Rediscovering Lost Innocence E. Pierre Morenson, 2017-11-29 In the first half of the nineteenth century responsibility for child care primarily rested within families Needy children were often cared for by community sponsored efforts that varied widely in quality as well as by benevolent organizations dedicated to children's welfare The late 1800s was marked by major social service infrastructure construction and development During this period guided by progressive concerns about the role of the state in responding to societal changes resulting from urbanization and industrialization Rhode Island took on a more active statewide role in public education sewers parks prisons and child welfare systems New ideas about civil rights extended to race to women to labor and to children Old institutions such as town almshouses and poor farms were replaced by state institutions such as the State Home which opened in 1885 One might expect to find a huge record for custodial children well imbedded in regional literatures or social science and history texts yet this is not the case The State Home Project began in 2001 with no evocative life histories and no local or regional childhood narratives about the former residents of the State Home upon which to build It remains an important place because thousands of children and citizens lived portions of their lives there Documenting children s educational social and health experiences are not inconsequential To be sure varied narratives about custodial children developed as we dug into the soils read unexamined case histories and talked with former residents Archaeology offers the possibility of recovering lost and missing details and in collaboration with other disciplines creates a rich narrative of a place These experiences were significant in our past they are important to us in the present and to future generations They demonstrate our common history Alarums & Excursions Charles Marowitz,1996 Applause Books Charles Marowitz casts a critical eye upon the highpoints of the last theatrical decade in preparation for a new millennium In a series of reviews think pieces essays and commentaries culled from publications as varied as The London Times and Theatre Week magazine Marowitz examines the work of such major playwrights as Mamet Stoppard Shepard Neil Simon Beckett Gurney Pinter Kushner Baitz Shanley Williams and McNalley Marowitz dramatically captures the anger anxiety spectacle and questionable correctness that characterized the past decade Winter of Grace Robert Funderburk,1998 A series of armed robberies the disappearance of a teenage girl and the desperate attempt to keep an innocent girl out of harm s way From My Heart to His Heart Vera L. Smith,2023-10-09 From unexpected struggles and precious moments spent in God s presence God is building life stories of strength endurance and an overcoming spirit because nothing in life is wasted Looking through a biblical lens God seeks out ordinary clay vessels to tell his story to bring to light what his own eyes behold The book From My Heart to His Heart reveals real life experiences encountered during a personal wilderness season that challenge the reader to look within The book opens the eye to recognizing that those who walk closely with God are not exempt from a wilderness season for it comes to us all Entwined with biblical Scriptures and history and divinely inspired poetry that tells of intimacy with God the reader is drawn to reflect on God s presence when prayers seem to go unanswered From compelling real life stories that engage the heart the mind and the soul truth is revealed Walk with the author to experience joy from a place of sorrow and to trust God from a place of isolation and silence and then rejoice in understanding that God takes all of what we ve gone through to build purpose and to position us to bless his kingdom Mary Mary Elizabeth Braddon,1916 All the Days Were Summer Robert Funderburk,1997 As the chief deputy of the sleepy bayou town of Evangeline Dylan St John s tranquil life is shattered when the mayor is assassinated beginning a puzzling pattern of murders The Spring of Our Exile Robert Funderburk,1999 A Dylan St John novel Beauchampe William Gilmore Simms,1882 Works Charles Lamb,1842 The Works of Charles Lamb Charles Lamb,1848 The Water-Powered Mills of Floyd County, Virginia Franklin F. Webb,Ricky L. Cox,2014-01-10 From the time of early settlement in Virginia water powered mills played a primary role in the state s economy This work provides an overview of grain milling in Floyd County Virginia from 1770 to the present day Topics covered include the difficulties involved in identifying early mills the importance of mill site selection water wheel types laws regulating mills the decline of milling and physical remains of abandoned mill sites The main body of the book provides individual histories of 140 grist flour and feed mills a few of which also processed wool The histories are based primarily on oral histories title deed records and local newspapers More than 100 photographs and maps supplement the text and tables provide production figures for various mills from industrial censuses of 1850 1870 and 1880

All the Year Round ,1888 Age of Innocence Termica Harris,2018-06-14 As the star character Weeping Lilly struggles to overcome a tragic childhood memory she sits awaiting her fate within the chambers of captivity While her enemies vow to take the breath of her very existence the truth somehow prevails Age of Innocence is a most compelling novel that reflects the history of pain and suffering due to apparent ethnical and interracial backgrounds The color of one's skin is profoundly disgraced through the cruel deeds of others who had no compassion nor understanding As the sky cleared and the prophecy of life settled upon the souls of its victims the Age of Innocence awoke what one thought was dead
