Loving Through Bars Children With Parents In Prison:

Loving Through Bars Cynthia Martone, 2005 Provides a close up examination of the instability and uncertainty that plague the children of prisoners in a collection of personal anecdotal accounts that chronicle their attempts to cope with the unique challenges in their lives     The Relationship Rights of Children James G. Dwyer, 2006-04-17 This book presents a sustained theoretical analysis of what rights children should possess in connection with state decision making about their personal relationships which the state does in numerous aspects of family law including paternity adoption custody and visitation termination of parental rights and grandparent visitation It examines the nature and normative foundation of adults rights in connection with relationships among themselves and then assesses the extent to which the moral principles underlying adults rights apply also to children It concludes that the law should ascribe to children rights equivalent though not identical to those which adults enjoy and this would require substantial changes in the way the legal system treats children including a reformation of the rules for establishing legal parent child relationships at birth and of the rules for deciding whether to end a parent child relationship     Grief, Loss, and Treatment for Death Row Families Sandra Joy, 2013-12-05 The families of death row inmates are rarely considered in public discourse regarding the death penalty They have largely been forgotten and their pain has not been acknowledged by the rest of society These families experience a unique grief process as they are confronted with the loss of their loved one to death row and brace themselves for the possibility of an execution Death row families are disenfranchised from their grief by the surrounding community and their mental health needs exacerbated as they struggle in isolation with the ambiguous loss that comes with the fear that the state will kill their loved one Grief Loss and Treatment for Death Row Families describes the grief that families experience from the time of their loved one s arrest through his or her execution In each chapter Sandra Joy guides the reader through the grief process experienced by the families offering clinical interventions that can be used by mental health professionals who are given the opportunity to work with these families at various stages of their grief The author conducted over seventy qualitative interviews with family members from Delaware who either currently have a loved one on death row or have survived the execution of their loved one Delaware was chosen because though it has a relatively small death row it is ranked third in the nation with its rate of per capita executions This book provides an in depth awareness of the grieving process of death row families as well as ways that professionals can intervene to assist them in healing With increased awareness and effective clinical treatment we can ensure that the families of death row inmates are forgotten no more     Encountering Correctional Populations Kathleen A. Fox, Jodi Lane, Susan F. Turner, 2018-01-09 While many studying criminology learn to examine offenders offending and its consequences few actually journey into the physical world of prisons to meet offenders face to face Created specifically for criminology students and equally useful for current researchers and practitioners this book serves as a step by step toolkit on how to humanely conduct research with populations in the correctional system The authors combined 60 years of experience allows them to provide field tested practical advice for researching youth and adults on probation on parole or incarceration The book guides readers through practical concerns such as gaining access and building rapport with offenders and those who monitor them the types of correctional data that can be collected informed consent process and research ethics and the logistics of doing research Through personal stories what if scenarios and case studies as well as examples of real world tools like checklists and sample forms the authors share methods of how to overcome the obstacles that criminologists must face as they learn to work with those behind bars      The Minds of Boys

Gurian Michael, Kathy Stevens, 2010-12-14 Michael Gurian s blockbuster bestseller The Wonder of Boys is the bible for mothers fathers and educators on how to understand and raise boys It has sold over 400 000 copies been translated into 17 languages and sells over 25 000 every year which is more than any other book on boys in history To follow up on this first book which launched the boy s movement he has now written this revolutionary new book which confronts what he and a lot of other parents and teachers in this country truly believe to be a boy s crisis Here are the facts Boys today are simply not learning as well as girls Boys receive 70% of the Ds and Fs given all students Boys cause 90% of classroom discipline problems 80% of all high school dropouts are boys Millions of American boys are on Ritalin and other mind bending control drugs Only 40% of college students are boys And three out of four learning disabled students are boys So what can we do Gurian has the answer in this enormously fascinating and practical book which shows parents and teachers how to help boys overcome their current classroom obstacles by helping to create the proper learning environment understand how to help boys work with their unique natural gifts nurture and expand every bit of their potential and enabling them to succeed in life the way they ought to Gurian presents a whole new way of solving the problem based on the success of his program in schools across the country the latest research and application of neuro biological research on how boys brains actually work and how they can learn very well if they re properly taught Anyone who cares about the future of our boys must read this book

Critical Criminology in Canada Aaron Doyle, 2011-01-01 This book presents the work of a new generation of critical criminologists who explore the geographical institutional and political contexts of the discipline in Canada Breaking away from mainstream criminology and law and order discourses the authors offer a spectrum of theoretical approaches to criminal justice from governmentality to feminist criminology from critical realism to anarchism and they propose novel approaches to topics ranging from genocide to white collar crime By posing crucial questions and attempting to define what criminology should be this book will shape debates about crime policing and punishment for years to come      Shadow Children Anthony S. Ikponwosa Ekunwe, Richard Statler Jones, 2011 Global Perspectives on Re Entry explores the challenges facing ex prisoners as they attempt to return to society after serving time in prison. The problem of re entry is of growing interest to academics, correctional professionals and policy makers who are concerned with high rates of incarceration and the increase in the numbers of prisoners caught up in the revolving door of criminal justice. This book is the first attempt to explore the problem of re entry from an international perspective. The focus of this book is on strategies utilized in various parts of the Western world that shed light on the struggles facing ex prisoners upon re entry as well as on the way different countries have attempted to solve these problems. The book seeks to address the important set of issues involved by bringing together the best of recent research and ideas on the subject of desistance from crime around the world with a distinct focus on how research might impact upon the implementation of ex offender reintegration policies. The book is divided into two sections. The chapters in the first part, Societal Institutional Perspective, consider the societal and institutional issues in different countries. The chapters in the second part of the book, Perspective of the Ex Offender, present various viewpoints of experts with first hand accounts of the re entry experiences of ex convicts. The Encyclopedia of Sixties Cool Chris Strodder, 2007-03-01. The Encyclopedia of Sixties Cool profiles over 250 of the most intriguing personalities of the 1960s. The men and women covered in the book include a wide range of celebrities from well known superstars like the Beatles, Dustin Hoffman, Muhammad Ali to lesser known icons like Nico, Terry Southern, Bo Diddley, who had a significant impact on popular culture. The figures include musicians, actors, directors, artists, athletes, politicians, writers, astronauts, anyone and everyone who made the sixties the most influential decade of the twentieth century. Over 200 vintage photographs and more than fifty sidebars are featured throughout the text. The sidebars include lists of Best Picture winners, great quarterbacks, Playmates of the Year, memorable TV theme songs, favorite toys, Disneyland rides, Wimbledon champions, groovy screen cars, surf stars, Indy 500 winners, cool cartoons, sci fi classics, Bond girls, bubblegum hits, beach movie cameos and legendary concerts. A what happened on this day calendar highlighting landmark events in the lives of those profiled appears on every page. Entertaining and enlightening, The Encyclopedia of Sixties Cool is truly a celebration of the grooviest people, events and artifacts of the 1960s.

Nurture the Nature Michael Gurian, 2009-01-26. From Michael Gurian, the best selling author of The Minds of Boys and The Wonder of Girls, comes the next step book that shows how any parent can tune into a child's unique core personality, hard wiring, temperament and genetic predisposition in order to help that child flourish and thrive. Based on the most recent brain research, Nurture the Nature features the Ten Tips for Nurturing the Nature of Your Baby, self tests, checklists and many other tools for you to help your kids get exactly the kind of support they need from infants to adolescents. While offering positive ideas for nurturing your child, Gurian also shows how to avoid the stress pressures and excessive competition of what he identifies as social trends parenting. Most parents know instinctively that their child is unique and has special potential, weaknesses and strengths. No child is a blank slate. Gurian calls on parents to turn away from one size fits all approaches and instead support the individual core nature of a child with effective and customized loving care

Tower Stories Damon DiMarco, 2007-08-01 Damon DiMarco's Tower Stories An Oral History of 9/11 eternally preserves a monumental tragedy in American history through the voices of the people who were in Lower Manhattan and elsewhere in New York City on that fateful day. The stories DiMarco has collected come from a diverse group of human beings: individuals who managed to escape from the Towers; the bereaved of 9/11; the policemen, firemen, paramedics, reporters, and volunteers who risked their lives to help others; eyewitnesses who stood in shock on the streets below the Towers; WTC structural engineers; political experts; political dissidents; small business owners; and of course children whose lives will be forever impacted by the horror and chaos they witnessed. In the tradition of Studs Terkel, DiMarco's moving oral history chronicles the stories of everyone from the small group of people who miraculously made it safely down from the 89th floor of Tower 1 to the New York Times reporter trying desperately to fight her way through the fleeing crowds into Lower Manhattan to the paramedic who set up a triage area 200 yards from the base of the Towers before they collapsed to the ordinary citizens of New York City who tried to get on with their lives in the days following the tragic event. This expanded second edition of DiMarco's literary time capsule includes follow-up interviews that track contributors' lives in the years since 9/11 as well as dozens of never-before-published photographs.

International Handbook of Victimology Shlomo Giora Shoham, Paul Knepper, Martin Kett, 2010-02-23 In the nearly four decades since the First International Symposium on Victimology convened in Jerusalem in 1973, some concepts and themes have continued to hold a prominent place in the literature while new ones have also emerged. Exploring enduring topics such as conceptions of victimhood, secondary and hidden victimization, and social services.

Behind Bars, Beyond Love Lloyd Leon, 2025-04-08 The emotional toll on parents who find themselves incarcerated can be profound and multifaceted. Many experience feelings of guilt and shame not just for their circumstances but for the impact their absence has on their children. This emotional burden can be overwhelming, leading to a sense of helplessness as parents grapple with the reality of being separated from their loved ones. It is crucial to acknowledge these feelings while also recognizing that they can be navigated and managed through healthy coping strategies.
