Psychotheology Key Issues Studia Theologica:

Psychotheology J. Harold Ellens, 1987 Joint Acquisitions List of Africana, 1991 South African national bibliography, 1988 Includes publications received in terms of Copyright Act no 9 of 1916 Compass Psychotheology: Where Psychology & Theology Really Meet Dr. Dan and Kate Montgomery, 2006 Dr Dan and Kate Montgomery's masterwork on integrating psychology and theology has practical application in the fields of pastoral ministry counseling personality theory and discipleship Praised by professors at Yale Fuller Gordon Conwell Garrett Evangelical University of Dubuque Andover Newton and Dallas theological seminaries the Self Compass r growth tool produces personality transformation strengthens relationships and increases intimacy with God Dr Ray Anderson calls the book stunning and stimulating recommended as required reading here at Fuller Theological Seminary Theologian Gabriel Fackre writes Thank you Dan and Kate Montgomery for this remarkable mating of theology and psychology quo The Psychotheology of Sin and Salvation Paul V. Axton, 2015-10-22 Through the employment of the work of Slavoj i ek and his engagement with the Apostle Paul Axton argues that Paul in Romans 6 8 understands sin as a lie grounding the subject outside of Christ and salvation is an exposure and displacement of this lie The theological significance of i ek along with Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan is his demonstration of the pervasive and systemic nature of this lie and its description as he finds it in Romans 7 The specific overlap of the two disciplines of psychology and theology is found in the psychoanalytic understanding that the human Subject or the psyche is structured in three registers the symbolic the imaginary and the real These three registers function like a lie analogous to the Pauline categories of law ego and the body of death which constitute Paul's dynamic of sin's deception Axton argues that if sin is understood as a lie grounding the Subject the exposure of the lie or the dispelling of any notion of mystery connected to sin is integral to salvation and the reconstructing of the Subject in Christ While the lie of sin is mediated by the law new life in the Spirit is not through the law but is a principle unto itself which though it accounts for the law is beyond the law Psychotheology E. Mark Stern, Bert G. Marino, 1970 Fundamental Theology Heinrich Fries, 1996 Praise for the German edition A master listener a master arguer a master of ecumenical sensitivity Fries is concerned to hand on an existential and reflected experience of the faith and to make it comprehensible to other men and women as an answer to their questions about the meaning and direction of life thus Fundamental Theology is not just a textbook but also a book of faith Herder Korrespondenz Fundamental theology with its traditional divisions of faith revelation and Church studies the basic anthropological philosophical biblical and historical foundations of theology It is the place where theology's religious intellectual and cultural presuppositions are mapped out and where individuals can gain an understanding of what is at stake as Catholic theology moves toward its future Unfortunately however theology is seldom taught today in this carefully structured way Many students and readers of theology have little access to the philosophy and theology of the modern neoscholastic revival that made possible the achievements of the Second Vatican Council and its current reforms Addressing this need renowned theologian Heinrich Fries offers what is both a traditionally structured treatment of the basic issues of fundamental theology as they have been modified by Vatican II and a study of the major ethical religious and cultural issues of the late twentieth century In discussing the many influences at work in Catholic theology Fries provides the background needed for understanding a bewildering variety of developments and movements such as neothomism transcendental thomism Church reform under Vatican II and liturgical reform liberation and political theology and their sibling movements of feminist womanist and mujerista theology inculturation and Christianity's shift from a Eurocentric to a World Church ecumenism and interreligious dialogue the tensions between traditionalists and progressives and finally Catholicism's rapprochement with modernity and the challenges of postmodernism Fries is uniquely qualified to write a fundamental theology He personally contributed to the great achievements of the Second Vatican Council and since that time has played a leading role in the contemporary development of the theology of revelation and ecumenism Fundamental Theology was originally published in German in 1985 Now available for the first time in English it will be an important reference for all theological students and an interesting historical study on Catholic theology for general readers Born in Germany in 1911 Heinrich Fries was professor at Tübingen and Munich He resides in Germany and continues to work as a writer and speaker

Theology and Psychology Fraser Watts, 2018-01-12 This title was first published in 2002 Many people are now interested in the relationship between religion and science but links between Christian belief and psychology have been relatively neglected This book opens up the dialogue between Christian theology and modern scientific psychology approaching the dialogue in both directions Current scientific topics like consciousness and artificial intelligence are examined from a religious perspective Christian themes such as God's purposes and activity in the world are then examined in the light of psychology This accessible study on psychology and Christian belief offers students and general readers alike important insights into new areas of the science and religion debate
