Portrait Of Bologna:

Invito a Bologna. Ediz. Inglese Franco Fontana, Athos Vianelli, 1989      The Renaissance Portrait Patricia Lee Rubin, 2011 Published in conjunction with an exhibition held at the Bode Museum Berlin Aug 25 Nov 20 2011 and at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York Dec 21 2011 Mar 18 2012      Captured Emotions Charles Dempsey, J. Paul Getty Museum, 2008 Presents an overview of the history of Bolognese painting This book looks at specific topics such as portraiture cabinet pictures naturalism and classicism It also examines the developments made in the eighteenth century under Giuseppe Maria Crespi      The Epochs of Painting Ralph Nicholson Wornum, 1864      The Portrait Gallery of Distinguished Poets, Philosophers, Statesmen, Divines, Painters, Architects, Physicians, and Lawyers, Since the Revival of Art Arthur Thomas Malkin, 1853      Catalogue on the Very Extensive and Valuable Library of the Late Reverend Dr. Wellesley Henry Wellesley, 1866      Catalogue of the Fejérváry Ivories Francis Pulszky, 2025-08-22 Reprint of the original first published in 1856 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage      Catalogue of the Fejérváry Ivories Joseph Mayer, 1856      ,      Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior Erin J. Campbell, 2016-03-09 Though portraits of old women mediate cultural preoccupations just as effectively as those of younger women the scant published research on images of older women belies their significance within early modern Italy This study examines the remarkable flowering largely overlooked in portraiture scholarship to date of portraits of old women in Northern Italy and especially Bologna during the second half of the sixteenth century when as a result of religious reform the lives of women and the family came under increasing scrutiny Old Women and Art in the Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior draws on a wide range of primary visual sources including portraits religious images architectural views prints and drawings as well as extant palazzi and case furnishings and domestic objects created by the leading artists in Bologna including Lavinia Fontana Bartolomeo Passerotti Denys Calvaert and the Carracci The study also draws on an array of historical sources including sixteenth century theories of portraiture prescriptive writings on women and the family philosophical and practical treatises on the home economy sumptuary legislation books of secrets prescriptive writings on old age and household inventories to provide new historical perspectives on the domestic life of the propertied classes in Bologna during the period Author Erin Campbell contends that these images of unidentified women are not only crucial to our understanding of the cultural operations of art within the early modern world but also by working from the margins to revise the center provide an opportunity to present new conceptual frameworks and question our assumptions about old age portraiture and the domestic interior      The Gallery of Portraits (Vol. 1-7) Arthur Thomas Malkin, 2023-12-18 Arthur Thomas Malkin's The Gallery of Portraits spans seven volumes presenting a rich tapestry of biographical sketches that celebrate notable figures from history art and literature The work is characterized by its elegant prose and meticulous detail skillfully blending anecdotal narrative with biographical precision Malkin's literary style reflects the Victorian era's penchant for thoroughness and moral reflection engaging readers not only through the vivid portrayals of the subjects but also by evoking the cultural and philosophical currents of the time making it an essential compendium for anyone interested in the interplay of celebrity and character in the 19th century Malkin influenced by his own background as a historian and scholar crafted this magnum opus to provide insight into the lives and legacies of these pivotal figures His academic pursuits and keen interest in literary and artistic movements of his time enriched his approach to biographical writing allowing him to balance fact with narrative flair thus making the past resonate with contemporary relevance Malkin's fascination with the human condition and the intricacies of personal achievements provides a foundational lens through which he examines each portrait With its blend of scholarly rigor and captivating storytelling The Gallery of Portraits is a must read for enthusiasts of biography history and the arts It invites readers to reflect on the complexities of human achievement and individual narratives against the backdrop of societal progress Malkin's work not only informs but also inspires making it a valuable addition to any literary collection

Papi in Posa Aa.Vv.,2013-09-21T00:00:00+02:00 The exhibition entitled Papi in Posa i e Papal Portraiture with the highly refined and historically significant Braschi Palace home of the Museum of Rome in 2004 and now in Washington The John Paul II Center is not offered only as an excellent exposition of masterpieces from major international museums such as the Vatican Museums and prestigious private collections but stands out in particular because it is one of the most important expositions of portrait painting ever because of both the outstanding quality and the considerable number of paintings and sculptures offered executed by Europe s leading artists from the last five centuries and the great spiritual and social significance of the personages portrayed the greatest Pontiffs who from the 16th century to the present have sat in the Chair of Saint Peter It is suggestive to observe as we scan the unique artistic itinerary offered by the curators of the exhibition how through the succession of historical periods and particularly by virtue of the esthetic verve and inner sensitivity of the artists the description of the human person was oriented with extreme plastic ductility and acuity in their perception of their subjects physiognomy to represent not only the body lines of the subject being depicted but in particular the most intimate traits of the heart the lively mobility of their thought the innermost lines of the subject s character in an intense dialogue of chiaroscuro observations from which the characterizing notes of complex personages are evinced persons who appear completely clear and evident only to those who are capable of sublimating their outward appearance into an acute observation From this prestigious gallery of portraits it emerges unmistakably how the anthropocentric path of human thought has manifestly reverberated within the bounds of the figurative arts through a progressive contextualization which sees the subject represented unbound through a metatemporal aura of rarefied abstraction and placed naturalistically in a precise and well defined spatiotemporal sphere At the same time we witness a gradual definition of the personage portrayed as the bearer of a clear personal connotation the self and the identity which seem to be invisible and thus impossible to represent no longer hortatively as an idealized and metaphoric emblem of absolute values in deference to a markedly ethical and pedagogical conception The exhibited works which rightfully range themselves among the most outstanding expressions of portraiture reveal a deep spiritual harmony evocative of beauty and unleash a lively dialogue with the onlooker based on a real and inherent economy of the act of viewing albeit freed from the exercise of a psychologism oriented toward uncontrollable wanderings The reception of the meaning of the formal systems thoughtful poses and attitudes involves to be sure the active presence of the spectator in a sort of visual dialogue with the portrait that is not considered exclusively as a fixed commemorative system but rather as an interactive structure In the perspective of the reception the observer becomes a fundamental element for the construction of the meaning of the image that from this very private perspective undergoes obvious momentous transformations Observer and image thus become integral parts of a fascinating system of visual exchange not unlike the mechanisms of verbal dialogue both members of the pair take on contemporaneously the dual role of subject object restructuring the complex relational web established in a rapport between an I and a you Beyond the temporal contingencies each portrait is recounted and seduces us through the universal language of fame this incarnates deeply the artist s attempt to describe the personality of the subjects portrayed consigning the multiform essence of their nature to one attitude or to a single expression by resorting to a refined psychological introspection in an attempt to render visually the subject s inner world It is owing to the above considerations that while I applaud the felicitous initiative of giving life to such a culturally transcendent exhibition I would wish that all those who will have the pleasure of visiting it or at least of perusing the pages of this catalogue will be able to perceive the portraits of the individual popes not as so many freestanding elements but rather as integrated parts of a related set of men who albeit struggling with the many and varied anxieties of everyday life endeavored to serve Christ among their brothers each one with a clear perception of himself as servo servorum Dei the servant of God s servants Through looks attitudes and symbols committed by the artist in a well constructed iconographic code to the pictorial or sculptural page the discerning observer cannot help but grasp a veiled spiritual harmony that reflects the profound mystery of faith and propagates an echo of the ineffable beauty of God revealing how through art man pulled between the eternal and the transient strives to draw close to his Creator Francesco Cardinal Marchisano Vicar General of the Pope for the State of Vatican City      Portraits and Poses Beatrijs Vanacker, Lieke van Deinsen, 2022-04-28

Interdisciplinary and cross cultural view on authority construction among early modern female intellectuals The complex relation between gender and the representation of intellectual authority has deep roots in European history Portraits and Poses adopts a historical approach to shed new light on this topical subject It addresses various modes and strategies by which learned women authors scientists jurists midwives painters and others sought to negotiate and legitimise their authority at the dawn of modern science in Early Modern and Enlightenment Europe 1600 1800 This volume explores the transnational dimensions of intellectual networks in France Italy Britain the German states and the Low Countries among others Drawing on a wide range of case studies from different spheres of professionalisation it examines both individual and collective constructions of female intellectual authority through word and image In its innovative combination of an interdisciplinary and transnational approach this volume contributes to the growing literature on women and intellectual authority in the Early Modern Era and outlines contours for future research
