

Apollo in His Chariot with the Hours

Apollo, the sun god, drives away Arcturus, goddess of the moon. The figures surrounding Apollo represent the hours. Sargent's reaction for the images is extremely varied. His composition was based on a fresco by the Baroque seventeenth-century Italian master Guido Reni, while the figures in the center foreground derive from a photograph that Sargent cut from a newspaper.

John Singer Sargent Trevor J. Fairbrother, John Singer Sargent, Seattle Art Museum, 2000-01-01 Om den amerikanske maler John Singer Sargent 1856 1925 John Singer Sargent and artworks Donald Wigal, 2023-11-16 Sargent was born in Florence in 1856 the son of cultivated parents When Sargent entered the school of Carolus Duran he attained much more than the average pupils His father was a retired Massachusetts gentleman having practised medicine in Philadelphia Sargent's home life was penetrated with refinement and outside it were the beautiful influences of Florence combining the charms of sky and hills with the wonders of art in the galleries and the opportunities of an intellectual and artistic society Accordingly when Sargent arrived in Paris he was not only a skilful draughtsman and painter as a result of his study of the Italian masters but he also had a refined and cultivated taste which perhaps had an even greater influence upon his career Later in Spain it was chiefly upon the lessons learned from Velázquez that he found his own brilliant method Sargent belongs to America but is claimed by others as a citizen of the world or a cosmopolitan Sargent with the exception of a few months at distant intervals spent his life abroad The artistic influences which affected him were those of Europe Yet his Americanism may be detected in his extraordinary facility to absorb impressions in the individuality he evolved and in the subtlety and reserve of his methods qualities that are characteristic of the best American art

 Langer, 2022-06-22 With chapters written by a diverse set of practitioners from across the museum field and around the world Storytelling in Museums explores the efficacy and ethics of storytelling in museums The book shows how museums use personal local and specific stories to make visitors feel welcome while inspiring them to engage with new ideas and unfamiliar situations At the same time the book explores the responsibilities of museum practitioners toward the storytellers included in their narratives and how those responsibilities shift over time and manifest in different contexts The book s eighteen chapters represent a conversation among a diverse set of professionals for whom storytelling connotes their daily museum practice As educators collectors curators designers marketers researchers planners and collaborators the authors of this book consider the real work of storytelling from every angle From the inclusion of personal stories in educational programs to the meta narratives on display in exhibitions this book balances practical examples with ethical considerations placing the praxis of storytelling within the larger context of the 21st century museum The book moves beyond advocacy for storytelling as an essential part of the museum s toolkit to explore the many ways in which museums use personal stories and multiple storytelling techniques to support the larger public narratives embedded in their missions The contributors demonstrate how museums that emphasize storytelling from multiple angles can serve as a kind of counterpoint to our tendency to fixate on singular images of things we know little about They encourage museums to both acknowledge that they cannot control the narrative and to embrace their power to contribute to it through the multivalent multivocal stories they choose to share A Catalogue of the Memorial Exhibition of the Works of the Late John Singer Sargent Museum
