Lucknow : Fire Of Grace: The Story Of Its Renaissance, Revolution And The Aftermath Amaresh Misra, 2004

Lucknow, Fire of Grace Amaresh Misra, 1998-01-01 Lucknow, Fire of Grace Amaresh Misra, 1998 Premchand in World Languages M. Asaduddin, 2016-05-20 This volume explores the reception of Premchand's works and his influence in the perception of India among Western cultures especially Russian German French Spanish and English The essays in the collection also take a critical look at multiple translations of the same work and examine how each new translation expands the work's textuality and annexes new readership for the author as well as representations of celluloid adaptations of Premchand's works An important intervention in the field of translation studies this book will interest scholars and researchers of comparative literature cultural studies and film studies Landscapes of Urban Memory Smriti Srinivas, A rich analysis of religion civic life and global transformation in India Established in the middle of the sixteenth century Bangalore has today become a center for high technology research and production the new Silicon Valley of India with a metropolitan population approaching six million It is also the site of the very popular annual performance called the Karaga dedicated to Draupadi the polyandrous wife of the heroes of the pan Indian epic of the Mahabharata Through her analysis of this performance and its significance for the sense of the civic in Bangalore Smriti Srinivas shows how constructions of locality and globality emerge from existing cultural milieus and how articulations of the urban are modes of cultural self invention tied to historical spatial somatic and ritual practices The book highlights cultural practices embedded in urbanization and moves beyond economic arguments about globalization or their reliance on the European polis or the American metropolis as models Drawing from urban studies sociology anthropology performance studies religion and history Landscapes of Urban Memory greatly expands our understanding of how the civic is constructed Silencing of the Sirens Aditi Dasgupta, 2015-06-02 After identifying the misconceptions attached to the figure of the Mughal Courtesan and then defining it in terms of the dual component structure of adaa in the face of a dearth of literature that exists on the culture and the agency of the courtesan this analysis would reinterpret the status of the courtesan figure within the domain of feminist theories and self assertion The female desire for autonomy according to Elaine Showalter defines a female exclusivity in terms of the dynamic phase which is a combination of the feminine conflict between self fulfillment and duty the feminist political consciousness and the female desire for autonomy If one operates the courtesan figure in the Showalter domain then the means to resist gender hierarchies through literary practices lie in a combination of both demand for exclusivity and real struggle into a truly subversive aesthetic which would have allowed the courtesan to have walked the corridors of power Juliet Mitchells argument states that the gendered treatment of women came into existence through the ideological form of the novel with females constructing themselves as the women they are under bourgeois norms by reading and writing novels Rereading the Silencing of the Sirens would uncover another such exclusive female tradition studying the female consciousness from the courtesans point of view

Satyajit Ray's The Chess Players and Postcolonial Film Theory

Reena Dube,2005-05-04 Indispensable for students of film studies in this book Reena Dube explores Satyajit Ray's films and The Chess Players in particular in the context of discourses of labour in colonial and postcolonial conditions Starting from Daniel Defoe and moving through history short story and film to the present Dube widens her analysis with comparisons in which Indian films are situated alongside Hollywood and other films and interweaves historical and cultural debates within film theory Her book treats film as part of the larger cultural production of India and provides a historical sense of the cross genre borrowings traditions and debates that have deeply influenced Indian cinema and its viewers

From the Ruins of Empire Pankaj Mishra,2012-09-04 The Victorian period viewed in the West as a time of self confident progress was experienced by Asians as a catastrophe As the British gunned down the last heirs to the Mughal Empire burned down the Summer Palace in Beijing or humiliated the bankrupt rulers of the Ottoman Empire it was clear that for Asia to recover a vast intellectual effort would be required Pankaj Mishra's fascinating highly entertaining new book tells the story of a remarkable group of men from across the continent who met the challenge of the West Incessantly travelling questioning and agonising they both hated the West and recognised that an Asian renaissance needed to be fuelled in part by engagement with the enemy Through many setbacks and wrong turns a powerful contradictory and ultimately unstoppable series of ideas were created that now lie behind everything from the Chinese Communist Party to Al Qaeda from Indian nationalism to the Muslim Brotherhood Mishra allows the reader to see the events of two centuries anew through the eyes of the journalists poets radicals and charismatics who criss crossed Europe and Asia and created the ideas which lie behind the powerful Asian nations of the twenty first century

In the City of Gold and Silver Kenizé Mourad,2014-11-04 An enthralling historical novel based on the little known female warrior in nineteenth century India who led a revolt against the British Here is the long forgotten story of Begum Hazrat Mahal queen of Awadh and the soul of the Indian revolt against the British brought to vivid life by the author of Regards from the Dead Princess a major bestseller in her native France Begum was an orphan and a poetess who captured the attentions of King Wajid Ali Shah of Awadh and became his fourth wife As his wife she incited and led a popular uprising that would eventually prove to be the first step toward Indian independence Begum was the very incarnation of resistance As chief of the army and the government in Lucknow she fought battles on the field for two years she was a freedom fighter a misunderstood mother and an illicit lover She was a remarkable woman who risked everything only to face the greatest betrayal of all

Land, Labour and Livelihoods Bina Fernandez,Meena Gopal,Orlanda Ruthven,2016-11-25 This book brings together a unique collection of theoretical and empirical analyses of women's access to land labour and livelihoods in contemporary India The authors recognize that gender relations must be viewed intersectionally along with other social relationships such as caste ethnicity religion sexuality and age in order to inform an integrated analysis of women's persistent disadvantage in India The chapters examine a diverse range of rural and urban livelihoods within sectors such as tea plantations nursing hair salons sex work and waste collection Documenting the shifts in these sectors in the context of economic liberalization the authors offer insights on the challenges of development interventions as women negotiate shifts in their livelihood options Written to engage the contributions to this book will be of interest both to the general reader and to academics and practitioners in development and gender women s studies
