Portraits Of Cities:

Portraits of Cities Dong Kingman,1997 Portraits of Cities Kilhae Lee Koo,1977 Participate! ,2021-10-12

Participate Portraits of Cities and Citizens in Action offers an introduction to the complex world of urban development identity and participation It explains how the self understanding of cities is mirrored in their approach to urban development The basis of the book is formed by portraits of six European cities Berlin Hamburg Paris Lyon Amsterdam and Groningen 00The book fills a gap as it provides general introductions to cities a brief outline of the city s planning system a short historic introduction to the city s planning culture With telling and outstanding examples of citizen participation this book offers important insights in both the intrinsic logic of the cities and the mechanisms sometimes more inclusive sometimes more exclusive of participation 00 Participate Is one of the results of the R link project a unique cooperation of Dutch policy makers and scholars on participation and urban development Of interest for urban planners architects city journalists and students and academics in the field of urban planning Paper Cities Susana S. Martins,Anne Reverseau,2016-04-21 Thought provoking case studies on cities photographs and booksPhotographic books are almost as old as photography itself and the city is one of their first and more recurring themes Cities have been and they continue to be intensely photographed under a wide variety of forms materialities intentions and genres This volume examines how a city can be moulded through the particularities of a photographic book suggesting how urban portraits configure an overlooked yet quite specific photo textual practice Ranging from early photography to contemporary works Paper Cities gathers thought provoking case studies from several international contexts providing new insights into art material culture history heritage and memory while simultaneously illuminating the debate on cities photographs and books Contributors Steven Jacobs Ghent University Simon Dell University of East Anglia Hugh Campbell University College Dublin Steven Humblett LUCA School of Arts Chris Balaschak Flagler College Annarita Teodosio University of Salerno Cecile Laly Universit Paris I M nica Pacheco University College London Douglas Klahr University of Texas Johanna M Blokker Bamberg University Philip Goldswain University of Western Australia Cities and Photography Jane Tormey,2013-01-17 Photographs display attitudes agency and vision in the way cities are documented and imagined Cities and Photography explores the relationship between people and the city visualized in photographs It provides a visually focused examination of the city and urbanism for a range of different disciplines across the social sciences and humanities photography and fine art This text offers different perspectives from which to view social political and cultural ideas about the city and urbanism through both verbal discussion and photographic representation It provides introductions to theoretical conceptions of the city that are useful to photographers addressing urban issues as well as discussing themes that have preoccupied photographers and informed cultural issues central to a discussion of city This text interprets the city as a spatial network that we inhabit on different conceptual psychological and physical levels and gives emphasis to how people operate within relate to and activate the city via construction habitation and disruption Cities and Photography aims to demonstrate the potential of photography as a contributor to commentary and analytical frameworks what does photography as a medium provide for a vision of city and what can photographs tell us about cities histories attitudes and ideas This introductory text is richly illustrated with case studies and over 50 photographs summarizing complex theory and analysis with application to specific examples Emphasis is given to international contemporary photographic projects to provide focus for the discussion of theoretical conceptions of the city through the analysis of photographic interpretation and commentary This text will be of great appeal to those interested in Photography Urban Studies and Human Geography
