Portraits Of Darkness:

Things of Darkness Kim F. Hall, 2018-09-05 The Ethiopie the tawny Tartar the woman blackamoore and knotty Africanisms allusions to blackness abound in Renaissance texts Kim F Hall's eagerly awaited book is the first to view these evocations of blackness in the contexts of sexual politics imperialism and slavery in early modern England Her work reveals the vital link between England's expansion into realms of difference and otherness through exploration and colonialism and the highly charged ideas of race and gender which emerged How Hall asks did new connections between race and gender figure in Renaissance ideas about the proper roles of men and women What effect did real racial and cultural difference have on the literary portrayal of blackness And how did the interrelationship of tropes of race and gender contribute to a modern conception of individual identity Hall mines a wealth of sources for answers to these questions travel literature from Sir John Mandeville's Travels to Leo Africanus's History and Description of Africa lyric poetry and plays from Shakespeare's Antony and Cleopatra and The Tempest to Ben Jonson's Masque of Blackness works by Emilia Lanier Philip Sidney John Webster and Lady Mary Wroth and the visual and decorative arts Concentrating on the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Hall shows how race sexuality economics and nationalism contributed to the formation of a modern white male identity in English culture The volume includes a useful appendix of not readily accessible Renaissance poems on blackness The Night

Portrait Before Dark Liana Sakelliou, 2022-04-15 Portrait Before Dark is a poem cycle that constitutes an imaginary dialogue between the poet and patron of the arts Edward James and the eccentric Viennese ballerina and star of the 1920's Tilly Losch Liana Sakelliou began writing these poems in August 2009 when she was serving as writer in residence at West Dean College in West Sussex England Three days before she was to leave for the U.K. a wildfire surrounded her home and neighborhood In minutes the pine forest and hillside olive groves were lost For days the suitcase and the clothes she'd packed smelled of smoke Edward James the Anglo American millionaire gave his estate to a charitable trust the Edward James Foundation which includes the mansion West Dean House where the college is located She sat on the satin Mae West Lips Sofa one of Salvadore Dal's surrealist sculptures and read James's poems Through the biographical films that were screened at West Dean she discovered James's friendships with artists such as Leonora Carrington Dal and Ren Magritte and with writers such as Christopher Isherwood Edith Sitwell and Evelyn Waugh He seemed to know everyone from his era He spoke to Freud knew members of the Bloomsbury group and was one of the most generous English patrons of the arts in the early 20th Century He helped Max Ernst and Dylan Thomas as well as the aforementioned artists In 1933 during his marriage to Losch James funded Balanchine's first ballet company Les Ballets 1933 which was the foundation for his American Ballet Company He commissioned The Seven Deadly Sins a collaboration by Kurt Weil and Bertolt Brecht featuring Losch as prima ballerina and Lotte Lenya as vocal soloist Their marriage from 1930 to 1934 was short and disastrous and their divorce was a scandal in London society In 1937 Magritte painted two faceless portraits of James The Pleasure Principle Portrait of Edward James and Not to be Reproduced to which Sakelliou refers in her poems The setting of West Dean seemed made for children with topiary birds and spirals lush flowers conservatories and sheep one could pet Sakelliou saw portraits of the James family as well as Man Ray and Pavel Tschelitchew photos of Edward and Tilly walking through the palace corridors She liked their faces their poses She wanted to write quiet allusive poems that speak through their voices The English woodlands serve as a flexible space for Sakelliou's concerns about the Greece's beautiful and fragile environment and the wildfires that continue to ravage the country every summer combined with her imagining the spaciousness of

Edwards's and Losch's love as conflicting emotions burn down their marriage      Priscilla Hauser's Flower Portraits Priscilla Hauser, 2006-02 Priscilla Hauser the First Lady of Decorative Painting offers a bouquet of flower designs sure to please anyone who enjoys putting brush to paper Daffodils poppies cabbage roses and wisteria all bloom beautifully on canvas with the help of worksheets that show each portion of the flower as it's painted Instructions cover using a round or liner brush making every single brush stroke from commas to curlicues choosing a palette floating flowing color on a surface and easy blending Pick one of the 12 flower projects including tulips lilies geraniums daisies and sunflowers Attractive mottled backgrounds enhance the focus on each flower portrait and look wonderful on the finished and framed picture      Portrait of Darkness ~ The Gallery Part 1 & 2 Zarmajian Richie (author), 1901      Catalogue of Portraits in the Possession of the University, Colleges, City, and County of Oxford Oxford Historical Society (Oxford, England), 1926      Portrait Pro Jeff Smith, 2014-08-18 Doves of hobbyist photographers make a move to professional photography every year They read a few books watch rock star photographers shoot online make business cards and forge their path to a new career When they book clients work through the session proof their images and conduct a sales session though they encounter artistic organizational and financial problems they had not anticipated and many stall out In this book Jeff Smith focuses on finding an audience and a target demographic honing your posing and lighting skills working with clients and managing business and personnel concerns Smith begins by taking a close look at the mind set required for forging ahead as a professional photographer He shows you how to define and target the clientele you want to work with and teaches you skillful approaches for creating and maintaining a strong photographer client relationship He notes that many photographers enter the business to create images that please them and explains that to be successful photographers must instead learn to gain insight into just what the client wants to see in the final photos in order to maximize profits and keep clients coming back for more With a clearly defined objective and approach outlines Smith moves on to tackle common technical issues that new pros find daunting He provides tips for creating perfect lighting in the studio and outdoors He also discusses positioning for every part of the body to create an ideal presentation to the camera Next he provides compositional tips from where to position the subject in the frame to selecting the best camera angle to cropping for impact in order to maximize image impact and present the best possible image to your client Finally with the technical and artistic fields addressed Smith turns to a discussion on the business side of the profession He offers advice on acquiring equipment understanding costs and pricing creating new business opportunities identifying an ideal studio location and even managing your time      Graeco-Egyptian Coffins, Masks and Portraits Campbell Cowan Edgar, 1905      A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man James Joyce, 2008-06-12 Joyce's classic depiction of Stephen Dedalus's boyhood and coming of age in Ireland at the turn of the century his childhood sexual awakening intellectual development and revolt against Catholicism remains one of the key works of modern literature      Text Into Image, Image Into Text Jeffrey Morrison, Florian Krobb, 1997 This is a truly interdisciplinary work Whilst all of the contributions focus upon the central problem of the relationship between literature and the visual arts they come from contributors working in a large number of different areas Represented are academics from the worlds of German studies French studies English studies art history and film studies in literature etc Text Into Image ,1997 Text into Image Image into Text is a truly interdisciplinary publication Whilst all of the contributions focus upon the central problem of the relationship between literature and the visual arts one which has lost nothing of its fascination as the debate has expanded in numerous forms from antiquity into the realm of postmodern theory they come from contributors working in a large number of different areas Represented are academics from the worlds of German Studies French Studies English Studies Art History and Film Studies Given their backgrounds each of the contributors can offer a different perspective upon the core issue of translation between media but perhaps most valuable is the combination of perspectives made possible by the arrangement of the volume into sections dealing with aspects of the image text debate In the same way that the volume gains by ranging across traditional disciplinary boundaries so it also gains from dealing with a wide range of historical material from to take only one possible route Baroque iconography through Romantic imagery to Expressionist agony The Dark Blue John Christian Freund,1873 Two Summers Aimee Friedman,2016-04-26 From New York Times bestselling author Aimee Friedman comes a novel about fate family secrets and new love told in split narrative ONE SUMMER in the French countryside among sun kissed fields of lavender ANOTHER SUMMER in upstate New York along familiar roads that lead to surprises When Summer Everett makes a split second decision her summer divides into two parallel worlds In one she travels to France where she s dreamed of going a land of chocolate croissants handsome boys and art museums In the other she remains home in her ordinary suburb where she expects her ordinary life to continue but nothing is as it seems In both summers she will fall in love and discover new sides of herself What may break her though is a terrible family secret one she can t hide from anywhere In the end it might just be the truth she needs the most From New York Times bestselling author Aimee Friedman comes an irresistible inventive novel that takes readers around the world and back again and asks us what matters more the journey or the destination Wilson's Photographic Magazine ,1910

The Language of Images Maria Giulia Dondero,2020-08-18 This book deals with two fundamental issues in the semiotics of the image The first is the relationship between image and observer how does one look at an image To answer this question this book sets out to transpose the theory of enunciation formulated in linguistics over to the visual field It also aims to clarify the gains made in contemporary visual semiotics relative to the semiology of Roland Barthes and Emile Benveniste The second issue addressed is the relation between the forces forms and materiality of the images How do different physical mediums pictorial photographic and digital influence visual forms How does materiality affect the generativity of forms On the forces within the images the book addresses the philosophical thought of Gilles Deleuze and Ren Thom as well as the experiment of Aby Warburg s Atlas Mnemosyne The theories discussed in the book are tested on a variety of corpora for analysis including both paintings and photographs taken from traditional as well as contemporary sources in a variety of social sectors arts and sciences Finally semiotic methodology is contrasted with the computational analysis of large collections of images Big Data such as the Media Visualization analyses proposed by Lev Manovich and Cultural Analytics in the field of Computer Science to evaluate the impact of automatic analysis of visual forms on Digital Art History and more generally on the image sciences

Descriptosaurus: Ghost Stories Alison Wilcox, 2015-08-27 Descriptosaurus Ghost Stories builds on the vocabulary and descriptive phrases introduced in the original bestselling Descriptosaurus and within the context of ghost stories develops the structure and use of the words and phrases to promote colourful cinematic writing This essential guide will enable children to take their writing to the next level combine their descriptions of setting and character and show how the two interact Children can then experiment with their own ghost stories armed with the skills techniques and vocabulary necessary to describe their ghostly scenes in a way that allows the reader to feel the characters fear and visualise the source of their terror within the setting This new system also provides a contextualised alternative to grammar textbooks and will assist children in acquiring understanding and applying the grammar they will need to improve their writing both creative and technical

Caribbean Exchanges Susan Dwyer Amussen, 2009-03-24 English colonial expansion in the Caribbean was more than a matter of migration and trade It was also a source of social and cultural change within England Finding evidence of cultural exchange between England and the Caribbean as early as the seventeenth century Susan Dwyer Amussen uncovers the learned practice of slaveholding As English colonists in the Caribbean quickly became large scale slaveholders they established new organizations of labor new uses of authority new laws and new modes of violence punishment and repression in order to manage slaves Concentrating on Barbados and Jamaica England's two most important colonies Amussen looks at cultural exports that affected the development of race gender labor and class as categories of legal and social identity in England Concepts of law and punishment in the Caribbean provided a model for expanded definitions of crime in England the organization of sugar factories served as a model for early industrialization and the construction of the white woman in the Caribbean contributed to changing notions of ladyhood in England As Amussen demonstrates the cultural changes necessary for settling the Caribbean became an important though uncounted colonial export
