Environmental Ethics, Ecological Theology, and Natural Selection Lisa Sideris, 2003-07-16 In the last few decades religious and secular thinkers have tackled the world's escalating environmental crisis by attempting to develop an ecological ethic that is both scientifically accurate and free of human centered preconceptions This groundbreaking study shows that many of these environmental ethicists continue to model their positions on romantic pre Darwinian concepts that disregard the predatory and cruelly competitive realities of the natural world Examining the work of such influential thinkers as James Gustafson Sallie McFague Rosemary Radford Ruether John Cobb Peter Singer and Holmes Rolston Sideris proposes a more realistic ethic that combines evolutionary theory with theological insight advocates a minimally interventionist stance toward nature and values the processes over the products of the natural world

Reproductive Genetics, Gender and the Body Elizabeth Ettorre, 2013-04-15 This book is all about reproductive genetics a sociological concept developed to define the use of DNA based technologies in the medical management and supervision of reproduction and pregnant women In a searching analysis Elizabeth Ettorre uncovers the hidden social processes involved in the development of these technologies Focussing on prenatal screening she explores how the key concepts of gender and the body are intertwined with the process of building genetic knowledge and some of the unintended consequences for women These include the injection of biology into social relationships and the development of a gendered discourse of shame and stigmatisation in which the perfect body becomes idealised and new conceptions of disability are shaped It becomes clear that the modernist tradition of scientific disinterestedness is being replaced by a new ethic the making of moral judgements by scientists Reproductive Genetics Gender and the Body draws on interviews with European medical legal and nursing professionals and raises important issues around the gendered female body the site of genetic capital It challenges professional and scholar alike to grapple with and think through their responsibilities in this complex field where the competing issues have yet to be resolved     The Natural World and God Denis Edwards,2017-12-31 How are we to think about the natural world around us in relation to the God of Jesus Astronomers cosmologists and evolutionary biologists have opened wonderfully new ways of seeing the community of life on Earth and its place in the universe At the same time we are facing an extreme crisis of life on our planet Both of these realities demand that we rethink our theology of animals plants ecosystems as well as galaxies and stars In this book Denis Edwards collects together a series of explorations into this kind of theology     Moving Meditations Callie Drozinski,2024-07-02 While loving the Lord with all our hearts souls minds and strength we can be drawn into a deeper relationship with Him by moving our bodies to experience the presence of the Holy Spirit while becoming less self focused and more Christ focused Through scriptures devotions breath exercises and movements demonstrated with clear images registered yoga instructor Callie Drozinski shares inspiring tools that invite believers to relieve stress calm their busy minds and find relief from physical pain in order to love God themselves and others more like Jesus did Through her instructions participants will practice specific exercises and stretches focus their minds and pray the scripture as they move and breathe in each posture to open the heart and soul worship God and ultimately find healing Moving Meditations shares scriptures movements and devotions that encourage believers to exercise stretch and pray with Christ at the center to find healing for the heart soul mind and strength     Maximum Achievement Brian Tracy,2011-06-07 Brian Tracy is one of the world s leading authorities on success and personal achievement addressing more than 100 000 men and women each year in public and private seminars In Maximum Achievement he gives you a powerful proven system based on twenty five years of research and practice that you can apply immediately to get better results in every area of your life You learn ideas concepts and methods used by high achieving people in every field everywhere You learn how to unlock your individual potential for personal greatness You will immediately become more positive persuasive and powerfully focused in everything you do Many of the more than one million graduates of the seminar program upon which this book is based have dramatically increased their income and improved their lives in every respect The step by step blueprint for success and achievement presented in these pages includes proven principles drawn from psychology religion philosophy business economics politics history and metaphysics These ideas are combined in a fast moving informative series of steps that will lead you to greater success than you ever imagined possible they can raise your self esteem improve personal performance and give you complete control over every aspect of your personal and professional life     What About Me, God? Barbara Hinthner,2019-08-23 Feeling abandoned by God and others occurs in our life Let s learn how to see that abandonment does not occur for the Christian just more intimacy with God even when painful     Witnessing Kelly Oliver,2001-01-01 Challenging the fundamental tenet of the multicultural movement that social struggles turning upon race gender and sexuality are struggles for recognition this work offers a powerful critique of current conceptions of identity and subjectivity based on Hegelian notions of recognition The author's critical engagement with major texts of contemporary philosophy prepares the way for a highly original conception of ethics based on witnessing. Central to this project is Oliver's contention that the demand for recognition is a symptom of the pathology of oppression that perpetuates subject-object and same-different hierarchies. While theorists across the disciplines of the humanities and social sciences focus their research on multiculturalism around the struggle for recognition, Oliver argues that the actual texts and survivors' accounts from the aftermath of the Holocaust and slavery are testimonials to a pathos that is beyond recognition. Oliver traces many of the problems with the recognition model of subjective identity to a particular notion of vision presupposed in theories of recognition and misrecognition. Contesting the idea of an objectifying gaze, she reformulates vision as a loving look that facilitates connection rather than necessitates alienation. As an alternative, Oliver develops a theory of witnessing subjectivity. She suggests that the notion of witnessing, with its double meaning as either eyewitness or bearing witness to the unseen, is more promising than recognition for describing the onset and sustenance of subjectivity. Subjectivity is born out of and sustained by the process of witnessing the possibility of address and response, which puts ethical obligations at its heart.

Sallie McFague Sallie McFague, 2013-10-01 Sallie McFague offers a lucid and powerful guide to theological thinking about God and the world, individual and community, humanity and nature, reality and metaphor, the sacramental and the prophetic, and the critical issue of climate change for today's world. She calls Christians to new feeling, new acting, and new thinking.

A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Herrick, The Emerging Christian Way Michael Schwartzentruber, The face of Christianity is changing. In recent years, and in rapidly increasing numbers, people have begun to understand the core message and purpose of Christianity differently. They have returned to its ancient roots and found a wisdom that speaks to their experience of faith and God. According to this emerging vision, Christianity is primarily about transformation: the transformation of the self through a living and dynamic experience of God who is not separate from us but a part of us, and the transformation of society. The Emerging Christian Way: Thoughts, Stories, and Wisdom for a Faith of Transformation is a collection of 13 essays by some of the leading authors and thinkers in the field, covering every aspect of this developing Christian paradigm. Contributors include Marcus Borg, Matthew Fox, Tom Harpur, Tim Scorer, Sallie McFague, Cynthia Bourgeault, Nancy Reeves Don Grayston, the Very Rev. Bill Phipps, the Very Rev. Anne Squire, Mark Maclean, Bruce Harding, and Michael Schwartzentruber.

Reconstructing a Christian Theology of Nature Anna Case-Winters, 2016-04-08 In the present ecological crisis, it is imperative that human beings reconsider their place within nature and find new, more responsible and sustainable ways of living. Assumptions about the nature of God, the world, and the human being shape our thinking and consequently our acting. Some have charged that the Christian tradition has been more a hindrance than a help because its theology of nature has unwittingly legitimated the exploitation of nature. This book takes the current criticism of Christian tradition to heart and invites a reconsideration of the problematic elements: its desacralization of nature, its preoccupation with the human being to the neglect of the rest of nature, its dualisms, and elevation of the spiritual over material reality and its habit of ignoring or resisting scientific understandings of the natural world Anna Case Winters argues that Christian tradition has a more viable theology of nature to offer She takes a look at some particulars in Christian tradition as a way to illustrate the undeniable problems and to uncover the untapped possibilities In the process she engages conversation partners that have been sharply critical and particularly insightful feminist theology process thought and the religion and science dialogue The criticisms and insights of these partners help to shape a proposal for a reconstructed theology of nature that can more effectively fund our struggle for the fate of the earth

Summary of John O'Donohue's Anam Cara Everest Media,2022-08-22T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The world rests in the night Trees mountains fields and faces are released from the prison of shape and the burden of exposure Each thing creeps back into its own nature within the shelter of the dark 2 The Celts were a nature oriented people and their poetry is suffused with the color power and intensity of nature They saw the world as a presence and a companion 3 The Celtic world is full of immediacy and belonging The Celtic mind adored the light They needed a new and gentle light where the soul could shelter and reveal its ancient belonging They needed a light that had retained its kinship with the darkness 4 The human body is born complete in one moment but the birth of the human heart is an ongoing process Everything that happens to you has the potential to deepen you It brings to birth within you new territories of the heart
