It identifies the top guns involved in each film, provides a storyline, rates the film and reviews its soundtrack. Stormy Monday Helen Oakley Dance, 1999-03-01. The most significant factor in the career of Aaron T Bone Walker was his ability to bridge the worlds of blues and jazz. The guitar artistry of this early exponent of urban blues was not only admired by blues musicians like B B King, Gatemouth Brown, Albert King and Albert Collins and rock guitarists such as Eric Clapton, Jimi Hendrix, Duane Allman and Stevie Ray Vaughan but by such jazz greats as Billie Holiday, Dizzy Gillespie, Lester Young and many others with whom he recorded. Stormy Monday is the first biography of T Bone Walker to be published. Using dozens of interviews with Walker as well as with members of his family, close friends, fellow musicians and business associates, the book offers a remarkable, frank insider's account of the life of a blues musician and compulsive gambler from the wild living and hard drinking on the road to a solid and contented family life at home. In a very real sense, the modern blues is largely his creation. Blues authority Pete Welding has written about T Bone Walker: 'The blues was different before he came on the scene and it hasn't been the same since, and few men can lay claim to that kind of distinction. No one has contributed as much as long or as variously to the blues.' Sound of the Crowd: a Discography of the '80s (Fourth Edition) Steve Binnie, 2018-11-05. SOUND OF THE CROWD: A DISCOGRAPHY OF THE 80s is the ultimate record collector's guide to the 1980s. In the era of multi-formatting, picture discs, coloured vinyl, multiple remixes, funny shaped records and tiny CDs, you could lose down the back of the sofa, this book lists every format of every single, EP and album released in the UK in the 1980s by over 140 of the decade's biggest acts from ABBA to Paul Young. This fourth edition has been fully revised and expanded to include even more acts than ever before, with additional sections to cover Band Aid style charity congregations and compilation albums from the early 80s K Tel efforts through to the Now That's What I Call Music series and its competitors. Compiled by Steve Binnie, editor of the 80s music website Sound of the Crowd and writer, producer and co-host of the unconventional 80s chart show Off The Chart broadcast weekly on Mad Wasp Radio. Surf & Hot Rod Music of the 60's: Collectors Quick Reference R. outdated system affecting so many lives I've learned firsthand of this biased one-sided system that has stolen my firstborn away from me. My story of these events that has transpired throughout two decades has been well documented with the facts of my case in its entirety. The surrounding drama marked by family court and fueled by a relentless baby mama has led me on a journey for justice for a daughter I never knew. Just like so many others who have fought and lost the right to be a parent, my mission now is to change and expose the truth of this corrupt culture that touches across all racial barriers and wealth status. History has shown us that a father's love is one of the most important key figures in a child's life. To undertake that away purposely can be an atrocity affecting generations to come. But who knew the fight for my daughter would ultimately catapult my life into a direction for change and a front row seat to a new normal that affects us all. Blues Before

Sunrise Steve Cushing, 2010-01-15 This collection assembles the best interviews from Steve Cushing's long running radio program Blues Before Sunrise, the nationally syndicated award winning program focusing on vintage blues and R & B. As both an observer and performer, Cushing has been involved with the blues scene in Chicago for decades. His candid colorful interviews with prominent blues players, producers and deejays reveal the behind the scenes world of the formative years of recorded blues. Many of these oral histories detail the careers of lesser known but greatly influential blues performers and promoters. The book focuses in particular on pre World War II blues singers, performers active in 1950s Chicago and nonperformers who contributed to the early blues world. Interviewees include Alberta Hunter, one of the earliest African American singers to transition from Chicago's Bronzeville nightlife to the international spotlight and Ralph Bass, one of the greatest R & B producers of his era. Blues expert, writer, record producer and cofounder of Living Blues Magazine, Jim O'Neal provides the book's foreword. SPIN, 2007-09 From the concert stage to the dressing room, from the recording studio to the digital realm, SPIN surveys the modern musical landscape and the culture around it with authoritative reporting, provocative interviews and a discerning critical ear. With dynamic photography, bold graphic design and informed irreverence, the pages of SPIN pulsate with the energy of today's most innovative sounds. Whether covering what's new or what's next, SPIN is your monthly VIP pass to all that rocks.
