Borderlands Gesellschaft für die Neuen Englischsprachigen Literaturen. Conference, 1999 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies the films of Neil Jordan and Othering in Canadian sports journalism there are treatments of the Nigerian novel South African prison memoirs and African women s writing Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen Bruce Chatwin Mohamed Choukri Nuruddin Farah Jamaica Kincaid Pauline Melville Bharati Mukherjee Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko      The Lamp , 1904      Identity and Image Jutta Vinzent, 2006-06-22 This book explores the image and identity of migr painters sculptors and graphic artists from Nazi Germany in Britain between 1933 and 1945 It focuses on a neglected field of Exile Studies that of exiled artists in Britain Methodologies used in this study have been developed by Exile Studies and History of Art but also by Postcolonialism scholars of which usually apply their ideas to the Afro Asian emigration of the second part of the twentieth century Thus this study represents methodologically a new way of looking at the emigration from Nazi Germany Identity and Image is divided into five chapters After an introductory Chapter One historiography of the topic methodology of the study structure of the book Chapter Two establishes socio political patterns of emigration and provides an historical framework for Chapters Three and Four which concentrate on the image and identity of the refugee artist the former based on written sources and the latter on visual material In detail Chapter Three analyses the British image of the refugee artists and their works on the one hand and the migr s self representations on the other the latter exemplified by refugee organisations the Free German League of Culture Freier Deutscher Kulturbund the Austrian Centre the Anglo Sudeten Club and the Czech Institute and institutions founded by migr artists Jack Bilbo s Modern Art Gallery and Arthur Segal s Painting School Chapter Four examines the works produced in internment and those exhibited and produced for the refugee organisations discussed in Chapter Three Chapter Five discusses the results of this study in the light of three postcolonial concepts diaspora communities the notion of home and the gendered identity of the refugee The appendix lists all painters sculptors and graphic artists from Nazi Germany in Britain with biographical details Apart from visual and written sources discussed for the first time there are two major results of the study First although the artists were united as refugees this unity did not lead to a unity in art refugee art is a construction put forward by the British press and the refugee organisations particularly the Free German League of Culture Second contrary to claims that modern art was international and formed a universal unity that transgressed nationality neither the West Europe nor modernism form unities instead in the 1930s and 1940s cultures in Europe constructed conceptions of other European cultures on the basis of nation state identities

James Joyce and the Exilic Imagination Michael Patrick Gillespie, 2015-05-04 In this book Michael Gillespie provides new readings of James Joyce's main oeuvre through the lens of exile studies and in doing so challenges the tendency in Joyce criticism to give more weight to reading that stress his negative view of Ireland
