Adventures in Classical Chinese Literature Timothy Wai Keung Chan,2025-02-20 In a fourth century tale two farmers get lost in a pleasure grotto and unwittingly sever their fragile ties with the mortal world Surprisingly this simple cautionary fantasy spawned a complex literary tradition The narrative instability of the tale was part of its snowballing appeal Early in the tale s journey through literary history the girls met by the farmers morphed into female entertainers Daoist priestesses and spiritual transcendents This malleability offered a wealth of artistic possibilities The feature of time dilation and its associated dangers was also to become a flexible literary instrument and a defining feature of grotto fantasy literature An

Transcultural Lyricism Jane Qian Liu,2017-01-05 In Transcultural Lyricism Translation Intertextuality and the Rise of Emotion in Modern Chinese Love Fiction 1899 1925 Jane Qian Liu examines the profound transformation of emotional expression in Chinese fiction between the years 1899 and 1925 While modern Chinese literature is known to have absorbed narrative modes of Western literatures it also learned radically new ways to convey emotions Drawn from an interdisciplinary mixture of literary cultural and translation studies Jane Qian Liu brings fresh insights into the study of intercultural literary interpretation and influence She convincingly proves that Chinese writer translators in early twentieth century were able to find new channels and modes to express emotional content through new combinations of traditional Chinese and Western techniques The Burden of Female Talent Ronald Egan,2020-10-26 Widely considered the preeminent Chinese woman poet Li Qingzhao 1084 1150s occupies a crucial place in China s literary and cultural history She stands out as the great exception to the rule that the first rank poets in premodern China were male But at what price to our understanding of her as a writer does this distinction come The Burden of Female Talent challenges conventional modes of thinking about Li Qingzhao as a devoted but often lonely wife and later a forlorn widow By examining manipulations of her image by the critical tradition in later imperial times and into the twentieth century Ronald C Egan brings to light the ways in which critics sought to accommodate her to cultural norms molding her talent to make it compatible with ideals of womanly conduct and identity Contested images of Li including a heated controversy concerning her remarriage and its implications for her devotion to her first husband reveal the difficulty literary culture has had in coping with this woman of extraordinary conduct and ability The study ends with a reappraisal of Li s poetry freed from the autobiographical and reductive readings that were traditionally imposed on it and which remain standard even today Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1986 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals Chinese Literature ,1958 □□□□□□□□ ,2000 China Keith M. Buchanan,Charles Patrick
