Stout,2007 Picturing a Different West addresses Willa Cather and Mary Austin as central figures in a women s tradition of the pictured West Both Cather and Austin moved west in their youth and spent much of their lives there Cather lived on the Great Plains while Austin resided in California and the Southwest Cather s travels repeatedly took her to the Southwest and she wrote three novels with Southwestern settings Starting with the masculine tradition of Western art that was prevalent when Austin and Cather launched their careers Janis P Stout shows how the authors challenged and revised that tradition Rather than a West of adventure violence and conquest open only to rugged and daring men the authors envisioned a new

West not conventionally feminine so much as an androgynous space of freedom for women and men alike Their vision of an alternative West and their alternative ways of thinking about and portraying gender are inseparable Placing Cather and Austin alongside contemporaries Elsie Clews Parsons Mabel Dodge Luhan Georgia O Keeffe and Laura Gilpin Stout emphasizes the visual nature of Austin's and Cather's personal experiences of the West and Southwest their awareness of the prevailing visual representations of the West and the visual nature of their books about the West with respect to both prose style and illustrations In closing Stout demonstrates the continuance of their tradition in illustrated western books by Leslie Marmon Silko and by Margaret Randall and Barbara Byers      Success ,1904      Americomania and the French

Revolution Debate in Britain, 1789-1802 Wil Verhoeven,2013-11-12 This book explores the evolution of British identity and participatory politics in the 1790s Wil Verhoeven argues that in the course of the French Revolution debate in Britain the idea of America came to represent for the British people the choice between two diametrically opposed models of social justice and political participation Yet the American Revolution controversy in the 1790s was by no means an isolated phenomenon The controversy began with the American crisis debate of the 1760s and 1770s which overlapped with a wider Enlightenment debate about transatlantic utopianism All of these debates were based in the material world on the availability of vast quantities of cheap American land Verhoeven investigates the relation that existed throughout the eighteenth century between American soil and the discourse of transatlantic utopianism between America as a physical geographical space and America as a utopian dystopian idea image      Heritag Auctions Illustration Art Auction Catalog #7010, Dallas, TX Jim
