institutional challenges Egerton Ryerson a prominent educator and Methodist preacher was profoundly influenced by the socio political landscape of early Canada including its colonial past and the pivotal role of education in societal advancement His commitment to social justice and reform was evident in his career which included founding the public school system in Ontario His experiences as an advocate for Indigenous rights and education reform inform his reflections providing readers with insight into the moral and ethical considerations influencing his life s work The Story of My Life is highly recommended for readers interested in autobiographical literature that intertwines personal narrative with broader societal themes Ryerson s candid revelations about his convictions and the transformative power of education make this work a significant contribution to Canadian literature and a valuable resource for those wanting to understand the fabric of 19th century Canadian society Policy Matters Clive Robertson, 2006 In this book Clive Robertson examines the subject of arts administration through the three major topics of artist run culture as movement and apparatus custody battles with at the Canada Council and Carings for art and culture Includes interviews with Paule Leduc Roch Carrier Edythe Goodriche and
