Saving the Planet Norman V. Walbek,1988      Saving Progressive Christianity to Save the Planet Bruce G Epperly,2024-10-22 Calling for a faith that lives by what it affirms not just by what it denies this book outlines a positive engaging message supported by active spiritual practices and carried out in action for a better community and planet In doing so Bruce Epperly calls for rethinking and reviving many Christian themes often neglected or discarded in progressive Christianity to help carry out this mission Among these themes are Mystical experience and vision Spiritual healing Genuine dialog Reclaiming a relationship with Jesus Reclaiming and affirming the work of the Holy Spirit Practicing God s kindom and peace rather than an expectation of doom Being witnesses in the world Speaking and acting prophetically bringing hope In bringing life to these themes Epperly looks to Jesus and to scripture without demeaning other faiths He evokes a relational non coercive God as the foundation of a relational and non coercive presence in the world This book will provide both a challenge and a hope to progressive congregations especially those struggling with diminishing numbers but it will also provide an excellent antidote to the charge that progressive Christianity is not an affirmative active and hopeful faith

Giroux,2015-12-03 As the new administration moved beyond its first year in office Obama's politics of hope increasingly has been transformed into a politics of accommodation To many of his supporters his quest for pragmatism and realism has become a weakness rather than a strength By focusing on those areas where Obama grounded his own sense of possibility Giroux critically investigates the well being and future of young people including the necessity to overcome racial injustices the importance of abiding by the promise of a democracy to come and the indisputable value of education in democracy Giroux shows why considerations provide the ethical and political foundations for enabling hope to live up to its promises while making civic responsibility and education central to a movement that takes democracy seriously     Islands of Hope Paul D'Arcy,Daya Dakasi Da-Wei Kuan,2023-05-25 In the Pacific as elsewhere indigenous communities live with the consequences of environmental mismanagement and over exploitation but rarely benefit from the short term economic profits such actions may generate within the global system National and international policy frameworks ultimately rely on local community assent Without effective local participation and partnership these extremely imposed frameworks miss out on millennia of local observation and understanding and seldom deliver viable and sustained environmental cultural and economic benefits at the local level This collection argues that environmental sustainability indigenous political empowerment and economic viability will succeed only by taking account of distinct local contexts and cultures In this regard these Pacific indigenous case studies offer islands of hope for all communities marginalised by increasingly intrusive and increasingly rapid technological changes and by global dietary economic political and military forces with whom they have no direct contact or influence     Hope for the Earth Ernst M. Conradie,2005-05-18 Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology ecological theology cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself

Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life amidst death and destruction life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated Part F

The Political Christopher Nolan Jesse Russell,2023-05-26 Many of Christopher Nolan s films ironically both embrace the tradition of surrealist and Avant Garde filmmaking while simultaneously providing at least tacit support for the Anglo American liberal world order For Nolan this world order which relies on global capitalism technocratic supremacy and ultimate control of world cultural production is a much greater alternative to either left or right wing challenges to this liberalism In Nolan s films this liberalism must occasionally use violence and violate some of its core principals of privacy and freedom to maintain its dominance Nonetheless Anglo American liberalism in Nolan s vision provides a world that is freer more humane and more prosperous than other anarchic Marxist or fascist alternatives Finally and perhaps most importantly for Nolan the security wealth and freedom of this liberal world order enables the world of art and film to blossom and the opportunity for

Christopher Nolan to create post ironic dream worlds or in the words of Jean Baudrillard a hyperreality Hope in Times of Crisis Marina Ngursangzeli Behera,Michael Biehl,Risto Jukko,Kenneth R. Ross,2025-06-06 The early twenty first century has dashed hopes for a more peaceful harmonious and prosperous world order as many societies have been plunged into conflict and living conditions for many have become ever more precarious The crisis is compounded by the advance of damaging climate change that jeopardizes the future of life on earth Where can the imagination be found to meet such an unprecedented crisis This book mines one hundred years of ecumenical reflection on mission affirming the strengths of this tradition It does so in a spirit of metanoia repentance recognizing that churches and missions were often complicit in trends that have proved to be damaging At the same time it draws on elements of renewal in thinking about mission cherishing of life environmental responsibility action for justice deepening of spirituality working from a basis in ecumenical Christianity to make common cause with people of all faiths and convictions who share similar concerns While the book is unflinching in confronting the injustice and destructiveness of the prevailing world order its final message is one of hope proposing that a retrieval and renewal of the ecumenical vision holds the promise of a brighter future Bioweapon J.K. Bowden,2012-08 In the world of tomorrow peace reigns but at a terrible price The internet now binds people in a state of unified progress achieved through a microchipped population who have been united in the face of destruction and bent to the will of an insidious secret society who control every inch of the planet from the shadows Those who have rejected the all powerful New World Order are forced to flee to the most unliveable parts of the Earth and are branded as rebels and secretly hunted to extinction Their only hope lies in the incredible scientists who are at the forefront of the rebellion and the deadly bioweapons they create Meanwhile Leah Sudeski a London based private journalist stumbles onto some shocking evidence that changes everything she has ever known about the peaceful society she was born and raised in Desperate for the truth she begins an impossible mission aided by the rebels in order to bring Truth and Freedom back to humanity      Can Cities, States and Regions Save Our Planet?
