Michael Jackson,2018-04-14 An integral part of Canada s political culture constitutional monarchy has evolved since Confederation to become a uniquely Canadian institution How has it shaped twenty first century Canada How have views on the monarchy changed Eleven experts on the history of Canada s Crown take up these questions from diverse perspectives Portraits of Remembrance Margaret Hutchison,Steven Trout,2020-04-28 Interdisciplinary collection of essays on fine art painting as it relates to the First World War and commemoration of the conflict Although photography and moving pictures achieved ubiquity during the First World War as technological means of recording history the far more traditional medium of painting played a vital role in the visual culture of combatant nations The public's appetite for the kind of up close frontline action that snapshots and film footage could not yet provide resulted in a robust market for drawn or painted battle scenes Painting also figured significantly in the formation of collective war memory after the armistice Paintings became sites of memory in two ways first many governments and communities invested in freestanding panoramas or cycloramas that depicted the war or featured murals as components of even larger commemorative projects and second certain paintings whether created by official artists or simply by those moved to do so emerged over time as visual touchstones in the public's understanding of the war Portraits of Remembrance Painting Memory and the First World War examines the relationship between war painting and collective memory in Australia Austria Belgium Canada Croatia France Germany Great Britain New Zealand Russia Serbia Turkey and the United States The paintings discussed vary tremendously ranging from public murals and panoramas to works on a far more intimate scale including modernist masterpieces and crowd pleasing expressions of sentimentality or spiritualism Contributors raise a host of topics in connection with the volume's overarching focus on memory including national identity constructions of gender historical accuracy issues of aesthetic taste and connections between painting and literature as well as other cultural forms Katherine Mansfield and Continental Europe Delia da Sousa Correa, 2019-06-01

The inaugural volume of Katherine Mansfield Studies illuminates Mansfield's literary and personal relationships with Continental Europe The essays explore Mansfield's absorption of French literature and thought highlighting affinities with Henri Bergson's interpretations of consciousness and with the writings of Marcel Proust Bankers Magazine, 1928

New Zealand Journal of Geology and Geophysics, 1966 Official Record, 1882 Self-Portrait Marti Friedlander, 2014-01-01 From a childhood spent in London's rough East End to a half century in New Zealand photographing winemakers and artists children and kuia Marti Friedlander has lived a life marked by adventure travel and its fair share of challenges It is also a life that has been defined by the art of observation and capturing on film In Self Portrait the renowned photographer tells her story for the first time As clear and unflinching in her prose as she is in her photography Friedlander describes growing up in a London orphanage being Jewish working in a Kensington photography studio marrying a New Zealander the challenges of moving to a new country and a life spent photographing the ordinary and the extraordinary from balloons and beaches to politicians and protests She also explains how with a stranger's eye she captured the transformation of New Zealand life over the last half century This is a rich meditation on one woman's photographic journey through the 20th century New Zealand Painting, 1900-1920 Gordon H.
