The Many Ways Jews Loved Constance Harris, 2020-07-06 While acknowledging the ways in which persecution inevitably affects a community this book deviates from most Jewish studies to survey the ways in which Jewish history has been shaped by the everyday experience of love It examines erotic poetry sensual art and literature and biblical and rabbinic stories about lust It reviews the ways in which Jewish law has both encouraged and regulated sexual interaction and studies the diversity of Jewish attitudes toward such relationships found in a vast array of works whose authors and artists often speak to the confusion and failure of love while also finding a purpose in its pursuance It tells the stories of those people who revel in love and of others who remember love and grieve in its absence The Journal of the National Education Association

National Education Association of the United States, 1929 Rise and Fall of Cesar Birotteau Honore de Balzac, 2015-12-21 During winter nights noise never ceases in the Rue Saint Honore except for a short interval Kitchen gardeners carrying their produce to market continue the stir of carriages returning from theatres and balls Near the middle of this sustained pause in the grand symphony of Parisian uproar which occurs about one o'clock in the morning the wife of Monsieur Cesar Birotteau a perfumer established near the Place Vendome was startled from her sleep by a frightful dream She had seen her double She had appeared to herself clothed in rags turning with a shrivelled withered hand the latch of her own shop door seeming to be at the threshold yet at the same time seated in her armchair behind the counter She was asking alms of herself and heard herself speaking from the doorway and also from her seat at the desk She tried to grasp her husband but her hand fell on a cold place Her terror became so intense that she could not move her neck which stiffened as if petrified the membranes of her throat became glued together her voice failed her She remained sitting erect in the same posture in the middle of the alcove both panels of which were wide open her eyes staring and fixed her hair quivering her ears filled with strange noises her heart tightened yet palpitating and her person bathed in perspiration though chilled to the bone Rise and Fall of Cesar Birotteau Honoré de Balzac, 2019-11-27 In Rise and Fall of Cesar Birotteau Honor de Balzac masterfully explores the tumultuous journey of a Parisian perfumer whose ambition leads to both triumph and tragedy Set against the backdrop of

19th century France this novel intricately weaves themes of commerce social ambition and the fragility of success within Balzac's richly detailed narrative style The work belongs to Balzac's broader series La Comédie Humaine which presents a vivid panorama of French society and it highlights the interplay between personal aspirations and the merciless realities of the capitalist landscape Honoré de Balzac 1799-1850 was a prominent French novelist and playwright whose deep understanding of human nature and societal structures informed his writing His own experiences in the rapidly changing world of 19th century Paris marked by the decline of the aristocracy and the rise of a bourgeois class shaped his characterization and themes Balzac's keen observations of social intricacies and moral complexities lend authenticity to Biotteau's descent from prosperity to despair reflecting the dreams and disillusionments of his contemporaries This compelling narrative not only offers an intimate portrait of César Biotteau but also serves as a microcosm of the broader societal changes occurring in France Readers drawn to tales of ambition power and the human condition will find Balzac's novel both engaging and thought provoking making it a timeless essential for anyone interested in classic literature

Golban,2020-11-24 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution by means of the books in the present series we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov s line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism

The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock, 2022-02-24 In The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock charts the development of the English novel over the past hundred years Smuggling in titles from Scotland Ireland and the Caribbean he focuses on twenty texts written since the end of the First World War some well known but others less so placing them in their historical context Novelists represented range from D H Lawrence E M Forster and Virginia Woolf through Graham Greene Kingsley Amis and Iris Murdoch to such contemporary writers as Ian McEwan Maggie O Farrell and Graham Swift Written in a lucid style that reflects his expertise and enthusiasm Lovelock s innovative selection perceptive analysis and lightness of touch will appeal to the general reader the book club member and the student He argues that our response as readers is an important part of the creative process and while he mainly avoids the critical isms that have characterised recent academic debate he introduces such concepts as intertextuality metafiction and the role of the often unreliable narrator showing how an appreciation of the way the language of fiction works can only add to our understanding and enjoyment

The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2010 Thomson independent scholar writing of The Biographical Dictionary of Film aka A Biographical Dictionary of the Cinema 1975 edition described it as a personal opinionated and obsessive biographical dictionary of the cinema Thirty five years and several editions later that description still holds true of this expanded work The new dictionary summarizes salient facts about its subjects lives and discusses their film credits in terms of the quality of the filmmakers work In ambition it has competitors including Leslie Halliwell s various editions of Halliwell s Filmgoers Companion 12th ed 1997 and Halliwell s Who s Who in the Movies edited by John Walker 4th ed rev and updated 2006 which cover films and technical terms categories not included in Thomson s but whose entries are neutral and exceedingly brief Additionally Francophile Richard Roud s edited Cinema A Critical Dictionary The Major Filmmakers 2 v 1980 is as passionate a work as Thomson s but narrower in scope with entries written by various experts rather than only by Roud Finally the multivolume magnum opus The International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers 4th ed 2000 ed by T Pendergast and S Pendergast 2nd ed ed by N Thomas v 1 CH May 91 1st ed ed by C Lyon v 1 2 CH Jan 85 v 3 CH Apr 87 v 4 5 CH Jun 88 covers everything films directors actors writers and production artists with generous measured scholarly entries and lavish illustrations However it looms large and heavy unlike the handy one volume work by Thomson Arguably Thomson s work for its scope is the most fun the most convenient and the most engaging title All libraries supporting people interested in film should buy it It will get lots of use and provide very good value for the money
