SEVA to Realize the SELF Mahesh C. Mangalick,2014-09-30 In villages around India many people have no facilities that provide adequate health care and education despite the Indian government allocating an enormous amount of funding In order to offset this lack of health care and educational facilities in Indian villages many private individuals and organizations provide medical services and educational opportunities to the poor This book details two major SEVA projects founded by Mr and Mrs P C Mangalick in Agra India SEVA is selfless service that an individual or group provides to underprivileged people These acts of selfless service are prompted by an awareness of the presence of God in all beings This book describes how SEVA leads to a purified mind and therefore an understanding of the self the part of one source God within an individual s personality     A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater

O.P,2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being     The Refutation of the Self in Indian Buddhism James Duerlinger,2013-02-15

Since the Buddha did not fully explain the theory of persons that underlies his teaching in later centuries a number of different interpretations were developed This book presents the interpretation by the celebrated Indian Buddhist philosopher Candrak rti ca 570 650 C E Candrak rti s fullest statement of the theory is included in his Autocommentary on the Introduction to the Middle Way Madhyamak vat rabhasya which is along with his Introduction to the Middle Way Madhyamak vat ra among the central treatises that present the Pr savgika account of the Madhyamaka Middle Way philosophy In this book Candrak rti s most complete statement of his theory of persons is translated and provided with an introduction and commentary that present a careful philosophical analysis of Candrak rti s account of the selflessness of persons This analysis is both philologically precise and analytically sophisticated The book is of interest to scholars of Buddhism generally and especially to scholars of Indian Buddhist philosophy     Talks on the Path of Occultism Annie Besant,Charles Webster
