Women of the Kakawin World Helen Creese,2015-01-28 In this fascinating study the lives and mores of women in one of the least understood but most densely populated areas of the world are unveiled through the eyes of generations of court poets For more than a millennium the poets of the Indic courts of Java and Bali composed epic kakawin poems in which they recreated the court environment where they and their royal patrons lived Major themes in this poetry form include war love and marriage It is a rich source for the cultural and social history of Indonesia Still being produced in Bali today kakawin remain of interest and relevance to Balinese cultural and religious identities This book draws on the epic kakawin poetry tradition to examine the institutions of courtship and marriage in the Indic courts Its primary purpose is to explore the experiences of women belonging to the kakawin world although the texts by nature reveal more about the discourses concerning women sexuality and gender than of the historical experiences of individual women For over a thousand years these royal courts were major patrons of the arts The court sponsored epic works that have survived provide an ongoing literary testimony to the cultural and social concerns of court society from its earliest recorded history until its demise at the end of the nineteenth century This study examines the idealized images of women and sexuality that have pervaded Javanese and Balinese culture and provides insights into a number of cultural practices such as sati or bela self immolation of widows

Indonesian Manuscripts from the Islands of Java, Madura, Bali and Lombok Dick van der Meij,2017-07-31 Indonesian Manuscripts from the Islands of Java Madura Bali and Lombok discusses aspects of the long and impressive manuscript traditions of these islands which share many aspects of manuscript production Many hitherto unaddressed features of palm leaf manuscripts are discussed here for the first time as well as elements of poetic texts indications of mistakes colophons and the calendrical information used in these manuscripts All features discussed are explained with photographs The introductory chapters offer insights into these traditions in a wider setting and the way researchers have studied them This original and pioneering work also points out what topics needs further exploration to understand these manuscript traditions that use a variety of materials languages and scripts to a wider public

Literature of Java: Synopsis of Javanese literature 900-1900 A.D Theodore Gauthier Th. Pigeaud,1967

Traces of the Ramayana and Mahabharata in Javanese and Malay Literature Ding Choo Ming,Willem van der Molen,2018-03-15 Local renderings of the two Indian epics Ramayana and Mahabharata in Malay and Javanese literature have existed since around the ninth and tenth centuries In the following centuries new versions were created alongside the old ones and these opened up interesting new directions They questioned the views of previous versions and laid different accents in a continuous process of modernization and adaptation successfully satisfying the curiosity of their audiences for more than a thousand years Much of this history is still unclear For a long time scholarly research made little progress due to its preoccupation with problems of origin The present volume going beyond identifying sources analyses the socio literary contexts and ideological foundations of seemingly similar contents and concepts in different periods it examines the literary functions of borrowing and intertextual referencing and calls upon the visual arts to illustrate the independent character of the epic tradition in Southeast Asia

The Malay Hikayat Mi'rāj Nabi Muḥammad Dick van der Meij,Nannoo Lambooij,2014-07-10 Texts about the nocturnal journey of the Prophet Muhammad in the Muslim world and outside International attention has never been afforded to any version of text in any language of the Indonesian archipelago One old version of the text from the area the Malay Hikayat Mir j Nabi Muhammad is presented here in Malay and English translation The introductory chapters place the text in a wider context in Indonesian literatures while the manuscript of the text Codex Leiden 1713 is described in detail The text and translation purport to enhance interest in this important text in the Muslim world as seen from the Malay Indonesian perspective

Bhomantaka A. Teeuw, S.O. Robson, 2021-10-01 The Bhomantaka or the Death of Bhoma is a wide ranging tale of the sweet romance of Samba and Yajawati of the defeat of the demon Bhoma by King Kresna and his minions in a truly monumental battle and many more incidents and descriptions a product of the sophisticated literary tradition of early Java The poem is written in Old Javanese composed by an author who does not mention his name or that of his king in an idiom that presents many difficulties for the modern reader This book contains an edition of the text a translation and an extensive explanatory introduction enough to make the work accessible and was produced by a team of two both senior scholars of Old Javanese and experienced in producing readable English translations It will become apparent in the course of reading that there are still numerous philological problems attaching to the text and its interpretation but on the other hand it is also a fact that it contains many a passage of delightful poetry philosophical teaching and other cultural information As a result we get a glimpse of what Java was like perhaps eight and a half centuries ago and of the thought world of the Javanese of that age a world where legendary mythological or divine beings do battle and kings march out to restore the welfare of the realm This publication takes its place in a long line from the author via the copyists in Java and in Bali who faithfully and lovingly transmitted the work down to the first edition of the text in 1852 and then the first translation in 1946 In this way a literary tradition of great value has been preserved for the future and the KITLV Press now offers this contribution to coming generations of students of Old Javanese and to scholars of comparative literature around the world

Islamisation A. C. S. Peacock, 2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history

Religion, Place and Modernity, 2016-05-09 Using the potential of place as an approach and of places as ethnographic contexts the authors in this volume investigate the multiple entanglements of religion and modernity in contemporary settings The guiding questions of such an approach are How are modernity and religion spatially articulated in and through places How do these articulations help us to understand the ways in which religion becomes socially and culturally significant in modern contexts And how do they reveal the ways in which modernity unfolds within religion Thus places are not only understood as neutral locations or extensions but as spatial modes to mediate properties contents and processes of religion and modernity Based on ethnographic and historical research in Southeast and East Asia and featuring reflections on the concepts of religion and modernity respectively the authors offer a deeper understanding of the articulation of a religious modernity in these regions and beyond Contributors are Nikolas BROY CHAN Yuk Wah Michael DICKHARDT Volker GOTTOWIK Patrice LADWIG Andrea LAUSER Jovan MAUD YEOH Seng Guan Clemens SIX Paul SORRENTINO Alexander SOUCY Sing SUWANNAKIJ

Literature of Java Theodore G. TH. Pigeaud, 2013-06-29

The third concluding volume of Literature of Java contains Addenda and a General Index preceded by Illustrations Facsimiles of Manuscripts Maps and some Minor Notes additions which may be of use to students of Javanese literature The older catalogues of collections of Indonesian manuscripts Javanese Malay Sundanese Madurese Balinese which were written in Dutch did not offer such additional aids to interested readers One of the reasons was that the authors Vreede Brandes van Ronkel Juynboll Berg presupposed a certain knowledge of the Indonesian peoples their countries and their culture with Dutch students As often as not the latter or their families had lived for many years in Java and they were destined when they had completed their studies in The Netherlands to pass one or more decades of their active life in the tropics in the service of Government the Christian Missions or the Bible Society The Archipelago was their second home country Some familiarity with things Indonesian was found in several circles of society in The Netherlands before the second world war and information though not always scholarly and exact was supplied by quite a number of books and periodicals For this reason it was thought superfluous to encumber specialistic books like catalogues of manuscripts with maps and general information which could be found easily elsewhere for instance in the Dutch Encyclopaedie van Nederlandsch Indie As circumstances have changed it is Anthropologica, 2005 Includes reports of meetings of the institute Kalangwan P.J. Zoetmulder, 2024-02-26 Bridges to the Ancestors David D. Harnish, 2006-01-01 Bridges to the Ancestors effectively reveals the Lingsar festival as a site of cultural struggle as Harnish explores how history identity and power are constructed and negotiated He addresses the fascinating interaction between music and myth and the forces of modernity globalization authenticity tourism religion regionalism and nationalism in maintaining tradition Jacket
