Loving The Church Scriptural Meditations For The Papal Household:

Loving the Church Raniero Cantalamessa, 2005 In these reflections on the Letter to the Ephesians Fr Cantalamessa preacher to the papal household asks a critical question How can we read And Christ loved the Church Eph 5 25 without asking the question And I Do I love the Church The twentieth century was a time of theological ferment focusing attention on the nature of the Church But the author wonders Was there a proportionate growth in love for the Church Do we love the Church Do we understand its nature Do we weep over its sins or merely criticize Are we building up or tearing down Fr Cantalamessa explores the Church as building body bride and mother and also examines the family the domestic church in this inspirational meditation on the meaning of Church for each of us

The Politics of Conjugal Love Conor Sweeney, Brian T. Trainor, 2019-06-27 Does the New Testament teach that a wife must submit to her husband as head If so does it have a lasting value beyond the cultural milieu in which it was first articulated The Politics of Conjugal Love takes a fresh approach to this classic issue in theological anthropology paying specific attention to the role of theological hermeneutics in its interpretation Conor Sweeney and Brian T Trainor contend that both subordinationist and anti subordinationist readings of headship and submission miss the mark Their alternative is a baptismally specified trinitarian reading in which headship and submission appear as modes intrinsic to both life in Christ and the love proper to the highest mode of trinitarian love

Loving the Church Christoph Schoenborn, 2013-11-01 In this series of retreat meditations preached to Pope John Paul II and the papal household during a Lenten retreat Cardinal Christoph Sch nborn uses the Catechism of the Catholic Church of which he was the general editor and Sacred Scripture to lead us to a deeper union with Christ by helping us to understand and love the Church His bride To love the Church which the Catechism calls a living communion with Jesus Christ we must see her with the eyes of Jesus who loved the Church and gave Himself up for her As he draws us into a deeper understanding of the Church who she is and where the deepest wellsprings of her being lie are the theme of his meditations He also illustrates many points by using the thoughts of the new doctor of the Church St Th r se of Lisieux She found her vocation to be love in the heart of the Church and can offer us a renewed and vital vision of the Church It is an awesome task to preach a retreat in the presence of the Pope Cardinal Sch nborn does it successfully by presenting the methods of St Ignatius Loyola s famous retreat in a fresh way using the new Catechism the Bible and St Th r se of Lisieux

Fr Ken Baker S J Editor Homiletic and Pastoral Review Cardinal Christoph Sch nborn is the Archbishop of Vienna Austria He was the general editor of the Catechism of the Catholic Church and is the author of God s Human Face and Living the Catechism of the Catholic Church
