Quotation and Modern American Poetry Elizabeth Gregory, 1996 Gregory reads the efflorescence of poetic quotation as part of an attempt to redefine the sources of authority in the modernist world in which traditional hierarchies of all kinds seemed to be disintegrating For Americans and for women this breakdown offered an opportunity since they had long occupied a secondary position in the reigning cultural and gender orders But it was an opportunity with a cost and not all poets welcomed it Imaginary Gardens and Real Toads Catherine Gunn, 1982 Imaginary Gardens with Real Toads Stuart Evans, 1972 "Imaginary Gardens with Real Toads--" San Francisco Public Library, Children's Services, Poetry Center (San Francisco State College),1972 The Passionate Mind of Maxine Greene William F. Joyce, 1998 This study of Marianne Moore and the visual arts focuses on how art productions serve to break down and re create cultural practice proving that culture is a mutable organism reluctant to change but not impervious to it In doing so author Elisabeth W Joyce shows that even though Moore may have restricted herself to the quiet provincial life of Brooklyn her poetry attests to her resistance to the constrictions imposed by the predominating bourgeoisie This study presents the bifurcation between modernism and the avant garde where while the modernists retreated from engagement in society the avant gardistes remained focused on political and social issues in order to critique stifling cultural phenomena so that art could effect cultural changes In taking this stance instead of viewing Moore's poetry as typically and provincially American Joyce places her in the international and radical art movements of the early twentieth century Body
