Barker-Benfield, 1991 Portraits of American Women Gamaliel Bradford, 1917 Portraits of Women in the American West Dee Garceau-Hagen, 2013-04-15 Men are usually the heroes of Western stories but women also played a crucial role in developing the American frontier and their stories have rarely been told This anthology of biographical essays on women promises new insight into gender in the 19C American West The women featured include Asian Americans African Americans and Native American women as well as their white counterparts The original essays offer observations about gender and sexual violence the subordinate status of women of color their perseverance and influence in changing that status a look at the gendered religious legacy that shaped Western Catholicism and women in the urban and rural industrial and agricultural West Portraits of American Women Gamaliel Bradford, 1919 Portraits of American Women G. J. Barker-Benfield, Catherine Clinton, 1998 Portraits of American Women G. J. Barker-Benfield, Catherine Clinton, 1998 Until recently a womanless American history was the norm But without a history of women we neglect gender dynamics sex roles and family relations the very fundamentals of human interaction Here 24 short essays locate the histories of women from Pocahontas to Betty Friedan and men together by period and provide a sense of their continuities through the whole gallery of the American past 26 photos Portraits of American Women: From the Civil War to the present G. New England women was most readily accessible to me At the same time of the seven New England characters here portrayed at least three Harriet Beecher Stowe Margaret Fuller Ossoli and Louisa May Alcott are so thoroughly identified with the country at large that one hardly thinks of their birthplace Abigail Adams Mary Lyon and Emily Dickinson are known to a great number of their countrywomen and Sarah Alden Ripley ought to be so I hope moreover to follow this series with another embracing prominent women of other sections I am under deep obligation to various persons for assistance in my work Mrs Ripley s grandchildren have kindly supplied me with numerous letters without which it would have been impossible to make an adequate study of her Miss Charlotte A Hedge has lent me letters of Margaret Fuller to Dr F H Hedge and the Boston Public Library has placed its valuable Ossoli manuscripts at my disposal Mount Holyoke College has enabled me to make use of a most interesting collection of reminiscences of Mary Lyon Mr About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

A Woman of the Century Frances Elizabeth Willard, Mary Ashton Livermore, 1893 Portraits of Famous American Women

Robert Henkes, 1997-01-01 The portrait is one of the most pure collaborative efforts in the art world The artist is the creator but she or he is wholly dependent on the sitter for inspiration and stimulus When the subject is famous the artist must often compromise true expression for the vanity of the person being painted Though that would seemingly make the portrait less appealing artistically in truth the collaborative nature of the portrait often makes it artistically unique a blending of the artist s style with the desires of the sitter This work takes a fresh look at the portraits of 13 American women Marian Anderson Clara Barton Mary McLeod Bethune Pearl Buck Mary Cassatt Isadora Duncan Marianne Moore Georgia O Keeffe Eleanor Roosevelt Gertrude Stein Harriet Beecher Stowe Harriet Tubman and Martha Washington and the artists who created them In examining the work of such artists as Abraham Walkowitz John Graham Betsy Graves Reyneau Michael Alexander Werboff and Brenda Putnam one comes to see the unique combination of the personality of the sitter and the style of the artist
