Good Time Girls of California Jan MacKell Collins, 2021-03-01 While settlers were drawn out West by the often empty promises of the Gold Rush prostitution grew and flourished within the mining camps small towns and cities of nineteenth century California Whether escaping a bad home life lured by false advertising or seeking to subsidize their income thousands of women chose or were forced to enter an industry where they faced segregation and persecution fines and jailing and battled the other hazards of their profession Some dreamed of escape through marriage or retirement and some became infamous and even successful but more often found relief only in death. An integral part of western history, the stories of these women continue to fascinate readers and captivate the minds of historians today. Working girls and madams like Bodie's famous Rosa May and the gambler Madame Moustache remain notorious celebrities in the annals of history. Collins also includes the stories of lesser known women whose roles in this illicit trade help shape our understanding of the American West.

The Last Lovely City Alice Adams, 1999 Few writers interpret the depth and range of human experience as honestly as Alice Adams. A storyteller whose work recalls such past masters as Flannery O'Connor and Katherine Mansfield, Newsweek Adams' stunning new set of short stories further charts the emotional minefields of companionship, sex, memory, and forgiveness. Presented in two parts, the collection moves from San Francisco to North Carolina to Mexico and Hawaii, delivering thirteen powerful stories that are sensitive, rich, and wise yet surprisingly unsentimental. THE LAST LOVELY CITY is a masterful exploration of the tattered remnants of passion of innocence too cheaply bartered for experience and of old lovers and old lives that never quite get left behind. Field & Stream, 1969-01

FIELD STREAM America's largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories, compelling photography, and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations.

The Sausalito Waterfront Planning Committee Report Sausalito Waterfront Planning Committee, 1981

Finding Pax Kaci Cronkhite, 2018-09-18 The boat appeared when I didn't expect or frankly need her. My bucket list was empty. Life was full. But sailing towards me was a boat that would stir the waters, waking decades of loss, revealing history untold and restoring a legacy that was lost in the wind. For her and for me, I had to wade into that water. I had to go to search to find. Having fallen hopelessly in love with a 1930s Danish spidsgatter, a beautifully constructed 25 ft wooden double ender, Kaci embarks on an international search to unravel the mystery of the boat's past and discovers the many lives Pax touched since she first hit the water in 1936. Kaci Cronkhite's seven-year search for Pax's history is an elegant little gem taking the reader aboard not only for sublime wind-filled sails but also to eavesdrop the conversations and relationships that are built as she learns more about Pax's past whilst hugely enjoying her present. Finding Pax is a story of discovery and reconnection like no other. The writing is poetic, spare, and full of wisdom. In sailing, in weather, in life and death, answers are not endings and questions are not to be feared. The unknowns keep us moving forward. The Coevolution Quarterly, 1980
