Unfitting Stories Valerie Raoul, Connie Canam, Angela D. Henderson, Carla Paterson, 2007-03-30 Unfitting Stories Narrative Approaches to Disease Disability and Trauma illustrates how stories about ill health and suffering have been produced and received from a variety of perspectives Bringing together the work of Canadian researchers health professionals and people with lived experiences of disease disability or trauma it addresses central issues about authority in medical and personal narratives and the value of cross or interdisciplinary research in understanding such experiences The book considers the aesthetic dimensions of health related stories with literary readings that look at how personal accounts of disease disability and trauma are crafted by writers and filmmakers into published works Topics range from psychiatric hospitalization and aestheticizing cancer to father daughter incest in film The collection also deals with the therapeutic or transformative effect of stories with essays about men sport and spinal cord injury narrative teaching at L Arche a faith based network of communities inclusive of people with developmental disabilities and the construction of a schizophrenic identity A final section examines the polemical functions of narrative directing attention to the professional and political contexts within which stories are constructed and exchanged Topics include ableist limits on self narration drug addiction and the disease model and narratives of trauma and Aboriginal post secondary students Unfitting Stories is essential reading for researchers using narrative methods or materials for teachers students and professionals working in the field of health services and for concerned consumers of the health care system It deals with practical problems relevant to policy makers as well as theoretical issues of interest to specialists in bioethics gender analysis and narrative theory Read the chapter Social Trauma and Serial Autobiography Healing and Beyond by Bina Freiwald on the Concordia University Library Spectrum Research Repository website Hungry for Ecstasy Sharon Klayman Farber, 2012-11-16 Hungry for Ecstasy Trauma The Brain and the Influence of the Sixties by Sharon Klayman Farber explores the hunger for ecstatic experience that can lead people down the road to self destruction In an attempt to help mental health professionals and concerned individuals understand and identify the phenomenon and ultimately intervene with patients friends and loved ones Farber speaks both personally and professionally to the reader She discusses the different paths taken on the road to ecstatic states There are religious ecstasies ecstasies of pain and near death experiences cult induced ecstasies creative ecstasies and ecstasies from hell Hungry for Ecstasy explores not only the neuroscientific processes involved but also the influence of the sixties in driving people to seek these states Finally Farber draws from her own personal and professional experience to advise others how to intervene on behalf of the person whose behavior puts his or her life at risk Birth Crisis Sheila Kitzinger, 2006-09-27 One new mother in twenty is diagnosed with traumatic stress after childbirth Drawing on mothers voices and real life experiences Sheila Kitzinger explores the anxiety and panic experienced by these women Writing the Modern Family Roberta Garrett, 2021-01-29 Although a large body of work has emerged which addresses neoliberal representations of the family in other cultural forms such as parenting advice programmes little has been written specifically on the family and contemporary literature This book examines the growing body of autobiographical and fictional writing on family and parenting issues in Anglo American culture from the late 1990s to the present day The book looks closely at six distinct genres which have arisen during this time frame the misery memoir the mum s lit popular novel the maternal confessional dads lit the dysfunctional domestic novel and the family noir Writing the Modern Family will examine the way these burgeoning areas of British and American writing respond to a neoliberal public discourse in which a parenting deficit rather than economic and structural disadvantage is responsible for increasing inequality in child welfare and achievement In evaluating these forms and their relationship to neoliberal culture the book will also consider the complex interrelationship between these genres

Blue Dreams Lauren Slater, 2025-05-01 The explosive story of the discovery and development of psychiatric medications as well as the science and the people behind their invention told by a riveting writer and psychologist who shares her own experience with the highs and lows of psychiatric drugs Although one in five Americans now takes at least one psychotropic drug the fact remains that nearly seventy years after doctors first began prescribing them not even their creators understand exactly how or why these drugs work or don t work on what ails our brains Lauren Slater s revelatory account charts psychiatry s journey from its earliest drugs Thorazine and lithium up through Prozac and other major antidepressants of the present Blue Dreams also chronicles experimental treatments involving Ecstasy magic mushrooms the most cutting edge memory drugs placebos and even neural implants In her thorough analysis of each treatment Slater asks three fundamental questions how was the drug born how does it work or fail to work and what does it reveal about the ailments it is meant to treat Fearlessly weaving her own intimate experiences into comprehensive and wide ranging research Slater narrates a personal history of psychiatry itself In the process her powerful and groundbreaking exploration casts modern psychiatry s ubiquitous wonder drugs in a new light revealing their ability to heal us or hurt us and proving an indispensable resource not only for those with a psychotropic prescription but for anyone who hopes to understand the limits of what we know about the human brain and the possibilities for future treatments

Rachel Cusk Roberta Garrett, Liam Harrison, 2024-07-25 Rachel Cusk is one of the most critically acclaimed and controversial contemporary British authors Her diverse body of work offers a striking portrait of trends in 21st century literature and the history of Cusk s literary output is one of experimentation and a desire to push against established cultural models Rachel Cusk Contemporary Critical Perspectives is the first critical guide to Cusk s work spanning novels including Saving Agnes A Country Life and Second Place her autofictional Outline trilogy and her nonfiction A Life s Work The Last Supper Aftermath and the Coventry essays Rigorous and wide ranging this book provides an accessible and lucid introduction to Cusk s work exploring themes of gender relations class dynamics maternal identity and creative freedom The collection concludes with an in depth interview with Cusk conducted by Merve Emre reflecting on her influences writing and experiences Mapping the formal and stylistic shift across her career and locating them within their
