Port Mungo Vintage Contemporaries:

Port Mungo Patrick McGrath, 2005-06-14 In a seedy river town on the Gulf of Honduras Jack Rathbone believed he had found a place that would give him and his lover the accomplished artist Vera Savage the solitude they would need to create a body of work that would shake the art world to its core But in a place where time lies thicker than the mangrove swamps that surround it Jack and Vera discover an emotional frontier more fearsome untamed and dangerous than any wilderness Told through the voice of Jack's adoring sister Gin Port Mungo is the riveting story of this ill fated couple one that begins as a bohemian flight of fancy before unraveling into a dark debauched and sinister tale With Port Mungo the incomparable Patrick McGrath author of the acclaimed novels Spider and Asylum delivers a spellbinding narrative to explore the obsessive pursuit of art and love

21st-Century British Gothic Emily Horton, 2024-01-25 In this innovative re casting of the genre and its received canon Emily Horton explores fictional investments in the Gothic within contemporary British literature revealing how such concepts as the monstrous spectral and uncanny work to illuminate the insecure uneven and precarious experience of 21st century life Reading contemporary works of Gothic fiction by Helen Oyeyemi Kazuo Ishiguro Sarah Moss Patrick McGrath and M R Carey alongside writers not previously grouped under this umbrella including Brian Chikwava Chloe Aridjis and Mohsin Hamid Horton illuminates the way the Gothic has been engaged and reread by contemporary writers to address the cultural anxieties invoked living under neocolonial and neoliberal governance including terrorism migration homelessness racism and climate change Marshalling new modes of diasporic and cross disciplinary critical theory concerned with the violent dimensions of contemporary life this book sets the Gothic aesthetics in such works as White is for Witching Double Vision Never Let Me Go The Wasted Vigil and Ghost Wall against a backdrop of key events in the 21st century Drawing connections between moments of anxiety such as 9 11 the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq ecological disaster the refugee crisis Brexit the pandemic and the Gothic Horton demonstrates how British literature mediates transnational experiences of trauma and horror while also addressing local and national insecurities and preoccupations As a result 21st Century British Gothic can test geographical psychological cultural and aesthetic borders to expose an often spectralised experience of human and planetary vulnerability and speaks back against the brutality of global capitalism

Contemporary, 2004 The Education of Blacks in the South, 1860-1935 James D. Anderson, 2010-01-27 James Anderson critically reinterprets the history of southern black education from Reconstruction to the Great Depression By placing black schooling within a political cultural and economic context he offers fresh insights into black commitment to education the peculiar significance of Tuskegee Institute and the conflicting goals of various philanthropic groups among other matters Initially ex slaves attempted to create an educational system that would support and extend their emancipation but their children were pushed into a system of industrial education that presupposed black political and economic subordination This conception of education and social order supported by northern industrial philanthropists some black educators and most southern school officials conflicted with the aspirations of ex slaves and their descendants resulting at the turn of the century in a bitter national debate over the purposes of black education Because blacks lacked economic and political power white elites were able to control the structure and content of black elementary secondary normal and college education during the first third of the twentieth century Nonetheless blacks persisted in their struggle to develop an educational system in accordance with their own needs and desires The Baptist Magazine ,1849 "The" Illustrated London News ,1853 Sevastopol's Wars Mungo Melvin CB OBE,2017-05-18 Sevastopol s Wars is the first book in any language to cover the full history of Russia s historic Crimean naval citadel from its founding through to the current tensions that threaten the region Founded by Catherine the Great the maritime city of Sevastopol has been fought over for centuries Crucial battles of the Crimean War were fought on the hills surrounding the city and the memory of this stalwart defence inspired those who fruitlessly battled the Germans during World War II Twice the city has faced complete obliteration yet twice it has risen phoenix like from the ashes In this groundbreaking volume award winning author Mungo Melvin explores how Sevastopol became the crucible of conflict over three major engagements the Crimean War the Russian Civil War and World War II witnessing the death and destruction of countless armies yet creating the indomitable spirit of Sevastopol By weaving together first hand interviews detailed operational reports and battle analysis Melvin creates a rich tapestry of history The Sixties Terry H. Anderson,2017-07-28 The Sixties is a stimulating account of a turbulent age in America Terry Anderson examines why the nation experienced a full decade of tumult and change and he explores why most Americans felt social political and cultural changes were not only necessary but mandatory in the 1960s The book examines the dramatic era chronologically and thematically and demonstrates that what made the era so unique were the various social movements that eventually merged with the counterculture to form a sixties culture the legacies of which are still felt today The new edition has added more material on women and the GLBTQ community as well as on Hispanic or Latino a community the fastest growing minority in the United States An Analytical Bibliography of Universal Collected Biography Phyllis M.
