Old New Zealand And Other Writings:

Old New Zealand and Other Writings Frederick Edward Maning, 2001 In this work a pakeha Maori trader looks back to the good old times before Governors were invented and law and justice and all that It is a construction of Maori life and customs most notably of tapu taboo There is also a selection of Maning s unpublished letters Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The Oxford History of Historical Writing: 1800-1945 Daniel R. Woolf, Andrew Feldherr, Grant Hardy, Ian Hesketh, 2011 A chronological scholarly survey of the history of historical writing in five volumes Each volume covers a particular period of time from the beginning of writing to the present day and from all over the world Teaching Australian and New Zealand Literature Nicholas Birns, Nicole Moore, Sarah Shieff, 2017-05-01 Offers techniques for teaching Australian and New Zealand literature in college and discusses the history of the two countries Maori and Aboriginal texts colonialism gender landscapes violence indigenous aesthetics ethics and crime fiction Includes information on editions reference works and online resources Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses Webs of Empire Tony Ballantyne, 2014-04-01 Breaking open colonization to reveal tangled cultural and economic networks Webs of Empire offers new paths into our colonial history Linking Gore and Chicago Maori and Asia India and newspapers whalers and writing empire building becomes a spreading web of connected places people ideas and trade These links question narrow national stories while broadening perspectives on the past and the legacies of colonialism that persist today Bringing together essays from two decades of prolific publishing on international colonial history Webs of Empire establishes Tony Ballantyne as one of the leading historians of the British Empire Nineteenth-Century Travels, Explorations and Empires, Part II vol 6 Peter J Kitson, William Baker, 2021-12-16 A collection of writings on travels undertaken in the Victorian era The texts collected in these volumes show how 19th century travel literature served the interests of empire by promoting British political and economic values that translated into manufacturing goods Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company A Companion to Herman Melville Wyn Kelley, 2015-06-24 In a series of 35 original essays this companion demonstrates the relevance of Melville s works in the twenty first century Presents 35 original essays by scholars from around the world representing a range of different approaches to Melville Considers Melville in a global context and looks at the impact of global economies and technologies on the way people read Melville Takes account of the latest and most sophisticated scholarship including postcolonial and feminist perspectives Locates Melville in his cultural milieu revising our views of his politics on race gender and democracy

Reveals Melville as a more contemporary writer than his critics have sometimes assumed Exploration and Exchange Jonathan Lamb, Vanessa Smith, Nicholas Thomas, 2000 This anthology places the works of such well known figures as Captain James Cook and Robert Louis Stevenson alongside the writings of lesser known explorers missionaries beachcombers and literary travellers who roamed the South Seas from the late 17th through the late 19th centuries Settler Colonialism in Victorian Literature Philip Steer, 2020-01-16 A transnational study of how settler colonialism remade the Victorian novel and political economy by challenging ideas of British identity Women Writing Home, 1700-1920 Vol 5 Klaus Stierstorfer, Deirdre Coleman, Cecily Devereux, Susan Clair Imbarrato, Charlotte J Macdonald, 2024-08-23 Assembles a range of women's letters from the former British Empire These letters written home are not only historical sources they are also representations of the state of the Empire in far off lands sent home to Britain and occasionally other centres established as home Representations of Global Civility Sascha R. Klement, 2021-05-10 Perhaps unexpectedly English travel writing during the long eighteenth century reveals a discourse of global civility By bringing together representations of the then already familiar Ottoman Empire and the largely unknown South Pacific Sascha Klement adopts a uniquely global perspective and demonstrates how cross cultural encounters were framed by Enlightenment philosophy global interconnections and even handed exchanges across cultural divides In so doing this book shows that both travel and travel writing from the seventeenth to the nineteenth centuries were much more complex and multi layered than reductive Eurocentric histories often suggest On Display Anna Smith, Lydia Wevers, 2004 A group of New Zealand's leading cultural studies scholars provide their perspectives on the politics of display in this thought provoking collection of essays Philip Armstrong Roger Blackley Kyla McFarlane Annie Potts and Paul Williams among others showcase their thinking about cultural activities looking and showing viewing and arranging that are deeply embedded in ideology From the antique plaster casts held by Auckland Museum to the wild foods on New Zealand's West Coast the essays pursue a variety of trajectories on how New Zealanders display themselves and what they profess and contest in their collective representations Education, Values and Ethics in International Heritage Jeanette Atkinson, 2016-04-29 The changing and evolving relationship between museums and communities Indigenous ethnic and marginalized has been a primary point of discussion in the heritage sector in recent years Questions of official and unofficial heritage whose artefacts to collect and exhibit and why have informed and influenced museum practice Developing from this a key issue is whether it is possible to raise awareness of differing cultural perspectives values and beliefs and incorporate this into the education and training of heritage professionals with the aim of making cultural awareness an integrated and sustainable core part of future heritage training and practice This book discusses perceptions of values and ethics authenticity and significance and documents the historical heritage and education context in North America Scandinavia and the United Kingdom with a particular emphasis on Aotearoa New Zealand The author explores whether it is possible to learn respect for differing cultural perspectives through the undertaking of educational programmes identifies various approaches that could complement the development of students and professionals in the cultural heritage and preservation sectors and offers a means of actively engaging with cultural and professional values through a Taxonomy for Respecting Heritage and Values

A Decade in Borneo Ada Pryer, 2001-01-01 In 1878 a German named Overbeck and an Englishman named Dent travelled to North Borneo now Sabah announced to the locals that their ruler the Sultan of Brunei had sold all trade rights in the region and left a young man named William Pryer to establish the British North Borneo Company there In 1894 Ada Pryer who had married William in 1883 published her account of his early years as an administrator along with some sketches of their life together The result is a lively vivid and compelling narrative The only book aimed at presenting North Borneo appealingly to British audiences and thus capturing their political support for the British commercial presence there Ada's little book functioned as a kind of immigration manual about a land where snakes were scarce and moonlight was plentiful The memoir has value both as a travel narrative in its own right and for understanding the international politics of the British takeover of North Borneo This new edition reproduces the text of the original 1894 edition and includes an introductory essay as well as annotations to explain and contextualize references of historical and biographical significance

Settler and Creole Reenactment V. Agnew, J. Lamb, 2009-12-28 Explores the uncalculated and incalculable elements in historical re enactment unexpected emotions unplanned developments and locates them in countries where settlers were trying to establish national identities derived from metropolitan cultures inevitably affected by the land itself and the people who had been there before them

Making Ends Meet Ian Wedde, 2005 Passionate witty and erudite these essays by a radical curator describe how museums approach their sometimes conflicting missions to sponsor scholarship generate popular appeal and claim social significance This analysis includes discussions of art and ethnology the failure of late Modernist art history the construction of official culture the intellectual history of European exploration in the Pacific problems with cultural studies of the Pakeha Maori and the conservation of archives and narratives

The Oxford Handbook of Shakespearean Tragedy Michael Neill, David Schalkwyk, 2016-08-18 The Oxford Handbook of Shakespearean Tragedy presents fifty four essays by a range of scholars from all parts of the world Together these essays offer readers a fresh and comprehensive understanding of Shakespeare tragedies as both works of literature and as performance texts written by a playwright who was himself an experienced actor The opening section explores ways in which later generations of critics have shaped our idea of Shakespearean tragedy and addresses questions of genre by examining the playwright's inheritance from the classical and medieval past The second section is devoted to current textual issues while the third offers new critical readings of each of the tragedies This is set beside a group of essays that deal with performance history with screen productions and with versions devised for the operatic stage as well as with twentieth and twenty first century re workings of Shakespearean tragedy The book's final section expands readers awareness of Shakespeare's global reach tracing histories of criticism and performance across Europe the Americas Australasia the Middle East Africa India and East Asia Thinking on Thresholds Subha Mukherji,2011 Through a combination of case studies and theoretical investigations the essays in this book address the imaginative power of the threshold as a productive space in literature and art

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers
