Envisioning Voice and the Aphasic Ears D Venkat Rao, 2025-04-30 This book explores the possibility of using Sanskrit as a basis for rethinking human thought and reflection challenging the dominance of European intellectual traditions Sanskrit with its vast historical spread across Central South and Southeast Asia as well as Europe offers a unique reflective idiom that contrasts with the European conceptual frameworks that still dominate contemporary thinking in areas such as language art reason justice and politics The book argues that European thinkers despite acknowledging a shared linguistic root with Sanskrit Indo European have followed a very different intellectual path one that has historically been violent and continues to fuel contemporary conflicts In contrast Sanskrit s long history of coexistence with diverse languages cultures and polities offers alternative possibilities for understanding justice and coexistence in today s globalized world By comparing the reflective traditions of Sanskrit with European philosophical and linguistic categories the book seeks to demonstrate how Sanskrit offers a more inclusive less confrontational model for engaging with the world The book engages with Sanskrit texts European philosophers and language theorists to substantiate its claims It argues that such a cross cultural examination which brings together the reflective traditions of both heritages is necessary for a new kind of intellectual inquiry one that moves beyond the entrenched paradigms of European thought and opens up new possibilities for coexistence and understanding

Assured Self, Restive Self Prasanta Chakravarty, 2023-07-30 The book explores the encounter of the self with situations of crisis from diverse disciplinary and cultural perspectives from antiquity to contemporary times A crisis is at once a historically situated phenomenon and a recurring idea of endangerment or a breakdown in creaturely living By making our choices stark and difficult crisis opens up the possibility for genuinely fresh and unexpected beginnings At the most fundamental level crisis is the disintegration of relationality among creatures In fact crisis is a battle of attrition with and within selfhood It has the potential to turn into a norm in everyday interaction It then stops being an exception and becomes the very condition of our living Through the rubrics of the assured and the restive the volume addresses how selfhood encounters and negotiates concentric circles of crisis in life and literature Does the idea of crisis allow us to formulate the idea of self in a particular way How do certain sources and resources within the self stoic or heroic political and creative come into being during crisis While some essays delve into questions of repose and sensuality by highlighting specific cases and trajectories from the subcontinent others deal with questions of mythology politics and art in a wider sense One essay directly addresses the core literary question of the uncanny and its relation to selfhood While specific concerns illuminate each essay the volume speaks with a collective global sense of crisis that faces humanity now and tentatively offers some prospects to deal with it Shakespeare's Sonnets and the Bhagavadgita Bimal Narayan
