Portraits Of Medieval And Renaissance Living Essays In Memory Of David Herlihy:

Portraits of Medieval and Renaissance Living Samuel Kline Cohn, Steven Epstein, David Herlihy, 1996 A social history of the Middle Ages and Renaissance

War, Politics and Finance in Late Medieval English Towns Christian Drummond Liddy, 2005 The strengthening of ties between crown and locality in the fourteenth century is epitomised by the relationships between York and Bristol then amongst the largest and wealthiest urban communities in England and the crown This book combines a detailed study of the individuals who ruled Bristol and York at the time with a close analysis of the texts which illustrate the relationship between the two cities and the king thus offering a new perspective on relations between town and crown in late medieval England Beginning with an analysis of the various demands financial political and commercial made upon the towns by the Hundred Years War the author argues that such pressures facilitated the development of a partnership in government between the crown and the two towns meaning that the elite inhabitants became increasingly important in national affairs The book goes on to explore in detail the nature of urban aspirations within the kingdom arguing that the royal charters granting the towns their coveted county status were crucial in binding their ruling elites into the apparatus of royal government and giving them a powerful voice in national politics

A Companion to the Medieval World Carol Lansing, Edward D. English, 2012-12-26 Drawing on the expertise of 26 distinguished scholars this important volume covers the major issues in the study of medieval Europe highlighting the significant impact the time period had on cultural forms and institutions central to European identity Examines changing approaches to the study of medieval Europe its periodization and central themes Includes coverage of important questions such as identity and the self sexuality and gender emotionality and ethnicity as well as more traditional topics such as economic and demographic expansion kingship and the rise of the West Explores Europe's understanding of the wider world to place the study of the medieval society in a global context

Historical Truth in Fifteenth-Century Italy Giuliano Mori, 2024 While humanists agreed on identifying the main requirement of the historical genre with truthfulness they disagreed on their notions of historical truth Some authors equated historical truth with verisimilitude thus harmonizing the quest for truth with other ingredients of their histories such as their political utility and rhetorical aptness Others instead rejected the notion of verisimilitude identifying historical truth with factuality Accordingly they sought to produce bare and exhaustive accounts of all the things that pertained to their historical explorations often resorting to innovative disciplines such as archeology philology and the history of institutions The humanist historiographical debate is especially significant because the notion of verisimilitude encompassed crucial elements required for the development of methods of critical assessment By perceiving verisimilitude and factuality as irreconcilable Quattrocento humanists reached a critical impasse those who were interested in factual truth mostly lacked the means to ascertain it while those that developed embryonic notions of historical criticism were not eminently concerned with the factual account of the past This critical weakness exposed humanists to considerable risks including that of accepting non verisimilar historical forgeries passed off as factual Such forgeries eventually served as a testing ground for sixteenth and seventeenth century scholars who sought to restore factual truth by means of critical criteria grounded in verisimilitude thus overcoming the humanist impasse Historical Truth in Fifteenth Century Italy addresses Renaissance history philosophy rhetoric and jurisprudence to shed light on how humanists conceptualized truth and more specifically historical truth The Justice of Venice James E Shaw,2006-04-27 Published for The British Academy

Making Early Medieval Societies Kate Cooper,Conrad Leyser,2016-01-21 Examines the fundamental question of what held the societies of the post Roman world together Medieval Sensibilities Damien Boquet,Piroska Nagy,2018-07-26 What do we know of the emotional life of the Middle Ages Though a long neglected subject a multitude of sources spiritual and secular literature iconography chronicles as well as theological and medical works provide clues to the central role emotions played in medieval society In this work historians Damien Boquet and Piroska Nagy delve into a rich variety of texts and images to reveal the many and nuanced experiences of emotion during the Middle Ages from the demonstrative shame of a saint to a nobleman s fear of embarrassment from the enthusiasm of a crusading band to the fear of a town threatened by the approach of war or plague Boquet and Nagy show how these outbursts of joy and pain while universal expressions must be understood within the specific context of medieval society During the Middle Ages a Christian model of affectivity was formed in the laboratory of the monasteries one which gradually seeped into wider society interacting with the sensibilities of courtly culture and other forms of expression Bouquet and Nagy bring a thousand years of history to life demonstrating how the study of emotions in medieval society can also allow us to understand better our own social outlooks and customs The Letter Collection of Peter Abelard and Heloise Peter Abelard,Héloïse,2013-08-22 The letters of Abelard and Heloise contain a vivid account of one of the most celebrated love affairs in the western world that raised questions about love marriage and religious life in the Middle Ages This much needed new edition of the Latin text contains English translation a full introduction extensive annotation and detailed indexes A Cultural History of Peace in the Medieval Age Walter Simons,2022-02-24 A Cultural History of Peace presents an authoritative survey from ancient times to the present The set of six volumes covers over 2500 years of history charting the evolving nature and role of peace throughout history This volume A Cultural History of Peace in the Medieval Age explores peace from 800 to 1450 As with all the volumes in the illustrated Cultural History of Peace set this volume presents essays on the meaning of peace peace movements maintaining peace peace in relation to gender religion and war and representations of peace A Cultural History of Peace in the Medieval Age is the most authoritative and comprehensive survey available on peace in the medieval era The Cathars Malcolm Barber,2014-06-17 The Cathars are one of the most famous heretical movements of the late twelfth and early thirteenth centuries They infiltrated the highest ranks of society and posed a major threat not only to the Catholic Church but also to secular authorities as well The movement was finally smashed by the crusade and the inquisitional proceedings that followed

This new study is the first comprehensive history of the Cathars It addresses major topics in medieval history including heresy orthodoxy and the Crusades as well as providing a history of the social and political history of Languedoc and the rise of the Capetian dynasty A fascinating study of the development of radical religious belief and its violent suppression

A Cumulative Bibliography of Medieval Military History and Technology Kelly DeVries,2001-11-01 There is perhaps no other more lively area for study in medieval history than medieval military history with its attendant and complementary field the history of medieval military technology In the past twenty years it seems that more major scholarly inroads have been made in this field than in any other historical genre of medieval studies or chronological period of military history What this has meant is that it is now more difficult to keep up with all of the trends and sources in the field than ever before Hence the need for a reference work which covers what has previously been written and which in turn can assist the scholar both the more experienced academic and the beginner to improve his or her work in medieval military history or the history of medieval military technology Utilizing library catalogues bibliographies and footnotes this bibliography has compiled the most complete list of secondary references to works in medieval military history and the history of military technology It keeps fairly strictly to a geography which centers on conventional medieval boundaries Europe Byzantium and the Middle East However the chronology does differ from the conventional medieval dates Because of its influence on the early Middle Ages references to Late Antiquity especially to the military history and technology of the third and fourth century Roman Empire have been included For the opposite reason the influence of the Middle Ages on the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries references to military history and technology up to 1648 have been included as well This is especially important in the study of the Ottoman Turkish Wars and Arms and Armor where the end of the fifteenth century as a chronological terminus makes little sense

The Appeal to the Original Status H. B. Teunis,2006

Heresy, Inquisition and Life Cycle in Medieval Languedoc Chris Sparks,2014 A fresh examination of the Cathar heresy using the records of inquisitorial tribunals to bring out new details of life at the time

Queens, Consorts, Concubines: Gregory of Tours and Women of the Merovingian Elite E. T. Dailey,2015-04-14 Gregory of Tours hoped to inspire the believers in sixth century Gaul with examples of righteous and wicked deeds and their consequences Critiquing his own society Gregory contrasted vengeful queens rebellious nuns and conniving witches with pious widows humble abbesses and tearful saints By examining his thematic treatment of topics including widowhood marriage sanctity authority and political agency Queens Consorts Concubines reassesses the material shaped by such concerns including e g Gregory s accounts of Brunhild Fredegund Radegund and other important elite women Merovingian political policies marital alliances ecclesiastical intrigue even assassinations and seemingly unrelated topics such as Hermenegild s rebellion and the career of Empress Sophia The result a new interpretation of an important witness to the transformations of Late Antiquity

Feuding and Peace-Making in Eleventh-Century France Stephen D. White,2024-10-28 The essays in this volume discuss feuding and peacemaking in France during a period extending from the mid 10th to the early 12th century They treat various aspects of so called dispute processing a term coined by legal anthropologists to refer to the political processes and discursive practices through which conflict is mediated politically socially legally and culturally Each of the essays can be read both as one element in a larger critique of the theory that a feudal revolution in c 1000 initiated a century long era of feudal anarchy in France and as a study on a particular topic in medieval European legal and political history These include feuding violence the emotional dimensions of conflicts among elites the role of norms and normative argument in disputes the uses of unilateral ordeals and judicial duels in litigation and alternative strategies for terminating disputes The Making of Romantic Love William M. Reddy, 2024-05-31 In the twelfth century the Catholic Church attempted a thoroughgoing reform of marriage and sexual behavior aimed at eradicating sexual desire from Christian lives Seeking a refuge from the very serious condemnations of the Church and relying on a courtly culture that was already preoccupied with honor and secrecy European poets romance writers and lovers devised a vision of love as something quite different from desire Romantic love was thus born as a movement of covert resistance In The Making of Romantic Love Longing and Sexuality in Europe South Asia and Japan William M Reddy illuminates the birth of a cultural movement that managed to regulate selfish desire and render it innocent or innocent enough Reddy strikes out from this historical moment on an international exploration of love contrasting the medieval development of romantic love in Europe with contemporaneous eastern traditions in Bengal and Orissa and in Heian Japan from 900 1200 CE where one finds no trace of an opposition between love and desire In this comparative framework Reddy tells an appealing tale about the rise and fall of various practices of longing underscoring the uniqueness of the European concept of sexual desire The Year 1000 M. Frassetto, 2016-09-27 This collection of new essays examines the long standing question of apocalyptic expectations around the turn of the first millennium Including works by scholars of medieval history literature and religion this book argues that apocalyptic expectations did exist around the year 1000 It provides a more balanced and nuanced approach to the issue than the traditional views that either identify a time of fear the terrors of the year 1000 or deny that awareness of the millennium existed This book instead recognizes that there were a variety of responses to the eschatological years 1000 and 1033 and that these responses contributed to the broader social and religious developments associated with the birth of European civilization Genoa and the Genoese, 958-1528 Steven A. Epstein, Steven Epstein, 1996 A history of Genoa tracing the city's transformation from an obscure port into the capital of a small but thriving republic with an extensive overseas empire Covering six centuries the text interweaves political events economic trends social conditions and cultural accomplishments Across the Religious Divide Jutta Sperling, Shona Kelly Wray, 2009-10-16 Examining women's property rights in different societies across the entire medieval and early modern Mediterranean this volume introduces a unique comparative perspective to the complexities of gender relations in Muslim Jewish and Christian communities Through individual case studies based on urban and rural elite and non elite religious and secular communities Across the Religious Divide presents the only nuanced history of the region that incorporates peripheral areas such as Portugal the Aegean Islands Dalmatia and Albania into the central narrative By bridging the present day notional and cultural divide between Muslim and Judeo Christian worlds with geographical and thematic coherence this collection of essays by top international scholars focuses on women in courts of law and sources such as notarial records testaments legal commentaries and administrative records to offer the most advanced research and illuminate real connections across boundaries of gender religion and culture Righteous Persecution Christine Caldwell Ames, 2009 Inquisitors from the Order of Preachers or Dominicans crafted and promoted Christian meanings for their persecution of heresy in medieval Europe With a mixture of existing religious beliefs new interpretations and responses to criticism Dominicans shaped a medieval Christianity that permitted or demanded inquisitorial repression
