Journeys With a Brother Bartholomew, 1999-09-01: Journeys with a Brother chronicles an insightful, often humorous adventure where Bartholomew's spiritual revelations permeate the existing physical reality. A group of ordinary people travel from the temples of Japan to the heights of the Himalayas to experience a sacred initiation given by the 14th Dalai Lama.

The Many Faces of God Walter Prucnel, 2007-08: God looked at the earth with despair. He knew the future of earth was dismal; it was prone to the pollutions created by man. Worse yet, people in many countries were killing others for their different religious beliefs. Gone was the day of the cross and bow when men fought each other face to face. Now many countries were making weapons that could travel great distances to kill millions. This both saddened and angered Him, and He knew something had to be done. Should I create another flood? Have everyone turned into salt? No, none of these would work because many souls would be sent to Hell, and Satan could not accommodate that many. He could perform miracles to improve these conditions, but that would take away the Earthlings' freewill. The only solution was for the Earthlings to improve their own fate with a little help from Him. Summoning his Undergods, He gave them instructions to choose a few Earthlings, approach them through apparitions, and give them minor powers which would aid them in their missions. Thus The Many Faces of God begins.
