New Testament Take-Home Bible Stories, Grades Preschool - 2 Thomas C. Ewald, M.Div., 2003-12-23 Present the truth of God's faithfulness to students as they color and make their own mini books based on the passages of the New Testament Each mini book contains a scripture reference and an application question to encourage extension activities How Cities Will Save the World Ray Brescia, John Travis Marshall, 2016-06-03 Cities are frequently viewed as passive participants to state and national efforts to solve the toughest urban problems But the evidence suggests otherwise Cities are actively devising innovative policy solutions and they have the potential to do even more In this volume the authors examine current threats to communities across the U S and the globe They draw on first hand experience with and accounts of the crises already precipitated by climate change population shifts and economic inequality This volume is distinguished however by its central objective of traveling beyond a description of problems and a discussion of their serious implications Each of the thirteen chapters frame specific recommendations and guidance on the range of core capacities and interventions that 21st Century cities would be prudent to consider in mapping their immediate and future responses to these critical problems How Cities Will Save the World brings together authors with frontline experience in the fields of city redevelopment urban infrastructure healthcare planning immigration historic preservation and local government administration They not only offer their ground level view of threats caused by climate change population shifts and economic inequality but they provide solution driven narratives identifying promising innovations to help cities tackle this century's greatest adversities Discovering Africa Dianna J. Sullivan, 1995 Language Issues in Comparative Education Carol Benson, Kimmo Kosonen, 2013-06-13 This volume compiles a unique yet complementary collection of chapters that take a strategic comparative perspective on education systems regions of the world and or ethnolinguistic communities with a focus on non dominant languages and cultures in education Comparison and contrast within each article and across articles illustrates the potential for using home languages which in many cases are in non dominant positions relative to other languages in society in inclusive multilingual and multicultural forms of education The 22 authors demonstrate how bringing non dominant languages and cultures into schooling has liberatory transformative potential for learners from ethnolinguistic communities that have previously been excluded from access to quality basic education The authors deal not only with educational development in specific low income and emerging countries in Asia Afghanistan Bangladesh Cambodia the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam Latin America Guatemala and Mexico and Africa Mozambique Senegal and Tanzania but also with efforts to reach marginalized ethnolinguistic communities in high income North American countries Canada and the USA In the introductory chapter the editors highlight common and cross cutting themes and propose appropriate sometimes new terminology for the discussion of linguistic and cultural issues in education particularly in low income multilingual countries Likewise using examples from additional countries and contexts the three final chapters address cross cutting issues related to language and culture in educational research and development The authors and editors of this volume share a common commitment to comparativism in their methods and analysis and aim to contribute to more inclusive and relevant education for all A richly textured collection which offers a powerful vision of the possible now and in the future Alamin Mazrui Rutgers State University of New Jersey USA This book takes the local perspective of non dominant language communities in arguing for a multilingual habitus in educational development Benson and Kosonen masterfully extend theories and clarify terminology that is inclusive of the non dominant contexts described here Ofelia Garc a City University of New York USA Book World, 1971
