Parliament. House of Commons, 1910 Minutes of Evidence Taken Before the Committee on Scottish Universities Great Britain. Committee on Scottish Universities, 1910 Performing Early Christian Literature Kelly Iverson, 2021-10-07 Scholars of early Christian literature acknowledge that oral traditions lie behind the New Testament gospels While the concept of orality is widely accepted it has not resulted in a corresponding effort to understand the reception of the gospels within their oral milieu In this book Kelly Iverson reconsiders the experiential context in which early Christian literature was received and interpreted He argues that reading and performance are distinguishable media events and significantly that they produce distinctive interpretive experiences for readers and audiences alike Iverson marshals an array of methodological perspectives demonstrating how performance generates a unique experiential context that shapes and informs the interpretive process Iverson s study explores the dynamic oral environment in which ancient audiences experienced the gospel stories He shows why an understanding of oral performance has important implications for the study of the NT as well as for several issues that are largely unquestioned by biblical scholars The American Mercury George Jean Nathan, Henry Louis Mencken, 1928 The Concept of Self in Education, Family, and Sports Anne P. Prescott, 2006 The issue of self concept is central to the studies and practices of education and psychology The varying degrees of self esteem that exist between individuals can offer insight into the varying degrees of health and efficiency that exist for individuals in the worlds of education family and sport The research presented in this book are the latest explorations of how self concept translates into and has an effect on these far reaching and unavoidable aspects of life
