which includes previously unpublished letters from the Hemingway archives Richard Bradford reveals how Hemingway all but erased his own existence through a lifetime of invention and delusion and provides the reader with a completely new understanding of the Hemingway oeuvre A Moment's Notice Carol J. Greenhouse, 2018-07-05 Focusing on the problem of time the paradox of time's apparent universality and cultural relativity Carol J Greenhouse develops an original ethnographic account of our present moment the much heralded postmodern condition which is at the same time a reflexive analysis of ethnography itself She argues that time is about agency and accountability and that representations of time are used by institutions of law politics and scholarship to selectively refashion popular ideas of agency into paradigms of institutional legitimacy A Moment's Notice suggests that the problem of time in theory is the corollary of problems of power in practice Greenhouse develops her theory in examinations of three moments of cultural and political crisis the resistance of the Aztecs against Cortes the consolidation of China's First Empire and the recent partisan political contests over Supreme Court nominees in the United States In each of these cases temporal innovation is integral to political improvisation as traditions of sovereignty confront new cultural challenges These cases return the discussion to current issues of inequality postmodernity cultural pluralism and ethnography
