Through the Eye of Time Stuart Blackburn, Michael Tarr, 2008-04-30 This is the first visual history of Arunachal Pradesh a state in northeast India bordering on Tibet China Burma and Bhutan Based on archival and field research it illustrates a century and a half of cultural change in this culturally diverse and little known region of the Himalayas More than 200 photographs half archival and half contemporary reveal that tribal cultures in this remote mountainous region have been continually reacting to external forces and initiating internal innovations The Introduction places the archival photographs in their wider context emphasising the complexity of the colonial encounter and uncovering personal stories behind many of the images The sequence of photographs juxtaposing the historical and the contemporary shows us the uneven and sometimes confusing mixture of past and present that is emerging in Arunachal Pradesh

War Paintings of the Tsuu T'ina Nation Arni Brownstone, 2015-06-01 During much of the nineteenth century paintings functioned as the Plains Indians equivalent to written records The majority of their paintings documented warfare focusing on specific war deeds These pictorial narratives appearing on hide robes war shirts tipi liners and tipi covers were maintained by the several dozen Plains Indians tribes and they continue to expand historical knowledge of a people and place in transition War Paintings of the Tsuu T'ina Nation is a study of several important war paintings and artifact collections of the Tsuu T'ina Sarcee that provides insight into the changing relations between the Tsuu T'ina other plains tribes and non Native communities during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Arni Brownstone has meticulously created renderings of the paintings that invite readers to explore them more fully All known Tsuu T'ina paintings are considered in the study as are several important collections of Tsuu T'ina artifacts with particular emphasis on five key works Brownstone's analysis furthers our understanding of Tsuu T'ina pictographic war paintings in relation to the social historical and artistic forces that influenced them and provides a broader understanding of pictographic painting one of the richest and most important Native American artistic and literary genres

Art, Observation, and an Anthropology of Illustration Max Carocci, Stephanie Pratt, 2022-06-02 Art Observation and an Anthropology of Illustration examines the role of sketches drawings and other artworks in our understanding of human cultures of the past Bringing together art historians and anthropologists it presents a selection of detailed case studies of various bodies of work produced by non Western and Western artists from different world regions and from different time periods from Native North America Cameroon and Nepal to Italy Solomon Islands and Mexico to explore the contemporary relevance and challenges implicit in artistic renditions of past peoples and places In an age when identities are partially constructed on the basis of existing visual records the book asks important questions about the nature of observation and the inclusion of culturally relevant information in artistic representations How reliable are watercolours paintings or sketches for the understanding of past ways of life How do old images of bygone peoples relate to art historical and anthropological canons How have these images and technologies of representation been used to describe illustrate or explain unknown realities The book is an essential tool for art historians anthropologists and anyone who wants to understand how the observation of different realities has impacted upon the production of art and visual cultures

Incorporating current methodological and theoretical tools the 10 chapters collected here expand the area of connection between the disciplines of art history and anthropology bringing into sharp focus the multiple intersections of objectivity evidence and artistic licence

The McKenney-Hall Portrait Gallery of American Indians James David Horan,1972 Art from Fort Marion Joyce M. Szabo,2007 During the 1870s Cheyenne and Kiowa prisoners of war at Fort Marion Florida graphically recorded their responses to incarceration in drawings that conveyed both the present reality of imprisonment and nostalgic memories of home The Silberman Collection is an unusually complete group of images that illustrate the artists fascination with the world outside the southern plains their living conditions and survival strategies as prisoners and their reminiscences of pre reservation life

American Indian Stereotypes in the World of Children Arlene B. Hirschfelder,Paulette Fairbanks Molin,Yvonne Wakim,1999 Presents a collection of challenging articles detailing uses and abuses of Native American symbols images ideas and stories that are directed at youth in the mass media Toys cartoons textbooks general reading media portrayals sports logos nicknames and more are discussed in standalone articles

Painting Texas History to 1900 Sam DeShong Ratcliffe,2014-11-06 Certificate of Commendation American Association for State and Local History 1994 T R Fehrenbach Book Award Texas Historical Commission 1992 San Antonio Conservation Society Citation 1993 Dramatic historical events have frequently provided subject matter for artists particularly in pre twentieth century Texas where works portraying historical often legendary events and individuals predominated Until now however these paintings of Texas history have never received the kind of study given to historical fictional and film versions of the same events Painting Texas History to 1900 fills this gap with an interdisciplinary approach that explores these paintings both as works of art and as historical documents The author examines the works of more than forty artists including Henry McArdle Theodore Gentilz Robert Onderdonk William Huddle Frederic Remington Friedrich Richard Petri Arthur T Lee Seth Eastman Sarah Hardinge Frank Reaugh W G M Samuel Carl G von Iwonski and Julius Stockfleth He places

each work within its historical and cultural context to show why such subject matter was chosen why it was depicted in a particular way and why such a depiction gained popular acceptance For example paintings of heroic events of the Texas Revolution were especially popular in the years following the Civil War when in Ratcliffe s view Texans needed such images to assuage the loss of the war and the humiliation of Reconstruction Though the paintings cut across traditional art history categories from the pictographs of early historic Indians to European inspired oil paintings they are bound together by their artists intent for them to function as historically evocative documents With their visual narratives of events that characterized all of America s westward expansion Indian encounters military battles farming ranching surveying and the closing of the frontier these works add an important chapter to the story of the American West
