Reason And Revelation In Middle Ages:

Reason and Revelation in the Middle Ages Etienne Gilson, 1938 Etienne Gilson French historian and philosopher was born in 1884 Member of the French Academy and Director of the Institute of Medieval Studies at Toronto he is the author of among many brilliant works The Spirit of Medieval Philosophy and The Unity of Philosophical Experience Reason and Revelation in the Middle Ages Etienne Gilson, 1964 God and Reason in the Middle Ages Edward Grant, 2001-07-30 Between 1100 and 1600 the emphasis on reason in the learning and intellectual life of Western Europe became more pervasive and widespread than ever before in the history of human civilization Of crucial significance was the invention of the university around 1200 within which reason was institutionalized and where it became a deeply embedded permanent feature of Western thought and culture It is therefore appropriate to speak of an Age of Reason in the Middle Ages and to view it as a forerunner and herald of the Age of Reason that was to come in the seventeenth century The object of this study is twofold to describe how reason was manifested in the curriculum of medieval universities especially in the subjects of logic natural philosophy and theology and to explain how the Middle Ages acquired an undeserved reputation as an age of superstition barbarism and unreason The End of the Middle Ages Kelly Roscoe, 2017-07-15 The Middle Ages were marked by economic and territorial expansion demographic and urban growth the emergence of national identity and the restructuring of secular and ecclesiastical institutions Readers will learn about the great achievements of the ninth through twelfth centuries a time when people were often categorized into three orders those who fight those who pray and those who labor Other notable events and phenomena examined in this authoritative history include the Carolingian renaissance the Crusades Gothic art and architecture the papal monarchy the birth of the university and the recovery of ancient Greek thought Jonathan Edwards's Philosophy of History Avihu Zakai, 2009-02-09 Avihu Zakai analyzes Jonathan Edwards's redemptive mode of historical thought in the context of the Enlightenment As theologian and philosopher Edwards has long been a towering figure in American intellectual history Nevertheless and despite Edwards's intense engagement with the nature of time and the meaning of history there has been no serious attempt to explore his philosophy of history Offering the first such exploration Zakai considers Edwards's historical thought as a reaction in part to the varieties of Enlightenment historical narratives and their growing disregard for theistic considerations Zakai analyzes the ideological origins of Edwards's insistence that the process of history depends solely on God's redemptive activity in time as manifested in a series of revivals throughout history reading this doctrine as an answer to the threat posed to the Christian theological teleology of history by the early modern emergence of a secular conception of history and the modern legitimation of historical time In response to the Enlightenment refashioning of secular historical time and its growing emphasis on human agency Edwards strove to re-establish God's preeminence within the order of time Against the de-Christianization of history and removal of divine power from the historical process he sought to re-enthroned God as the author and lord of history and thus to re enchant the historical world Placing Edwards's historical thought in its broadest context this book will be welcomed by those who study early modern history American history or religious culture and experience in America A Thomistic Tapestry, 2021-12-28 This book written by well known students of St Thomas Aquinas and especially dedicated to Armand A Maurer helps inaugurate a long overdue special series in philosophy honoring Gilson's legendary scholarship It presents wide ranging expositions of Thomist realism in the tradition of Gilsonian humanism covering themes related to philosophy in general historical method aesthetics metaphysics epistemology and politics The Cultural Context of Medieval Learning J.E. Murdoch, E.D. Sylla, 2012-12-06 Proceedings of the First International Colloquium on Philosophy Science and Technology in the Middle Ages September 1973 Philosophy of Religion for a New Century Jeremiah Hackett, Jerald Wallulis, 2004-04-30 Philosophy of Religion for a New Century represents the work of nineteen scholars presented at a conference in honor of Eugene T Long at the University of South Carolina April 5-6 2002 This volume is a good example of philosophy in dialogue there is both respect and genuine disagreement First an account of our present situation in the Philosophy of Religion is given leading to a discussion of the very idea of a Christian Philosophy and the coherence of the traditional concept of God The implications of science and a concern for the environment in our concepts of God are carefully examined A discussion follows on the possibility of speech about God and silence about God Since much of modern European philosophy is concerned with the Death of God theme the positions of Nietzsche and some of his twentieth century interpreters are presented There are presentations on Feminist Approaches to Philosophy of Religion and Comparative Religion is examined in relation to cultures and the demands of rationality The volume concludes with a critical dialogue on the relation of Religious Discourse to the Public Sphere Developing global awareness has led to significant change in the Philosophy of Religion One dimensional approaches have given way to honest dialogue The traditional boundaries between the secular and the religious have shifted and new approaches to traditional problems are required This volume presents examples of these new approaches The Historical Constitution of St. Bonaventure's Philosophy John Francis Quinn, 1973 Aspects of Doctoral Research at the Maryvale International Catholic Institute (Volume Four) Catherine Knowles, Birute Briliute, Harry Schnitker, 2023-05-16 This collection of extracts from students who successfully defended their doctoral thesis highlights the breadth of research in Catholic Studies The fourth book in a series of volumes it shines new light on age old issues and in many ways offers solutions to and opportunities for dialogue with the contemporary world These essays from the students of Maryvale International Catholic Institute with doctorates accredited by Liverpool Hope University truly reflect the philosophy underpinning academic life at Maryvale that of St John Henry Newman In essence his vision for education involves an extension of knowledge a cultivation of reason an insight into the relation of faith to truth learning to view things as they are and understanding how faith and reason stand to each other These students have achieved that This volume presents work covering the areas of moral theology ethics bioethics textual analysis theology philosophy history and literature crossing in places into the territory of pastoral theology evangelisation and catechesis A Deeper Vision Robert Royal, 2015-12-15 In this wide ranging and ambitious volume Robert Royal a prominent participant for many years in debates about religion and contemporary life offers a comprehensive and balanced appraisal of the Catholic intellectual tradition in the twentieth century The Catholic Church values both Faith and Reason and Catholicism has given rise to extraordinary ideas and whole schools of remarkable thought not just in the distant past but throughout the troubled decades of the twentieth century Royal presents in a single volume a sweeping but readable account of how Catholic thinking developed in philosophy theology Scripture studies culture literature and much more in the twentieth century This involves great figures recognized as such both inside and outside the Church such as Jacques Maritain Bernard Lonergan Joseph Pieper Edith Stein Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor Romano Guardini Karl Rahner Henri du Lubac Karol Wojtyla Joseph Ratzinger Hans Urs von Balthasar Charles Peguy Paul Claudel George Bernanos Francois Mauriac G K Chesterton Gerard Manley Hopkins Christopher Dawson Graham Greene Sigrid Undset J R R Tolkien Czeslaw Milosz and many more Royal argues that without rigorous thought Catholicism however welcoming and nourishing it might be would become something like a doctor with a good bedside manner but who knows little medicine It has always been the aspiration of the Catholic tradition to unite emotion and intellect action and contemplation But unless we know what the tradition has already produced especially in the work of the great figures of the recent past we will not be able to answer the challenges that the modern world poses or even properly recognize the true questions we face This is a reflective non polemical work that brings together various strands of Catholic thought in the twentieth century A comprehensive guide to the recent past and the future Spheres of Philosophical Inquiry and the Historiography of Medieval Philosophy John Inglis, 1998 This volume provides a genealogy of the modern historiography of medieval philosophy up to the present rediscovers fifty years of German scholarship criticizes what has become the standard approach and proposes an historically sensitive alternative Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay-Indonesian World Azhar Ibrahim, 2022-11-24 While many books have probed the role of Islam in political and social change in Southeast Asia over the past three decades few have focused on the power of the religious discourse itself in shaping this transformation Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay Indonesian World captures the interplay between religion and social thought in comparative case studies from Malaysia Indonesia and Singapore Drawing on a critical sociology of knowledge and a profound understanding of historical contexts the central focus is on Muslim intellectuals who have grappled with the impact of modernity in these societies between those seeking to reform Islam's role and those who take a hardline defensive stance The discussion deals successively with the role of religious traditionalism the upsurge of dakwah revivalism and the public sphere attitudes towards democracy and pluralism and finally the ideas advanced by liberal Islam and its opponents Above all Azhar Ibrahim offers the reader a creative way of understanding the modern Islamic discourse and its relationship to the remaking of society at large Azhar Ibrahim's book cuts through the noise of much discourse on Islam and puts perspective to a vast amount of materials effectively constructing their actual social and historical meaning It should be read by all those seeking an in depth understanding of contemporary Southeast Asia even beyond the particular issues of Islam and Muslims Shaharuddin Maaruf Academy of Malay Studies University of Malaya This book is a must read for all those interested in a critical evaluation of the force and implications of religious traditionalism conservatism and revivalism on the development of plural and democratic Muslim societies in Southeast Asia and the challenges they pose to critical voices struggling for the relevance of ethical and humanist traditions of Islam Noor Aisha binte Abdul Rahman Department of Malay Studies National University of Singapore
