The Struggle for Black Freedom in Miami Abigail Cloud, 2014-04-07 In her first collection of poems Abigail Cloud draws inspiration from nineteenth century European Romantic ballets which often portrayed scorned females as mystical spirits such as sylphs shades and wilis Some of these creatures seduced men into dancing until they died punishment for inconstancy or lured them into love For Cloud the dark gravity that holds these enchanters to the earth is the same as our own and thus these demons are as everyday as air Sylph filters our world through the lenses of dance folklore and history revealing our contemporary lives to be dreamlike and prismatic In the blink the mouse spent to disappear I loved you avows the sylph The cost of her ascension and ours is steep our price speech our forgetting breath Such are the stakes in this complex seductive and stunning debut

Caribbean and Latinx Street Art in Miami Jana Evans Braziel, 2024-02-29 This study focuses on street art and large scale murals in metropolitan Miami Dade County while also foregrounding the diasporic and aesthetic interventions made by migrant and second generation artists whose families hail from the Caribbean and Latin America Jana Evans Braziel argues that Caribbean and Latinx street artists define and visually mark the city of Miami as a diasporic transnational urban space These artists also help define Miami as a cosmopolitan city yet one that is also a distinctly Caribbean and Latinx urban space and simultaneously resist but also at times reluctantly participate in the forces of gentrification and urban re development particularly through the myriad and complex ways in which street art contributes to city branding and art tourism The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history urban studies American studies and Latin American Caribbean studies
