Portrait Of Max:

PORTRAIT OF MAX S N BEHRMAN,1960      Portrait of Max Marianne E. Strehler,1991      The Portrait of Doreene Gray Esri Allbritten,2012-07-03 A little bit X Files a little bit Agatha Christie and a whole lotta charming If you like your mysteries baffling bizarre and above all fun you re going to love it Steve Hockensmith author of Holmes on the Range In this laugh out loud funny mystery Angus MacGregor and the zany staff of Tripping Magazine a travel magazine that covers paranormal destinations investigate a bizarre story in a town brimming with secrets Forty years ago Maureene Pinter painted a portrait of her twin sister Doreene In an eerie turn of events Doreene hasn t aged although her portrait has When Doreene decides to sell the portrait the Tripping team travel to Doreene s mansion in Port Townsend Washington a Victorian town wreathed in mists and mysteries to get the scoop on this intriguing story When strange strips of paper appear in her soup Doreene invites Tripping to stay and solve the town s many puzzles Why does a man named Enrico Russo sit in a white Impala outside the mansion And what does Lupita the housekeeper fear Soon it becomes clear that while Doreene has kept her youthful looks the past is catching up with her Packed with laughs and featuring a mystery with a delightful literary twist Esri Allbritten s The Portrait of Doreene Gray is a fabulously entertaining tale      Max Beckmann Peter Selz,Max Beckmann,1992      German Expressionist Painting ,1957      German Expressionist Painting Peter Selz,2023-04-28 Published in 1957 German Expressionist Painting was the first comprehensive study of one of the most pivotal movements in the art of this century When it was written however German Expressionism seemed like an eccentric manifestation far removed from what was then considered the mainstream of modern art But as historians well know each generation alters the concept of mainstream to encompass those aspects of the past which seem most relevant to the present The impact of German Expressionism on the art and thought of later generations could never have been anticipated at the time of the original writing of this book During the subsequent years an enormous body of scholarly research and an even larger number of popular books on German expressionist art has been printed Numerous monographs and detailed studies on most of the artists exist now and countless exhibitions with accompanying catalogues have taken place Much of this new research could have been incorporated in a revised edition and the bibliography certainly could have been greatly expanded to include the important writings which have been published in Germany the United States and elsewhere since this book was originally issued The author however was faced with the choice of reprinting the original text with only the most necessary alterations such as updating the captions to indicate present locations of the paintings or the preparation of a revised text and bibliography Desirable as a revision appeared present printing costs would have priced the paperback out of reach for students It is for this reason that I decided to reissue the original text which stands on its own as a primary investigation of German Expressionist Painting      Glitter and Doom Sabine Rewald,Ian Buruma,Matthias Eberle,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2006 In the 1920s Germany was in the grip of social and political turmoil its citizens were disillusioned

by defeat in World War I the failure of revolution the disintegration of their social system and inflation of rampant proportions Curiously as this important book shows these years of upheaval were also a time of creative ferment and innovative accomplishment in literature theater film and art Glitter and Doom is the first publication to focus exclusively on portraits dating from the short lived Weimar Republic It features forty paintings and sixty drawings by key artists including Otto Dix Max Beckmann and George Grosz Their works epitomize Neue Sachlichkeit New Objectivity in particular the branch of that new form of realism called Verism which took as its subject contemporary phenomena such as war social problems and moral decay Subjects of their incisive portraits are the artists own contemporaries actors poets prostitutes and profiteers as well as doctors lawyers businessmen and other respectable citizens The accompanying texts reveal how these portraits hold up a mirror to the glittering vital doomed society that was obliterated when Hitler came to power The International Studio Charles Holme, Guy Eglington, Peyton Boswell, William Bernard McCormick, Henry James Whigham, 1919 Max Beckmann Jill Lloyd, 2008 Text by Jill Lloyd The Complete Butcher's Tales Rikki Ducornet, 1999 In the fantastic tradition of Borges Bruno Schulz Angela Carter and H P Lovecraft here are nearly sixty unforgettable stories that ignore the confines of space and time to offer among other times and places a cabinet of curiosities in contemporary Cairo an alchemical ceiling in 18th century Naples the hallucinatory inner worlds of psychotics anthropomorphic planets and an Old West ruled by necromancy This expanded revised edition collects the complete short stories of one of the most imaginative writers of our time The Harvest of a Century Siegmund Brandt, 2009 Physics was the leading science of the twentieth century and the book retraces important discoveries made between 1895 and 2001 in 100 self contained Episodes Each is a short story of the scientists involved their time and their work The book is richly illustrated by about 600 portraits photographs and figures Catalogue of Autographs and Portraits of Members of the Continental Congress Including Signers of the Declaration of Independence Adrian Hoffman Joline, 1897 International Studio , 1919 Prayers and Portraits , 2006-01-01 The diptych format comprising two panels hinged together so that they can be opened and closed like a book was prevalent in Netherlandish art and depicted subjects ranging from secular portraiture to religious personages and stories This illustrated book the first ever devoted to the topic examines approximately forty pairs of Netherlandish paintings from the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Featuring magnificent works by Jan van Eyck Hugo van der Goes Hans Memling and Rogier van der Weyden among others the book also covers a wide range of themes including painting techniques workshop practice and the art market in the Netherlands of the time With discussions on each painting Prayers and Portraits reunites a number of diptychs that have long been separated Texts consider the works in relation to contemporary writings and religious practices in northern Europe as well as developments in art and history They offer invaluable insights into the social status and aspirations of the sitters They also incorporate new information based on extensive examinations primary research and a vast archive of original technical images Many of these supporting images are reproduced here including x radiographs infrared reflectogram assemblies digital photographs and cross sections of paint layers A detailed appendix at the back of the book provides a complete record of the documentation and analysis of the paintings examined for this project This publication gives readers an opportunity to study these beautiful and intriguing works of art and enhances understanding and appreciation for the diptych format in the context of fifteenth and sixteenth century Netherlandish culture

FACES: Photography and the Art of Portraiture Paul Fuqua, Steven Biver, 2013-05-02 There is so much detail to be captured in a face Cicero 106 43 BC said The face is a picture of the mind as the eyes are its interpreter To capture a person's personality there are many things to keep in mind and the authors of FACES show us how to match up a personality with lighting posing and composition Portraiture is truly an art and this book dives deep into the details so that you end up with a gorgeous portrait that both you and your subject love Not only is this book the most comprehensive title available on portraiture but it contains stunning images Each image is paired with a lighting diagram a description of why the type of image was chosen and then takes you through postproduction to put the finishing touches on The authors also showcase a gallery of portraits by renowned photographers

Face and Mask Hans Belting, 2022-06-14 A cultural history of the face in Western art ranging from portraiture in painting and photography to film theater and mass media This fascinating book presents the first cultural history and anthropology of the face across centuries continents and media Ranging from funerary masks and masks in drama to the figural work of contemporary artists including Cindy Sherman and Nam June Paik renowned art historian Hans Belting emphasizes that while the face plays a critical role in human communication it defies attempts at visual representation Belting divides his book into three parts faces as masks of the self portraiture as a constantly evolving mask in Western culture and the fate of the face in the age of mass media Referencing a vast array of sources Belting's insights draw on art history philosophy theories of visual culture and cognitive science He demonstrates that Western efforts to portray the face have repeatedly failed even with the developments of new media such as photography and film which promise ever greater degrees of verisimilitude In spite of sitting at the heart of human expression the face resists possession and creative endeavors to capture it inevitably result in masks hollow signifiers of the humanity they're meant to embody From creations by Van Eyck and August Sander to works by Francis Bacon Ingmar Bergman and Chuck Close Face and Mask takes a remarkable look at how through the centuries the physical visage has inspired and evaded artistic interpretation
