Luftkreig Und Literatur:

W.G. Sebald and the Writing of History Anne Fuchs, Jonathan James Long, 2007 Summary W G Sebald frequently mentioned in the same breath as Franz Kafka and Vladimir Nabokov is one of the most important European writers of recent decades He has been lauded by such major cultural commentators as Susan Sontag and Paul Auster and he has combined wide public appeal with universal critical acclaim His work is concerned with questions of memory exile representation and above all else history But his approach to history is strikingly different from conventional historiographical writing on the one hand and from the historical novel on the other His texts are hybrid in nature mixing fiction biography historiography travel writing and memoir and incorporating numerous photographic images This volume seeks to respond to the complexities of Sebald s image of history by presenting essays by a team of international scholars all of whom are acknowledged Sebald experts It offers a unique and exciting perspective on the dazzling work of one of the major literary figures of our times

Publisher description W.G. Sebald's Luftkrieg und Literatur C. Lawson, 2010 War and German Memory K. Michael Prince, 2009-01-01 Germans often claim that we have learned the lessons of our history But what precisely are the lessons they have drawn from their Nazi era past What experiences from that time continue to hold significant meaning for Germans today and how have those experiences shaped postwar German cultural identity Though Germans have come to recognize the evils of Nazism for them its primary evil derived from the war it unleashed and the hardships death and destruction that the war wrought on the Germans themselves and less from the losses and suffering it caused others Recent public discussion about the Allied bombing campaign against Germany the expulsion of Germans from Eastern Europe and other German experiences during and following the Second World War have revealed what some see as an emerging tendency among Germans to perceive themselves as much the victims of wartime acts as other peoples Through a survey of postwar literature film and other popular media as well as public commemorations and other means of memorializing and discussing the past K Michael Prince demonstrates that the theme of German suffering has been an abiding and even overriding element of postwar German historical memory and a chief component of German cultural identity While academics have focused their attention on Nazism atrocity and genocide and while Germany s official ceremonies and other acts of public memory have been similarly directed it was the wartime sufferings of average Germans that have remained at the core of German historical consciousness influencing their attitudes toward war in general and shaping Germany s role in world affairs

Sebald, 2001 Eine provozierende These Die deutsche Literatur hat vor dem Grauen des Luftkriegs versagt Mit analytischer Schärfe und großem Materialreichtum markiert Sebald eine Wunde in der Nachkriegsliteratur die bis heute nicht verheilt ist Seine herausfordernde Untersuchung wird ergänzt durch einen Essay mit dem Sebald auf die erregten Diskussionen antwortet Present Pasts Andreas Huyssen, 2003 This book analyzes the relation of public memory to history forgetting and selective memory in three late twentieth century cities that have confronted major social or political traumas Berlin Buenos Aires and New York W.G. Sebald's Hybrid Poetics Lynn L. Wolff, 2014-04-02 This book offers a new critical perspective on the perpetual problem of literature's relationship to reality and in particular on the sustained tension between literature and historiography The scholarly and literary works of W G Sebald 1944 2001 serve as striking examples for this discussion for the way in which they demonstrate the emergence of a new hybrid discourse of literature as historiography This book critically reconsiders the claims and aims of historiography by re-evaluating core questions of the literary discourse and by assessing the ethical imperative of literature in the 20th and 21st centuries Guided by an inherently interdisciplinary framework this book elucidates the interplay of epistemological aesthetic and ethical concerns that define Sebald's criticism and fiction Appropriate to the way in which Sebald's works challenge us to rethink the boundaries between discourses genres disciplines and media this work proceeds in a methodologically non-dogmatic way drawing on hermeneutics semiotics narratology and discourse theory In addition to contextualizing Sebald within postwar literature in German the book is the first English language study to consider Sebald's oeuvre as a whole Of interest for Sebald experts and enthusiasts literary scholars and historians concerned with the problematic of representing the past Kriegsdiskurse in Literatur und Medien nach 1989 , Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies Saturn's Moons Jo Catling, 2017-07-05 The German novelist poet and critic W G Sebald 1944-2001 has in recent years attracted a phenomenal international following for his evocative prose works such as Die Ausgewanderten The Emigrants Die Ringe des Saturn The Rings of Saturn and Austerlitz spellbinding elegiac narratives which through their deliberate blurring of genre boundaries and provocative use of photography explore questions of Heimat and exile memory and loss history and natural history art and nature Saturn's Moons a W G Sebald Handbook brings together in one volume a wealth of new critical and visual material on Sebald's life and works covering the many facets and phases of his literary and academic careers as teacher as scholar and critic as colleague and as collaborator on translation Lavishly illustrated the Handbook also contains a number of rediscovered short pieces by W G Sebald hitherto unpublished interviews a catalogue of his library and selected poems and tributes as well as extensive primary and secondary bibliographies details of audiovisual material and interviews and a chronology of life and works Drawing on a range of original sources from Sebald's Nachlass the most important part of which is now held in the Deutsches Literaturarchiv Marbach Saturn's Moons will be an invaluable sourcebook for future Sebald studies in English and German alike complementing and augmenting recent critical works on subjects such as history memory modernity reader response and the visual The contributors include Mark Anderson Anthea Bell Ulrich von Buelow Jo

A Nation of Victims?, 2015-06-29 The re emergence of the issue of wartime suffering to the fore of German public discourse represents the greatest shift in German memory culture since the Historikerstreit of the 1980s The international attention and debates triggered by for example W G Sebald's Luftkrieg und Literatur G nter Grass's Im Krebsgang J rg Friedrich's Der Brand testify to a change in focus away from the victims of National Socialism to the traumatic experience of the perpetrator collective and its legacies The volume brings together German English and Israeli literary and film scholars and historians addressing issues surrounding the representation of German wartime suffering from the immediate post war period to the present in literature film and public commemorative discourse Split into four sections the volume discusses the representation of Germans as victims in post war literature and film the current memory politics of the Bund der Vertriebenen the public commemoration of the air raids on Hamburg and Dresden and their representation in film photography historiography and literature the impact and reception of W G Sebald's Luftkrieg und Literatur the representation of flight and expulsion in contemporary writing the problem of empathy in representations of Germans as victims and the representation of suffering and National Socialism in Oliver Hirschbiegel's film Der Untergang

Narratives of Trauma, 2015-06-29 Over the last decade German culture has been engaged in a re examination of the traumatic events of the Second World War and their post war legacy in the public and private sphere This shift in German memory culture from a focus on responsibility for the Holocaust to a focus on wartime suffering has attracted a lot of critical attention over the past decade in both Cultural and Literary Studies and History This volume brings together British German Dutch and American scholars from the fields of Cultural Studies History and Sociology to address the national and international significance of discourses of German wartime suffering in post war and contemporary Germany The focus of this interdisciplinary volume is both on the historical roots of the Germans as victims narratives and the forms of their continuing existence in contemporary public memory and culture The first three sections of this volume explore the conditions of German victim discourses in a variety of media and public arenas from historiography sociology literature and film to monuments civil defence bunkers and local public memory The final section sets the contemporary re articulation of German wartime suffering in an international context with respect to its reception and its reflection in both Western and Eastern Europe and Israel

Memories and Representations of War, 2009-01-01 The contributors to the present volume approach World War I and World War II as complex and intertwined crossroads leading to the definition of the new European and world reality and deeply pervading the making of the twentieth century These scholars belong to different yet complementary areas of research history literature cinema art history they come from various national realities and discuss questions related to Italy Britain Germany Poland Spain at times introducing a comparison between European and North American memories of the two World War experiences These scholars are all guided by the same principle to encourage the establishment of an interdisciplinary and trans national dialogue in order to work out new approaches capable of integrating and acknowledging different or even opposing ways to perceive and interpret the same historical phenomenon While assessing the way the memories of the two World Wars have been readjusted each time in relation to the evolving international historical setting and through various mediators of memory cinema literature art and monuments the various essays contribute to unveil a cultural panorama inhabited by contrasting memories and by divided memories not to emphasise divisions but to acknowledge the ethical need for a truly shared act of reconciliation

W.G. Sebald, 2016-08-09 This volume presents the work of internationally renowned scholars from Australia Germany Italy South Africa the UK and the US The focus on W G Sebald s writing as that of an expatriate author offers a fresh and productive approach to Sebald scholarship In one way or another all 28 essays in this innovative bi lingual collection take up the notion of Sebald s experience as an expatriate writer be it in the analysis of intertextual transmedial and generic border crossings on the exposure to the other and the experience of alterity on the question of identity construction and performance on affinities with other expatriate writers on the recurring topics of home exile dislocation and migration or on the continuing work of memory to work through and to preserve the consciousness of a destructive past that has informed the childhood as much as the adult life world of the author Politics and Culture in Twentieth-century Germany William John Niven, James Jordan, 2003 This is the first book to examine this crucial relationship between politics and culture in Germany not only during the Nazi and Cold War eras but in periods when the effects are less obvious Pathos and Anti-Pathos Tom Vanassche, 2022-12-31 Scholarship often presumes that texts written about the Shoah either by those directly involved in it or those writing its history must always bear witness to the affective aftermath of the event the lingering emotional effects of suffering Drawing on the History of Emotions and on trauma theory this monograph offers a critical study of the ambivalent attributions and expressions of emotion and emotionlessness in the literature and historiography of the Shoah It addresses three phenomena the metaphorical discourses by which emotionality and the purported lack thereof are attributed to victims and to perpetrators the rhetoric of affective self control and of affective distancing in fiction testimony and historiography and the poetics of empathy and the status of emotionality in discourses on the Shoah Through a close analysis of a broad corpus centred around the work of W G Sebald Dieter Schlesak Ruth Kluger and Raul Hilberg the book critically contextualises emotionality and its attributions in the post war era when a scepticism of pathos coincided with demands for factual rigidity Ultimately it invites the reader to reflect on their own affective stances towards history and its commemoration in the twenty first century

The Literature of Absolute War Nil Santiáñez, Nil Santiáñez-Tió, 2020-05-28 This is the first comparative transnational approach to the language of absolute war and the literature on World War II Victims and Perpetrators: 1933-1945 Laurel Cohen-Pfister, Dagmar Wienroeder-Skinner, 2012-03-12 This volume examines the politics of history and memory in Germany today through a review and analysis of seminal developments in the current discourse on 1933 1945 An interdisciplinary work this book examines questions of representing the past from the perspective of literary studies social psychology film studies history and cultural studies Themes include transgenerational memory and remembrance the air war and German literature commemoration and silences transnational reconciliation and historical consciousness in the German present The collected essays make clear that as the current discourse contributes toward an historically informed differentiated understanding of individuals roles in the Third Reich and World War Two victim and perpetrator identities cannot be defined as exclusive from one another The discourse emphasizes personal over collective experience and answers questions of responsibility and guilt on the individual level
