The Dola Project Cecil Thomas,2022-12-22 A wealthy woman named Dola decided to address some larger problems faced by the US She knew she could not work alone on such big issues so she recruited a group of seven young people in their late twenties The group became known as Team Dola She explained that the group of seven would not do all the work on a selected project Instead the group would recruit experts who could do most of the work In other words Team Dola would initiate a project that others would implement Their first of four projects involved desalinating Pacific Ocean water and pumping the fresh water into rivers to supplement irrigation The second project addressed the problem of wildfires by replacing traditional controlled burning with mulching A third project arose from their concern for missing persons The fourth project addressed the problem of sinking cities with focus on New Orleans The young members of Team Dola approach their tasks using unconventional and offbeat methods with surprising successes They engage allies from multiple government agencies members of the Navajo Nation California farmers and even Louisiana politicians They also manage to have fun and experience romances and disappointments all while growing into a close knit formidable team that successfully addresses our nation s pressing problems

A Practical Guide to Spoken English Dr P.N. Gupta,2014-10-14 Teaching of English in India has been traditionally grammar based The teacher teaches a good deal of grammar assigns exercises in class or as homework and makes a lot of corrections Such painstaking efforts on the part of the teacher are of course helpful in learning the language but does not much help the student to use the language in day to day conversation Leaving aside the traditional method of dealing with grammar as an isolated subject the present book offers a specific course in spoken English that focuses on the language of interaction and social exchanges Its main emphasis is on developing communicative ability of the learner
