this framework the authors discuss American and French novels and French language plays that offer an insight into today's diverse challenges to being human. They consider the impact of neoliberalism on shaping human affects and intimacies as well as literary responses to socio-economic precarity. The art and artificiality of theater are shown to be means that allow us to delve into the extremes of human experience, for example, by revisiting myths that re-interpret desire and question the possibility of a future for human beings.
