Nineteenth-Century American Literature Sara L. Crosby,2018-09-14 This book investigates how popular American literature and film transformed the poisonous woman from a misogynist figure used to exclude women and minorities from political power into a feminist hero used to justify the expansion of their public roles Sara Crosby locates the origins of this metamorphosis in Uncle Tom s Cabin where Harriet Beecher Stowe applied an alternative medical discourse to revise the poisonous Cassy into a doctor The newly medicalized poisoner then served as a focal point for two competing narratives that envisioned the American nation as a multi racial egalitarian democracy or as a white and male supremacist ethno state Crosby tracks this battle from the heroic healers created by Stowe Mary Webb Oscar Micheaux and Louisa May Alcott to the even more monstrous poisoners or vampires imagined by E D E N Southworth Oliver Wendell Holmes Theda Bara Thomas Dixon Jr and D W Griffith Maine's Remarkable Women Kate Kennedy,2016-05-01 Maine s Remarkable Women tells the stories of fifteen strong and determined women who broke through social cultural or political barriers Through their passions for art exploration literature politics music and nature these women made contributions to society that still resonate today Meet Marguerite Tante Blanche Thibodeau Cyr The Mother of Madawaska whose bravery and kindness during one brutal winter saved her frontier settlement botanist artist Kate Furbish who explored Maine s wilderness collecting classifying and painting all of its flowering plants and Florence Nicolay Shay a Native American basketmaker who demanded and succeeded in gaining rights for her tribe the Penobscots Each of these women demonstrated courage compassion and an independence of spirit that is as inspiring now as it was then Read about their extraordinary lives in this collection of brief and absorbing biographies Regions of Identity ,1999-03 Examining turn of the century American women s fiction the author argues that this writing played a crucial role in the production of a national fantasy of a unified American identity in the face of the racial regional ethnic and sexual divisions of the period Contributing to New Americanist perspectives of nation formation the book shows that these writers are central to American literary discourses for reconfiguring the relationship among constituent regions in order to reconfigure the nation itself Analyzing fiction by Sarah Orne Jewett Florence Converse Pauline Hopkins Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Kate Chopin and Sui Sin Far the book foregrounds the ways each writer s own location on the grid of American identities shapes her attempt to forge an inclusive narrative of America This disparate group of writers Northerners Southerners Californios African Americans Chinese Americans Anglo Americans heterosexuals and lesbians reflects the widespread nature of concerns over national identity and the importance of regions to representations of that identity The author argues that femininity as a politicized cultural construct is basic to each of these author s attempts to recast America because each understands the link between true womanhood and the longstanding equation of New England with the nation But such attempts to mobilize the naturalized feminine to stabilize a fractured and exclusionary American identity inevitably reveal the fissures that undermine the universality of both categories The book thus participates in several larger and ongoing conversations within American studies and feminist literary and genre criticism the reassessment of regional and minor fiction in relation to national identity the critique of the politics of genre construction the uses and limits of identity politics and the connections among all these issues
