Elizabeth Boone,Lianne McTavish,2024-11-29 This edited volume written by historians of art and visual culture who are working in the field of animal studies seeks to understand how our ways of positioning and ex positioning animals have separated us from the other than human animals that are an integral part of our interconnected world Bringing together the visual and material culture of display with recent theoretical study on human animal relations the book draws attention to ways in which we might rethink this history and map pathways for the future Defining the idea of exhibition and display broadly chapters consider a diverse range of media including paintings anatomical sculpture books prints and clothing exhibition venues that take place in both the public and private realms and key ideas such as looking at looking back seeing being seen and interspecies recognition The authors cover topics that span the sixteenth through the early twentieth centuries and focus geographically on Europe and America with significant content related to Canada Indigenous America and Latin America The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies museum studies animal studies and environmental humanities      Bulas y breves pontificios relativas á la jurisdicción privilegiada de la Real Capilla Catholic Church. Pope,1878      The History of Water Management in the Iberian Peninsula Ana Duarte Rodrigues,Carmen Toribio Marín,2020-03-18 This volume approaches the history of water in the Iberian Peninsula in a novel way by linking it to the ongoing international debate on water crisis and solutions to overcome the lack of water in the Mediterranean What water devices were found What were the models for these devices How were they distributed in the villas and monastic enclosures What impact did hydraulic theoretical knowledge have on these water systems and how could these systems impact on hydraulic technology Guided by these questions this book covers the history of water in the most significant cities the role of water in landscape transformation the irrigation systems and water devices in gardens and villas and lastly the theoretical and educational background on water management and hydraulics in the Iberian Peninsula between the sixteenth and the nineteenth centuries Historiography on water management in the territory that is today Spain has highlighted the region's role as a mediator between the Islamic masters of water and the Christian world The history of water in Portugal is less known and it has been taken for granted that is similar to its neighbour This book compares two countries that have the same historical roots and therefore many similar stories but at the same time offers insights into particular aspects of each country It is recommended for scholars and researchers interested in any field of history of the early modern period and of the nineteenth century as well as general readers interested in studies on the Iberian Peninsula since it was the role model for many settlements in South America Asia and Africa Queenship in Europe 1660-1815 Clarissa Campbell Orr, 2004-08-12

Publisher Description Historia de una familia Miguel Caballero Pérez, Pilar Góngora Ayala, 2007 Beauty and Brutality Martin F. Manalansan IV, Martin F. Manalansan, Robert Diaz, Roland B. Tolentino, 2023-01-06 This edited volume deconstructs popular generalizations of Manila Bringing together scholars from across the humanities and social sciences this volume presents a series of multidisciplinary lenses to understand the complexities and contradictions of Manila illustrating the breadth of experience it represents and that its citizens live The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Volume 37 Thomas Jefferson, 1950 V 36 1 December 1801 to 3 March 1802 Early Modern Dynastic Marriages and Cultural Transfer

Professor Joan-Lluís Palos, Professor Magdalena Sánchez, 2016-01-28 Toward the end of the fifteenth century the Habsburg family began to rely on dynastic marriage to unite an array of territories eventually creating an empire as had not been seen in Europe since the Romans Other European rulers followed the Habsburgs lead in forging ties through dynastic marriages Because of these marriages many more aristocrats especially women left their homelands to reside elsewhere Until now historians have viewed these unions from a primarily political viewpoint and have paid scant attention to the personal dimensions of these relocations Separated from their family and thrust into a strange new land in which language attire religion food and cultural practices were often different these young aristocrats were forced to conform to new customs or adapt their own customs to a new cultural setting Early Modern Dynastic Marriages and Cultural Transfer examines these marriages as important agents of cultural transfer emphasizing how marriages could lead to the creation of a cosmopolitan culture common to the elites of Europe These essays focus on the personal and domestic dimensions of early modern European court life examining such areas as women's devotional practices fashion patronage and culinary traditions
