Savior Flava:

The Association Review ,1905 Medicine Amy Gerstler,2000-06-01 Amy Gerstler has won acclaim for complex yet accessible poetry that is by turns extravagant subversive surreal and playful In her new collection Medicine she deploys a variety of dramatic voices spoken by such disparate characters as Cinderella s wicked sisters the wife of a nineteenth century naturalist a homicide detective and a woman who is happily married to a bear Their elusive collectivity suggests but never quite defines the floating authorial presence that haunts them Gerstler s abiding interests in love and mourning in science and pseudo science in the idea of an afterlife are strongly evident in these new poems which are full of strong emotion language play surprising twists and a wicked sense of black humor I'd Rather Burn Than Bloom Shannon C. F.

Rogers,2023-07-11 Packed with voice Shannon C F Rogers I d Rather Burn than Bloom is a powerful YA novel about a Filipina American teen who tries to figure out who she really is in the wake of her mother s death Some girls call their mother their best friend Marisol Martin She could never relate She and her mom were forever locked in an argument with no beginning and no end Clothes church boys no matter the topic Marisol always felt like there was an unbridgeable gap between them that they were perpetually shouting across one that she longed to close But when her mother dies suddenly Marisol is left with no one to fight against haunted by all the things that she both said and didn t say Her dad seems completely lost and worse baffled by Marisol s attempts to connect with her mother s memory through her Filipino culture Her brother Bernie is retreating further and further into himself And when Marisol sleeps with her best friend s boyfriend and then punches said best friend in the face she s left alone with nothing but a burning anger and nowhere for it to go And Marisol is determined to stay angry after all there s a lot to be angry about her father her mother the world But as a new friendship begins to develop with someone who just might understand Marisol reluctantly starts to open up to her and to the possibility there s something else on the other side of that anger something more to who she is and who she could be
