The Radio Station Michael C. Keith,2007 Publisher description The Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Holocaust Johannes Morsink,2019-02-08 Johannes Morsink argues that the 1948 UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the human rights movement today are direct descendants of revulsion to the Holocaust and the desire to never let it happen again Much recent scholarship about human rights has severed this link between the Holocaust the Universal Declaration and contemporary human rights activism in favor of seeing the 1970s as the era of genesis Morsink forcefully presents his case that the Universal Declaration was indeed a meaningful though underappreciated document for the human rights movement and that the declaration and its significance cannot be divorced from the Holocaust He reexamines this linkage through the working papers of the commission that drafted the declaration as well as other primary sources This work seeks to reset scholarly understandings of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the foundations of the contemporary human rights movement

Media Today Joseph Turow, 2013-10-15 Turow's Media Today Mass Communication in a Converging World now in its fifth edition chooses a cutting edge option This is a student friendly publication offering aids such as definitions of key terms colourful infographics case studies and end of chapter review questions There's a companion website too and a password protected website for instructors Philip Kemp Times Higher Education Media Today uses convergence as a lens that puts students at the center of the profound changes in the 21st century media world Through the convergence lens they learn to think critically about the role of media today and what these changes mean for their lives presently and in the future The book's media systems approach helps students to look carefully at how media is created distributed and exhibited in the new world that the digital revolution has created In this way Media Today goes beyond the traditional mass communication textbook's focus on consuming media to give students an insider's perspective on how media businesses operate How exactly does Google profit from web searches What will a magazine look like five years from now Informative and engaging Media Today Fifth Edition is characterized by its focus on Convergence In addition to separate chapters on the Internet and the Video Games industry coverage of convergence and its impact is incorporated into every chapter Consumer Education Media Literacy questions ask students to consider their roles as a media consumer and potential media creator Comprehensive Media Industry Coverage Historical timelines in the print book and on the companion website track the development of each media industry giving students an overview of a particular industry at a glance Contemporary Student friendly Examples New culture and media boxes help students think about the impact of media industries on their own lives and globally Joseph Turow who has been teaching Intro to Mass Communication for well over a decade demonstrates the many ways that media convergence and the pervasiveness of the Internet have blurred distinctions between and among various media From newspapers to video games or social networking to mobile platforms Media Today prepares students to live in the digital world of media

Media Today, 2008-09-25 Media Today puts students at the center of profound changes in the twenty first century media world from digital convergence to media ownership and gives them the skills to think critically about what these changes mean for the role of media in their lives
