Proverbial Philosophy ... Fifteenth edition. [With a portrait.] Martin Farquhar Tupper, 1853     Proverbial Philosophy ... Thirty-ninth edition. With a portrait Martin Farquhar Tupper, 1866     Portraits of Courage, Voices of Hope, II Jerry Robinov, 2004     Hope Deferred Peter Orner, Annie Holmes, 2015-10-01 The situation in Zimbabwe represents one of the worst humanitarian emergencies today This book asks the question How did a country with so much promise a stellar education system a growing middle class a sophisticated economic infrastructure a liberal constitution an independent judiciary and many of the trappings of Western democracy go so wrong In their own words Zimbabweans recount their experiences of losing their homes land livelihoods and families as a direct result of political violence They describe being tortured in detention firebombed at work or beaten up or raped to punish votes for the opposition Those forced to flee to neighboring countries recount their escapes cutting through fences swimming across crocodile infested rivers and entrusting themselves to human smugglers This book includes Zimbabweans of every age class and political conviction from farm laborers to academics doctors to artists opposition leaders to ordinary Zimbabweans men and women simply trying to survive as a once thriving nation heads for collapse     Nowhere to Be Home Maggie Lemere, Zoe West, 2015-10-01 Decades of military oppression in Burma have led to the systematic destruction of thousands of ethnic minority villages a standing army with one of the world's highest number of child soldiers and the displacement of millions of people Nowhere to Be Home is an eye opening collection of oral histories exposing the realities of life under military rule In their own words men and women from Burma describe their lives in the country that Human Rights Watch has called the textbook example of a police state     We Are Afghan Women Laura Bush, 2017-03-07 We Are Afghan Women chronicles the lives of young and old daughters and mothers educated and those who are still learning Their stories are a stark reminder that women's progress in society business and politics cannot be taken for granted Many of these women face serious risks for speaking so openly but they want the world to listen Their words will change not only how we as Americans see Afghanistan but also how we understand the complex challenges still facing women and girls around the globe     The Poetical Works of Thomas Moore, Etc. [With a Portrait.] Thomas Moore, 1853     The Portrait in Fiction of the Romantic Period Joe Bray, 2016-05-26 Beginning with the premise that the portrait was undergoing a shift in both form and function during the Romantic age Joe Bray examines how these changes are reflected in the fiction of writers such as Maria Edgeworth Jane Austen Sir Walter Scott Elizabeth Hamilton and Amelia Opie Bray considers portraiture in a broad sense as encompassing caricature and the miniature as well as the classic portraits of Sir Joshua Reynolds and others He argues that the portrait in fiction often functions not as a transparent index to character or as a means of producing a straightforward likeness but rather as a cue for misreading and a sign of the slipperiness and subjectivity of interpretation The book is concerned with more than simply the appearance of portraits in Romantic fiction however More broadly The Portrait in Fiction of the Romantic Period

investigates how the language of portraiture pervades the novel in this period and how the two art forms exert mutual stylistic influence on each other

Living Into Hope Rev. Joan Brown Campbell, 2010 Inspires and challenges us to live life fully not carefully or cautiously but wholly engaged with the world and with the messiness of humanity and dares us to claim our freedom to care to risk and to step out into the unknown and live as people of hope

A Dangerous Dozen Canon C. K. Robertson, 2011 Sometimes What We Need Most Is What We Fear Most Times change and situations seem to change but there is still a great need for prophets for God's ambassadors to stand up and be counted Who will dare to be Paul the Apostle today or Dorothy Day or Francis of Assisi or Dietrich Bonhoeffer Who will dare when God calls to say Here I am Lord Send me from the Foreword by Archbishop Desmond Tutu Meet twelve fascinating at times intimidating Christian change agents who were unafraid to ask what God would have them do in the face of life's realities and unafraid to go ahead and do it Their words and actions challenged the status quo and in so doing they showed the face of Jesus to the Church and to the world Whether calling us to live simply in the name of Jesus showing the way to genuine peacemaking or exemplifying the true meaning of courage the legacies of these blessed troublemakers continue to inspire us today if we let them Paul of Tarsus Mary Magdalene Origen of Alexandria Francis of Assisi Hildegard of Bingen Thomas Cranmer Sojourner Truth Dorothy Day Dietrich Bonhoeffer Janani Luwum Oscar Romero K H Ting

Masking and Unmasking Ourselves Norman J. Cohen, 2012 Whatever the context in which it is worn our clothing is often our most powerful form of communication As in any great literature the language of putting on and taking off clothing in the Bible especially the narratives that turn on the symbolic use of clothes can provide us with a sense of the overarching worldview of the biblical writers Yet by immersing ourselves in the symbolic language and stories of the Bible we can also gain insight into ourselves and our own lives In this engaging look at interpretations of clothing in the Bible renowned Torah scholar and midrashist Norman Cohen presents ten paradigmatic Bible stories that involve clothing in an essential way as a means of learning about the text its characters and their interactions But he also shows us how these stories help us confront our own life dramas our own stories In doing so he presents Torah as a mirror reflecting back to us our own personalities ambivalences struggles and potential for growth

Poetic Voices of the Eighteenth Century, 1866

The Waves Will Chant About Us. Life is a Story - story.one Skylar C. R. Wolf, 2023-11-16 I want to know what brought you to the museum that day I want to know you Meeting a stranger in the museum wasn't something Dallas would've expected on his first day off after a long while All he has left now are a letter and memories However there is more to the stranger to the hot kisses and a lot more to the story of this heartbroken soul Strangely there seems to be a connection to the person he is about to meet in his art class and the soul he met in the museum

Like a Child Rev. Timothy J. Mooney, 2014-05-30 By breaking free from our misperceptions about what it means to be an adult we can reshape our world and become harbingers of grace In our desire to grow up mature become adults we become enamored with who we are supposed to be When we have finally grown up we realize much of who we really are has been left behind or buried under various masks and roles we play But the knowledge of who we truly are never leaves us To reclaim our selfhood we must grow up again and consciously embrace all that it means to be childlike from Chapter 12 It Takes a Long Time to Become Young By restoring the childlike ways of humility trust awe wonder playfulness and more we can recover a fuller picture of what it means to be human This unique spiritual resource explores what Jesus may have meant when he said Unless you change and become like children you will never enter the kingdom of heaven It addresses our modern misperceptions regarding the nature of maturity and the common coping mechanisms distrust guardedness insecurity judgmental thinking we acquire and feel we require in adulthood Along with the wisdom of ancient and modern spiritual luminaries this book provides over twenty five spiritual practices to help us cultivate the childlike ways of attention self awareness joy and resilience in our inner lives as well as in our relationships with others The Musical World ,1840

Portrait Therapy Susan Carr,2017-09-21 This book explains the theory and practice of portrait therapy an original art therapy intervention It reveals how the intervention can be used to address a disrupted self identity which is common in people with life threatening or chronic illness and is characterised by statements like I m not the person I used to be The Heartbeat of God Katharine Jefferts Schori,2010-10 Insights from a pioneering leader in world religion on the intersections of the sacred the secular As Christians indeed as people of faith of any tradition we are called to tend to the needs of the least among us Our response to them must be the response of faith God gives us a new heart to do this work and every time we gather to do it God offers a pacemaker jolt to tweak our heart s rhythm The challenge is this will our hearts respond with a strengthened beat in tune with God s own heartbeat sending more life out into the world from the Introduction Explore our connections as human beings with each other as one nation with all other nations as the human species with the whole of our environment through the lens of faith Katharine Jefferts Schori presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church examines these connections as she looks at the intersections of faith with the major issues of our day How does faith speak to poverty climate change the economy health care and what is the faith response How can believers from many faith traditions find common ground while honoring the Divine serving one another and creating deeper community How do we best use the resources of faith to connect us to the hearts of our neighbors and to the heart of God Narrating Justice and Hope Lois
