Remnants of Refusal Erin Shevaugn Schlumpf, 2025-05-01 Analyzes how French and Chinese literary and filmic texts enact a series of feminist affective responses to the erasure of historical trauma Remnants of Refusal traces an affective discourse of feminist refusal across a series of French and Chinese works of film and literature Developing an inventive comparative approach Erin Shevaugn Schlumpf argues that this discourse takes shape in response to two national traumas and their aftermath the German Occupation and the Tiananmen Square Massacre respectively In both contexts events associated with the trauma were effectively erased from the official historical record and replaced by an unwritten code of public secrecy And in both contexts three affects melancholy ambivalence and exhaustion provide means of expressing mourning without breaking the taboo of direct representation In films and literary texts by Wang Anyi Chen Ran Jia Zhangke Nathalie Sarraute Marguerite Duras Jean Luc Godard and others mourning is most frequently borne by and through the bodies of women generating a broader feminist counternarrative to historical forgetting and burgeoning neoliberalism

Unmasking the State Mike McGovern, 2024-05-31 When the Republic of Guinea gained independence in 1958 one of the first policies of the new state was a village to village eradication of masks and other ritual objects it deemed fetishes The Demystification Program as it was called was so urgent it even preceded the building of a national road system In Unmasking the State Mike McGovern attempts to understand why this program was so important to the emerging state and examines the complex role it had in creating a unified national identity In doing so he tells a dramatic story of cat and mouse where minority groups cling desperately to their important and outlawed customs Primarily focused on the communities in the country's southeastern rainforest region people known as Forestiers the Demystification Program operated via a paradox At the same time it banned rituals from Forestiers day to day lives it appropriated them into a state sponsored program of folklorization McGovern points to an important purpose for this by objectifying this polytheistic group s rituals the state created a viable counterexample against which the Muslim majority could define proper modernity Describing the intertwined relationship between national and local identity making McGovern showcases the coercive power and the unintended consequences involved when states attempt to engineer culture

Home Movies Claire Jenkins,2015-04-06 The American family has long been at the centre of the typical Hollywood narrative But the depiction of the nuclear family within contemporary mainstream US cinema has not yet been closely studied Home Movies addresses this oversight by assessing recent cinematic representations of the family in terms of cultural politics and representations of gender sexuality race and class Focusing on a diverse range of popular films from Meet the Parents to The Incredibles Claire Jenkins analyses the father daughter relationship within sequels and series Meryl Streep s embodiment of the mother the superhero family and extraordinary manifestations of the ordinary family disaster films which depict the president as father mom coms and Hollywood s representations of the non traditional family She combines film studies gender studies and family history to demonstrate the complexities of Hollywood s family values

Mulattas and Mestizas Suzanne Bost,2010-02-25 In this broadly conceived exploration of how people represent identity in the Americas Suzanne Bost argues that mixture has been central to the definition of race in the United States Mexico and the Caribbean since the nineteenth century Her study is particularly relevant in an era that promotes mixed race musicians actors sports heroes and supermodels as icons of a new America Bost challenges the popular media s notion that a new millennium has ushered in a radical transformation of American ethnicity in fact this paradigm of the changing face of America extends throughout American history Working from literary and historical accounts of mulattas mestizas and creoles Bost analyzes a tradition dating from the nineteenth century of theorizing identity in terms of racial and sexual mixture By examining racial politics in Mexico and the United States racially mixed female characters in Anglo American African American and Latina narratives and ideas of mixture in the Caribbean she ultimately reveals how the fascination with mixture often corresponds to racial segregation sciences of purity and white supremacy The racism at the foundation of many nineteenth century writings encourages Bost to examine more closely the subtexts of contemporary writings on the browning of America Original and ambitious in scope Mulattas and Mestizas measures contemporary representations of mixed race identity in the United States against the history of mixed race identity in the Americas It warns us to be cautious of the current millennial celebration of mixture in popular culture and identity studies which may contrary to all appearances mask persistent racism and nostalgia for purity THE SPIRIT AND PSYCHOSOMATIC THERAPY JOSEPH ADEBAYO AWOYEMI,2012-02-29 This book is an examination of the role of the spirit in the diagnosis and therapy of psychosomatic pathology It explores healing knowledge from the Bible theology psychology sociology psychiatry science and medicine as they work together on the healing of diseases of the body and mind Earlier in the book the author incurs into autobiographical insights which bears relevance to the vision about researching the spirit s influence in psychosomatic therapy The book also explores various modes of power that bear on the therapy and homeostasis of the psychosomatic helpseeker and how the individual functions under each mode To accomplish the research the author used questionnaires and interviews as instruments Two case studies were also examined From this study the researcher concludes that the Spirit of God Spirit and the Human spirit spirit are necessarily linked in human wholeness the Psyche and Soma being recipients in the process Baby Boomer Lamentations Lewis Tagliaferre,2013-05-01 Today there are approximately seventy six million Americans who were born in the years from 1946 to 1965the baby boomers In their youth they thrived voting for a number of entitlements based on assumptions of economic growth that no longer applies Now as baby boomers continue aging they must face a number of potentially disheartening realities From caring for ailing parents to funding their retirement to facing death many issues weigh too heavily upon the minds of the baby boomer generation to allow for a peaceful productive second half of life Whats more many of the spiritual belief systems passed down for so many generations no longer provide the comfort or support people need in order to face the challenges of the later half of life The people need something new In this second edition of Baby Boomer Lamentations author and self proclaimed religious philosopher Lewis Tagliaferre explores the concept of Theofatalism and addresses the rising spiritual concerns of the baby boomers offering a new outlook to help readers make the inevitable transitions through the later years of life Ushering in a New Republic Trevor S. Luke,2014-09-11 The ancient Romans are well known for their love of the pageantry of power No single ceremony better attests to this characteristic than the triumph which celebrated the victory of a Roman commander through a grand ceremonial entrance into the city that ended in rites performed to Rome s chief tutelary deity Jupiter Optimus Maximus on the Capitoline hill The triumph however was only one form of ceremonial arrival at the city and Jupiter was not the only god to whom vows were made and subsequently fulfilled at the end of a successful assignment. Ushering in a New Republic expands our view beyond a narrow focus on the triumph to look at the creative ways in which the great figures of Rome in the first century BCE men such as Sulla, Caesar, Augustus and others crafted theological performances and narratives both in and around their departures from Rome and then returned to cast themselves in the role of divinely supported saviors of a faltering Republic. Trevor S. Luke tackles some of the major issues of the history of the Late Republic and the transition to the empire in a novel way. Taking the perspective that Roman elites even at this late date took their own religion seriously as a way to communicate meaning to their fellow Romans, the volume reinterprets some of the most famous events of that period in order to highlight what Sulla, Caesar and figures of similar stature did to make a religious argument or defense for their actions. This exploration will be of interest to scholars of religion, political science, sociology, classics and ancient history and to the general history enthusiast. While many people are aware of the important battles and major thinkers of this period of Roman history, the story of its theological discourse and competition is unfolded here for the first time.
