First, it discusses the royal family's plot to thwart a romantic relationship between the young king Ananda and his Swiss girlfriend, Marileine Ferrari, a daughter of a famous pastor of Lausanne, Switzerland. Interracial marriage, particularly with Westerners, has been strictly forbidden for Thai kings or heirs apparent. The restriction stems from the interwoven connection between sexual relationship and the security of the throne. The second part investigates the mysterious death of King Ananda, a long-held taboo topic in Thailand. Although the two events were not specially related, both in their own way served to unavoidably shake the position of the monarchy and hence threaten its existence. The palace's reactions to these events demonstrated its continuous search to maintain its power and ultimately to warrant its survival. Samuel Beckett's Lyric Failure Mantra Mukim, 2025-03-06 Providing one of the first book length accounts of Samuel Beckett's poetry this work illustrates how Beckett's poetry and its failures reconfigure the lyric form Reading Beckett alongside nineteenth and twentieth century European poets such as Hölderlin Mallarmé Rimbaud Montale and Apollinaire the book situates failure in the triangulation of the lyric impulse subjectivity and the human voice Beckett in his poems employs lyric tactics that range from deixis parataxis and caesura to specific kinds of timbre resonances and punctuations These tactics situate the poetic voice in the liminal points between life and death event and non event beginning and ending and more broadly between expression and failure The book frames these liminalities under the rubric of lyric failure Moving beyond the usual comparisons with his prose and drama the study highlights failure as a generative force that structures Beckett's anti expressive poetics *Love's labor's lost.
